Unit description

Social impact assessment is a key tool in managing development in multicultural environments where stakeholders have different views of the world. Using case studies of resource projects, major infrastructure developments, native title, post-disaster recovery and climate change adaptation this unit develops conceptual, methodological and practical skills relevant to government, community and private sectors. Students will examine several major social impact studies and native title negotiations.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Key Issues Summary	25%	26 March 2014
Tutorial Paper & Presentation	30%	Weeks 5-12
Research Essay	45%	11 June 2014

Key Issues Summary

Due: 26 March 2014

Weighting: 25%

Write a concise review of the literature presented in the required readings for weeks 1-2 and the introductory lectures. Your review should identify key themes in the literature and relate those themes to your own learning objectives and fields of interest or practice.

The purpose of this assessment task is to ensure that you understand the key principles and processes in Social Impact Assessment. You are required to demonstrate a critical understanding of the introductory readings and lectures and the issues they raise and the relevance of this discourse to your own fields of interest and practice. This assessment aims to provide you with a clear overview of the field and the issues in doing SIA in cross-cultural settings.

Please note that the reference list for this paper is not included in the word limit.

Grading Criteria for Assessment 1:

Grade

%

Criteria

F

Fail

<50%

Failed to complete all aspects of the assigned task, Fail papers will not succeed in demonstrating an understanding of the key issues or will not clearly relate those issues to the student's learning objectives or field of interest or practice. If you fail this assignment, you should ensure you consult with the unit convenor.

P

Pass

50-64%

This is the standard required to pass this assignment. To achieve a pass you must write clearly and coherently, demonstrate an understanding of the issues and their relevance to your learning objectives and provide accurate referencing.

CR

Credit

65-74%

Credit range assignments will fulfil all the requirements for a pass grade, but provide a convincing integration of the literature rather than a series of loosely related reviews of individual papers. Synthesis of the issues into a personal position will push the paper to the higher Credit range.

Distinction

75-84%

In addition to the above, assignments must demonstrate in-depth thought and reflection on the way that the key issues in the literature relate to the field of cross-cultural and inter-cultural engagement. Distinction grade papers must demonstrate very strong communication skills, including an ability to deal with complexity in engaging and effective ways.

HD

High Distinction

>85%

In addition to meeting the above criteria, assignments will demonstrate exceptional writing, and will demonstrate a capacity for deep personal reflection and clarity about personal learning objectives in the unit. High Distinction grade assignments will show exceptional communication skills, analytical understanding and self-awareness.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop a critical literacy in the field of Social Impact Assessment in terms of inter-cultural communication, conflict and cooperation.
- An ability to discuss the history of Social Impact Assessment and its basic theoretical and methodological foundations in Australia and internationally.
- Written and oral communication skills and research skills at a high level.

Tutorial Paper & Presentation

Due: Weeks 5-12

Weighting: 30%

Write a paper that focuses on some aspect of the tutorial topic and relates the readings, discussion and your own understanding of the issues raised to the broad themes of the unit such as power, culture, ethics and social change.

The purpose of this assessment task is to allow each student to demonstrate a deeper understanding of one area of the field covered by the unit. It requires a written paper, an oral presentation and some leadership of discussion. For external students the 'oral' presentation will take the form of an online posting on iLearn and leadership of online discussion. The goal is to demonstrate a capacity to draw others into a thoughtful and high level (i.e. conceptual rather than simply descriptive) discussion.

Each student is required to present to the class on a specific tutorial topic. You will nominate your preferred tutorial (from weeks 4 -11) in week 1. In every tutorial session all students (including external students) are expected to prepare by reading at least 2-3 papers per week. The role of the student(s) leading the tutorial class is not to summarise papers that everyone should have read for themselves, but to lead a discussion of the issues raised in the papers around the questions listed for each tutorial topic. It is recognised that as adult learners the class members bring a range of experience and insights to the task of understanding SIA and cross-cultural negotiation, and that a wide range of fields of practice are implicated. Different students will bring different perspectives, approaches, experience and expectations to the tutorial topic they are leading. Co-presenters are encouraged to work together to present stimulating and provocative discussion sessions. It is certainly not expected that each student will 'read' a pre-prepared paper. It is therefore required that your written paper reflects upon your presentation and is responsive to the class discussion rather than simply a reflection on the literature.

Your contribution to the class and online presentation and how well you lead and encourage discussion in class (or on-line) is important to this assessment. Written papers will not be assessed if a student fails to present to the class or, in the case of external students, make an online posting and clear contribution to leading the online discussion for their chosen topic.

