Unit description This unit builds on EDTE410. It is designed for students who plan to teach society and culture for years 11 and 12 but whose major teaching subject is in another area, such as economics, geography or history. The unit explores the aims, content and instructional demands of the Board of Studies New South Wales society and culture syllabus documents for stage 6, and assists students to design innovative, student-centred units of work and to identify or develop appropriate teaching resources. Close links are made with the ongoing school experience program.

Important Academic Dates

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO1 a working knowledge and understanding of the structure, content and philosophy of the Years 11-12 Society & Culture Syllabus;
- UO4 a recognition that the social and cultural diversity of students is a valuable educational resource in the context of the Society & Culture classroom;
- UO6 an appreciation of the importance of placing the Society and Culture curriculum within a contemporary context and the capacity to implement learning experiences that use a variety of contemporary resources to promote cross-disciplinary conceptual understanding;
- UO7 a knowledge of the assessment and reporting requirements of Society & Culture, especially as they relate to management and monitoring of students' Personal Interest Projects;

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- PIP Proposal and Research
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO1 a working knowledge and understanding of the structure, content and philosophy of the Years 11-12 Society & Culture Syllabus;
- UO3 a knowledge of contemporary approaches to teaching and learning, especially as they relate to Society & Culture;
- UO6 an appreciation of the importance of placing the Society and Culture curriculum within a contemporary context and the capacity to implement learning experiences that use a variety of contemporary resources to promote cross-disciplinary conceptual understanding;

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- PIP Proposal and Research
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO1 a working knowledge and understanding of the structure, content and philosophy of the Years 11-12 Society & Culture Syllabus;
- UO5 the capacity to build student rapport and foster a supporting learning environment in a subject area highly dependent on discussion and the exchange of social and cultural perspectives and knowledge;
- UO7 a knowledge of the assessment and reporting requirements of Society & Culture, especially as they relate to management and monitoring of students' Personal Interest Projects;
- UO8 the knowledge and skills required to plan learning experiences that cater for the diversity of learners within the Society & Culture classroom.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- PIP Proposal and Research
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- UO3 a knowledge of contemporary approaches to teaching and learning, especially as they relate to Society & Culture;

Assessment task

- Presentation and Reflection

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- UO8 the knowledge and skills required to plan learning experiences that cater for the diversity of learners within the Society & Culture classroom.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO2 the ability to plan and implement learning experiences that emphasise a social inquiry approach to learning;
- UO8 the knowledge and skills required to plan learning experiences that cater for the diversity of learners within the Society & Culture classroom.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO2 the ability to plan and implement learning experiences that emphasise a social inquiry approach to learning;
- UO5 the capacity to build student rapport and foster a supporting learning environment in a subject area highly dependent on discussion and the exchange of social and cultural perspectives and knowledge;
- UO7 a knowledge of the assessment and reporting requirements of Society & Culture, especially as they relate to management and monitoring of students' Personal Interest Projects;

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- PIP Proposal and Research
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO3 a knowledge of contemporary approaches to teaching and learning, especially as they relate to Society & Culture;
- UO4 a recognition that the social and cultural diversity of students is a valuable educational resource in the context of the Society & Culture classroom;
- UO5 the capacity to build student rapport and foster a supporting learning environment in a subject area highly dependent on discussion and the exchange of social and cultural perspectives and knowledge;

Assessment tasks

- Presentation and Reflection
- PIP Proposal and Research
- Assessment Task + Lesson Plan

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- UO2 the ability to plan and implement learning experiences that emphasise a social inquiry approach to learning;
- UO4 a recognition that the social and cultural diversity of students is a valuable educational resource in the context of the Society & Culture classroom;
