Unit description

This unit makes decision making, people management and soft skills in analytics a priority. It will help students develop an understanding of how data analytics can be used to influence decision making, to manage business processes, projects and people, and to drive change. Students will also learn about enterprise information systems and contemporary digital technologies that are essential for managing data and driving analytics in organisations. The unit will cover topics such as business-analytics alignment, contemporary digital technologies, business process management, change management, and accountability and ethics in business analytics. The unit also will include how to examine the value propositions of data analytics projects and how to engage key stakeholders to achieve short-term and long-term organisational goals.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Assess human, ethical, organisational and technical issues associated with data and business analytics.

ULO2: Recognise and apply different perspectives to help organisations develop evidence-based and data driven decision making practices.

ULO3: Design and conduct analysis to prepare organisations and employees for change.

ULO4: Examine and (re)design business processes for successful use of business analytics initiatives and projects in organisations.

ULO5: Examine and analyse fundamental digital technological needed for effective implementation of analytics projects.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.
