Delivery and Resources

Classes & Internship Hours

- 150 hours of internship placement spread over the session
- 1 x Internship orientation
- 2 x Face-to-face seminars

Internship hours must commence no later than 29 August 2014 and be completed by 28 November 2014. The internship hours must be spread over the session, however it is not compulsory to work during the mid-session break. For further information on completing the internship hours refer to the Internship Guide section.

See the timetables portal (<http://timetables.mq.edu.au/>) for class times and locations.

Requirements to Complete the Unit Satisfactorily

Students must complete the internship hours, attend the orientation session and the face-to-face seminars and complete the assessment tasks satisfactorily to complete the unit.

Grades

This is a Non-graded unit (ie assessed on a pass/fail basis only) and will use the following grades:

- S Satisfactory No SNG
- F Fail No SNG

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Links to all readings for the unit are incorporated in iLearn.

Technology Used and Required

The unit will be delivered via the Macquarie learning management system (iLearn), therefore students are expected to have access to and be familiar with iLearn. For more information go to <http://www.mq.edu.au/iLearn/studentinfo.htm>

Students are expected to have access to and be able to use electronic mail, word processing and spreadsheet applications.

Unit Web Page

- Course material and internship information is available on iLearn <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au>

- There is no web page for this unit.

Learning and Teaching Strategy

The primary learning and teaching activity is the work based project work that students undertake during their internships. In addition, the orientation session, face-to-face seminars and online activities are used to:

- prepare students for their placement
- facilitate the development of competencies and the application of discipline specific knowledge during the placement
- facilitate reflection on the work integrated learning that has taken place.

The face-to-face and online activities involve assessable activities. Students will be given feedback on these activities. Optional readings are available for students who wish to read in more detail on a particular topic.

Students are expected to actively participate in all learning and teaching activities, both face-to-face and online. This will involve participating in small groups, student presentations and contributing to the development of an online collegial community.

Students are expected to complete their internship hours in a positive and effective manner, and in accordance with the information in the Internship Guide section.

Students experiencing significant difficulties with any aspect of the unit must seek assistance immediately.

No changes have been made to this unit since the last offering of this unit.

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop personal professional skills in the workplace.
- Manage personal contribution to an organisation.
- Evaluate the application of academic learning in the workplace.
- Manage professional learning through reflective practice and the application of research.

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop personal professional skills in the workplace.
- Manage personal contribution to an organisation.
- Evaluate the application of academic learning in the workplace.
- Manage professional learning through reflective practice and the application of research.

Internship Guide

INTERNSHIP ADVISOR

Any enquiries regarding the internship placement component of the program should be directed to the Internship Advisor via BUS880internships@mq.edu.au.

HOST ORGANISATION SUPERVISOR

All students will be appointed a Host Organisation Supervisor, as per the Internship Project Form. Any work related concerns must first be addressed to the Host Organisation Supervisor. If an acceptable solution cannot be reached, students must contact the Internship Advisor or Unit Convenor.

ILLNESS & EMERGENCY

ILLNESS

If students cannot attend their internship on any day due to illness, they are required to contact their Host Organisation Supervisor. If students cannot contact their Host Organisation Supervisor, they are required to contact their Internship Advisor and notify them of the times and dates they are unavailable.

EMERGENCY CONTACTS

In the case of serious illness or medical emergency, students are advised to:

- Ring 000 (the emergency services number in Australia)
- For Medical Insurance, contact OSHC on 1800 814 781
- Where possible, advise a member of Macquarie International staff of their current situation OR have their Host Organisation Supervisor contact the Internship staff.

Student Emergency Number outside of office hours (9am-5pm): 1800 CAREMQ (227 367)

INTERNSHIP HOURS

- Students must complete 150 workplace hours, as confirmed by their Host Organisation Supervisor.
- Students can start their internship from 4 August 2014. Students must begin their internship hours on or before 29 August 2014, unless otherwise arranged with their Internship Advisor and Host Organisation Supervisor.
- Days and hours of work will be decided in agreement with the student's Host Organisation Supervisor.
- Hours must be completed by Friday, 28 November 2014.
- Students are not required to work over the mid-semester break but can if they wish, by arrangement with their Host Organisation Supervisor. Students are responsible for discussing their mid-semester break plans with their Supervisor a few weeks prior.

INTERNSHIP HOURS LOG

Students are required to record their hours worked on a weekly basis on the Internship Hours Log (available in iLearn). Failure to submit the completed form, signed by the Host Organisation Supervisor will result in Fail grade for the unit.

Upload the log to iLearn on completion of internship hours, or by 5pm, Friday, 28 November 2014.

ADDITIONAL HOURS

If students complete the required 150 hours before the end of the session, they are welcome to do additional hours at the host organisation by agreement with their Host Organisation Supervisor. Students are still covered under Macquarie insurance until the final day of the session (Friday, 5 December 2014).

If students wish to continue at the host organisation after the final day of the session, this is a private arrangement between the student and host organisation and the student will no longer be covered by Macquarie insurance.

Students cannot be compelled to complete more than 150 hours at the host organisation.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

During the internship, students are required to:

- Complete their internship tasks to a high standard.
- Dress appropriately for work and meet the standards set for regular employees
- Meet any human resources requirements established by the host organisation.
- Abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the host organisation and the department to which they are assigned, including confidentiality, access to information, safety and security.
- Treat all information gained in the course of the internship with the utmost confidentiality. This includes, but is not limited to office conversations, files and documents, meeting content, intellectual property and all office communications including email, memorandums and notices. Students must not disclose confidential information to any person, corporation, or entity at any time, that is, both during and after the placement. It is the student's responsibility to check with their Host Organisation Supervisor about the confidentiality of any information included in their academic assessment tasks.
- Adhere to organisational policies on email and internet usage. Use of any office resources (e.g. telephones, computers, stationery, mail and courier services, printers and photocopiers) should be strictly related to internship tasks, unless alternative arrangements have been made.
- Refrain from using their mobile phone, personal email account and social networking technology except for lunch breaks and after-work hours.
- Act in a professional manner at all times, be courteous, sensitive to the needs of others, and provide appropriate assistance.
- Be aware of cultural, religious and professional sensitivities of colleagues and to behave in an appropriate manner.
- Refrain from bringing personal visitors into the workplace without prior permission from the Host Organisation Supervisor.

Additionally, all intellectual property existing in the host organisation or produced as part of an internship remains the property of the host organisation.

If a student is found to be performing at a sub-standard level or behaving inappropriately, the Internship Advisor and/or Unit Convenor will work with both parties to find a solution. If a solution cannot be reached, the student may be removed from the internship placement.

SUPERVISOR REFERENCE

On completion of internship hours, students are required to request their own reference from their Host Organisation Supervisor. Reference guidelines are available on iLearn, if required.

ADDITIONAL WORKSHOPS

All students are strongly encouraged to make use of the academic and professional development workshops offered at Macquarie University. Workshops are available through the following services and programs:

- Careers Service - www.careers.mq.edu.au/home/
- Global Leadership Program (for students who are part of this program) - www.international.mq.edu.au/glp

Research and Practice

- This unit uses research from external sources (references available on iLearn).
- This unit gives you practice in applying research findings in your assignments.
