Delivery and Resources

Delivery

(1) Attendance at tutorials for internals and at the On-Campus Session is a component of the course.

(2) External students to attend the two day On-Campus sessions.

(3) Every student in the course must secure a mark of fifty and above to complete the course successfully.

(4) Tutorials will commence in Week One.

(5) Students will not be able to attend tutorials other than the tutorial group in which they have registered.

(6) The essay assignment will be released on day one of the course on iLearn. Along with the question set, administrative issues such as penalty for lateness will be stated. The information accompanying the essay question will include the interpretive criteria for marking the essay, and the length required.

(7) In connection with the class participation component any internal student who does not attend at least ten of the scheduled tutorials will receive: (i) a zero mark for this assessment item; and (ii) a mark for the unit of no more than 49/100, irrespective of marks gained in any other assessment item; or

(ii) any external student who does not attend the two day on campus session will receive: (i) a zero mark for this assessment item; and (ii) a mark for the unit of no more than 49/100, irrespective of marks gained in any other assessment item. Every external student is responsible for ensuring they know the on campus session dates. Any student who misses the on campus sessions due to a claim they made a mistake about the dates will fail the course.

If an internal student is unable to attend any given tutorial class or if an external student does not attend the set on campus sessions, as the case may be, and he or she

(i) submits within time, an application for Special Consideration which discloses and, with appropriate documentary evidence, supports a justifiable reason for not attending the said tutorial or on campus sessions; and

(ii) satisfactorily completes any written work in relation to the the topics covered in the said tutorial or on campus sessions that the unit convener may require the student to do, the student will be deemed to have attended the said tutorial or on campus sessions.

If, for justifiable reasons, a student is unable to submit the written assignment on time, he or she may submit an application for Special Consideration. If Special Consideration is granted the student will be given a different exercise to be completed at a time determined by the unit convener.

Any student who does not submit the written assignment on time or at all, will receive; (i) a zero mark for this assessment item; and (ii) a mark for the unit of no more than 49/100, irrespective of marks gained in any other assessment item.

If, for justifiable reasons, a student is unable to sit the final exam on the official date he or she may submit an application for Special Consideration. If Special Consideration is granted the student will be given a supplementary exam at a time chosen by the unit convener. The supplementary exam may differ in format and the marks allocated for specific type questions compared to the original exam.

Any student who does not sit the official exam on time or at all, will receive; (i) a zero mark for this assessment item; and (ii) a mark for the unit of no more than 49/100, irrespective of marks gained in any other assessment item.

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/support/student_conduct/

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is an integral part of the core values and principles contained in the Macquarie University Ethics Statement:

<http://www.mq.edu.au/ethics/ethic-statement-final.html>.

Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- All academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim.
- All academic collaborations are acknowledged.
- Academic work is not falsified in any way
- When the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

The link below has more details about the policy, procedure and schedule of penalties that will apply to breaches of the Academic Honesty Policy which can be viewed at:

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Articulate orally and in writing the key concepts of the substantive corporate law legal rules and critically assess the holistic role of the corporation.
- Identify and apply the relevant legal principles to resolve legal problems.
- Reflect on the interaction between legal rules and the history of corporate law.
- Appreciate the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.

Assessment tasks

- Task 1
- Task 3

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

- Evaluate the impact of the responsibilities bestowed on corporate stakeholders.

Assessment tasks

- Task 1
- Task 2
- Task 3

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Reflect on the interaction between legal rules and the history of corporate law.
- Appreciate the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.

Assessment tasks

- Task 1
- Task 2
- Task 3

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Evaluate the impact of the responsibilities bestowed on corporate stakeholders.

Assessment tasks

- Task 1
- Task 2

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:
