Unit description

This unit introduces students to advanced criminology theory. Students will develop a comprehensive understanding of how theory directs critical understandings of crime and, in turn, relates to the broader social world. This includes criminological beliefs, held within the discipline of Criminology and by practitioners in the Criminal Justice System, that help understand the common attitudes and rule systems that contribute to the intellectual atmosphere of a particular time or place. Topics focus on two 'waves' of criminological theory; the first, contemporary criminological theory, focuses on the 'grand theories' that are rooted in the discipline. The second, future directions in criminology, explores the challenges the discipline presently faces and how theory can contribute to expanding a critical understanding crime.

Commentary Analysis - Idea Pitch

Assessment Type <sup>1</sup>: Report

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 8 hours

Due: Week 3

Weighting: 10%

As a formative assignment for the commentary analysis, students will be asked to describe in one sentence what their piece will say as well as highlight why the reader, that is to say the public audience, will need to know about their chosen topic in question. The aim will be to give early feedback to help direct the students in the development of the assignment.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Employ independent research skills and disciplinary knowledge to evaluate domestic and transnational criminal issues.

- Effectively communicate advanced disciplinary knowledge in both written and oral formats.

Participation

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 13 hours

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 10%

You will be required to demonstrate an active and critical engagement with course content. This includes showing a detailed knowledge and understanding of weekly materials and a critical awareness of, and response to, issues raised in the weekly lecture. You should also be able to apply these topics to ongoing national and international news events.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically analyse, evaluate and compare a range of criminological theories.
- Employ independent research skills and disciplinary knowledge to evaluate domestic and transnational criminal issues.
- Demonstrate a critical understanding of criminological theory and its potential to shape new responses to crime.

This extended essay is an opportunity to show what you have learned throughout the course and to apply the ideas and theories to specific cases, events and/or media. Students will be expected to respond to the task and, drawing on course material along with independently sourced academic texts, display skills of analysis, evaluation and critical thinking to produce a logical and coherent argument.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically analyse, evaluate and compare a range of criminological theories.
- Employ independent research skills and disciplinary knowledge to evaluate domestic and transnational criminal issues.
- Apply a synthesised understanding of criminological theory to explain the development of criminal issues of domestic or international significance.

Commentary Analysis

Assessment Type <sup>1</sup>: Report

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 20 hours

Due: Week 7

Weighting: 30%

Students will be asked to write a commentary piece for a public audience. Needing to display clarity in language as well as argument, students will be asked to identify a topical story currently or recently in the news and analyse the events through the use of theory. ## Delivery and Resources

Delivery and Resources

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

- You should spend an average of 12 hours per week on this unit. This includes listening to lectures prior to seminar or tutorial, reading weekly required materials as detailed in iLearn, participating in iLearn discussion forums and preparing assessments.
- Internal students are expected to attend all seminar or tutorial sessions, and external students are expected to make significant contributions to on-line activities.
- In most cases students are required to attempt and submit all major assessment tasks in order to pass the unit.

REQUIRED READINGS

- The citations for all the required readings for this unit are available to enrolled students through the unit iLearn site, and at Macquarie University's library site. Electronic copies of required readings may be accessed through the library or will be made available by other means.

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

- Computer and internet access are essential for this unit. Basic computer skills and skills in word processing are also a requirement.
- This unit has an online presence. Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>
- Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.
- Information about IT used at Macquarie University is available at http://students.mq.edu.au/it\_services/

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT TASKS

- All text-based assessment tasks are to be submitted, marked and returned electronically.

This will only happen through the unit iLearn site.

- Assessment tasks must be submitted as a MS word document by the due date.
- Most assessment tasks will be subject to a 'Turnitin' review as an automatic part of the submission process.
- The granting of extensions is subject to the university's Special Consideration Policy. Extensions will not be granted by unit conveners or tutors, but must be lodged through Special Consideration: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>

LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENT TASKS

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of, 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic

WORD LIMITS FOR ASSESSMENT TASKS

- Stated word limits include footnotes and footnoted references, but not bibliography, or title page.
- Word limits can generally deviate by 10% either over or under the stated figure.
- If the number of words deviates from the limit by more than 10%, then penalties will apply. These penalties are 5% of the awarded mark for every 100 words deviation from the word limit. If a paper is 300 words over, for instance, it will lose  $3 \times 5\% = 15\%$  of the total mark awarded for the assignment. This percentage is taken off the total mark, i.e. if a paper was graded at a credit (65%) and was 300 words over, it would be reduced by 15 marks to a pass (50%).

- The application of this penalty is at the discretion of the course convener.

REASSESSMENT OF ASSIGNMENTS DURING THE SEMESTER

- Macquarie University operates a Final Grade Appeal procedure as part of the Assessment policy in cases where students feel their work was graded inappropriately: <https://policies.mq.edu.au/document/view.php?id=277>
- In accordance with the Grade Appeal procedure, individual works are not subject to regrading.
