Unit description This unit covers the overall structure and dynamics of contemporary private capital covering both portfolio firm level and fund level considerations. Key issues of assessing, valuing, contracting, monitoring and exiting private equity and venture capital investments are dealt with at a practitioner level of detail. This unit covers a spectrum of private capital investments, from early stage and venture (seed and start-up) to late stage (management and buy-outs), together with managing private capital funded businesses. Consideration is also given to fund creation and management.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Examine recent developments in the private capital market and explain the key issues of assessing, valuing, contracting, monitoring and exiting private equity investments.

ULO2: Research and critically appraise a range of private equity investments and approaches.

ULO3: Describe the full lifecycle of a private capital transaction and apply private equity investment considerations to 'real world' situations.

General Assessment Information

Please refer to the unit's iLearn site.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments) Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern. For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration
