Unit description

Successful managers are great leaders. This unit introduces students to the foundations of leadership through self-reflection tools that aid in understanding how to lead effectively. Students will be considering the cultural, political, ethical and organisational contexts of leadership and the implications of leadership ideas. Throughout this unit, students will develop skills to manage teams and better develop their leadership behaviour capabilities.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Identify and analyse the nature and origins of leadership.
- ULO2: Apply self-reflection to leadership challenges.
- ULO3: Examine effective practices and strategies to develop sustainable team relationships in a collaborative working environment.
- ULO4: Analyse ethical leadership issues in a management context.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.
