Unit description

This unit extends students' theoretical understanding of educational leadership by exploring the organisational nature of educational settings and examining the application of organisational theories in these settings. After completing this unit, students will better understand the complexities and ambiguities of leadership and management, organisational change and policy implementation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Delivery and Resources

Learning occurs via online forums on the iLearn Unit website, self-directed reading and reflection, and workshop sessions on three Sundays (these sessions are optional but recommended for 'external' students who are able to attend; attendance by 'day' students is expected).

'Self-directed reading' draws on detailed notes that are provided, a range of material provided via e-reserve and regularly updated, a textbook (Bolman, L., & Deal, T. Reframing Organizations: Artistry, Choice and Leadership. San Francisco, CA: Jossey-Bass) and three other recommended books:

Hatch, M. (2006). Organization Theory: Modern, Symbolic and Postmodern Perspectives. Oxford: OUP.

Morgan, G. (2006). Images of Organization. Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage.

Palmer, I. & Hardy, C. (2000). Thinking about management: Implications of organizational debates for practice. London: Sage.

Students are expected to use the iLearn unit website to submit assessed work, to communicate with the Unit Convenor, and to engage in online forums.

Unit Schedule

The Unit is introduced at an evening session in the first week of Semester. After that, there are three on-campus workshop sessions during the Semester, each conducted on a Sunday between 9.30 am to 1.30 pm. Workshop sessions involve a mix of formal input, review of progress, exercises and discussion.

Face to face sessions are optional but recommended for 'external' students who are able to attend. Attendance by 'day' students is expected.