Grading Criteria for Assignment 2:

Grade

%

Criteria

F

Fail

<50%

Failed to complete all aspects of the assigned task, Fail grade will be awarded where a student does not complete the presentation task. Fail grades will also be awarded where the tutorial paper fails to engage with the class discussion of the topic and limits itself to re-presenting information from the set readings. Any plagiarism will also produce a fail grade in this assignment.

Pass

50-64%

This is the standard required to pass this assignment. Good discussions that demonstrate a reasonable grasp of the selected topic area, a reasonable engagement with class discussion, the set reading and the student's own experience and are generally well written will receive Pass grades.

Credit

65-74%

In addition to the above, credit range assignments will demonstrate a coherent synthesis of class discussion and/or the literature that produces a clear position in the discourse in the paper.

Distinction

75-84%

To achieve a Distinction grade, a tutorial paper must demonstrably integrate both the literature and the class discussion into a convincing discussion of the literature as part of a sophisticated discussion of negotiation-based SIA or a related field of practice. Distinction grade assignments must demonstrate very strong communication and presentation skills.

HD

High Distinction

>85%

In addition to meeting the above criteria, assignments will demonstrate exceptional writing, and will demonstrate a capacity for deep personal reflection. High Distinction grade assignments will show exceptional communication skills, analytical understanding and awareness of the implications of the discussion for practice.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop a critical literacy in the field of Social Impact Assessment in terms of inter-cultural communication, conflict and cooperation.
- An understanding of the lessons of recent negotiations about resource industry and infrastructure developments in Australia and the region for their own field(s) of practice.
- An understanding of the communications issues affecting cross-cultural negotiations and Social Impact Assessment research.
- Written and oral communication skills and research skills at a high level.

Research Essay

Due: 11 June 2014

Weighting: 45%

Choose one of the following topics and write a case study based research essay that addresses the question: What is the value of SIA, or related negotiated approaches to social change, in addressing the needs of diverse populations? Illustrate your argument with reference to a case study.

- Indigenous rights and cross-cultural SIA
- SIA as a tool in addressing vulnerability and resilience in disaster settings
- SIA in formal planning systems
- SIA as conflict resolution in cross-cultural settings

The purpose of this assessment is to apply your understanding of SIA in cross-cultural settings, and the principles and practices of using negotiated approaches, to a research-based case study essay. You will select an essay topic and present evidence to report on an example relevant to the topic. The target is to produce work of publishable quality.

Grading Criteria for Assignment 3:

Grade

%

Criteria

F

Fail

<50%

Failed to complete all aspects of the assigned task, Fail grade will be awarded for papers that reflect poor research, poor understanding or poor writing. Any plagiarism will also produce a fail grade in this assignment.

Pass

50-64%

This is the standard required to pass this assignment. It is anticipated that most papers will demonstrate good research skills, present a well-chosen case study and relate the argument developed in the essay to the key ideas developed in the unit. Pass grade essays will demonstrate a reasonable grasp of the selected topic area, a reasonable engagement with relevant literature through research and will be generally well written will receive Pass grades.

Credit

65-74%

In the higher grades papers will need to demonstrate higher level understanding and be moving towards publishable quality in both writing and analysis. The case studies will be concise and convincing with excellent use of available data to illustrate issues and support arguments. In the credit range, papers will not only demonstrate understanding of the broad themes of HGEO802, but also deliver an argument that applies coherent synthesis of the framework offered by the unit into a well-presented case study.

Distinction

75-84%

To achieve a Distinction grade, a research essay must demonstrably deliver a case study that reflects both excellent research skills and conceptual understanding. Distinction grade essays must demonstrate very strong communication and presentation skills.

HD

High Distinction

>85%

In addition to meeting the above criteria, HD essays will demonstrate exceptional writing skills at a publishable level. The best papers will integrate deep personal reflection on both the case and the broader themes into a concise and sophisticated argument.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop a critical literacy in the field of Social Impact Assessment in terms of inter-cultural communication, conflict and cooperation.
- An ability to discuss the history of Social Impact Assessment and its basic theoretical and methodological foundations in Australia and internationally.
- An ability to explain the requirements for negotiations-based approaches to Social Impact Assessment in cross-cultural settings.

- An understanding of the lessons of recent negotiations about resource industry and infrastructure developments in Australia and the region for their own field(s) of practice.
- An understanding of the communications issues affecting cross-cultural negotiations and Social Impact Assessment research.
- Written and oral communication skills and research skills at a high level.

Delivery and Resources

Study Modes

This unit is available in both internal and external study modes.

Internal (D1) HGEO802 is based on a three-hour weekly class on Wednesday from 3:00-6:00pm in room EMC2 G240, from Wednesday 5 March. Classes will run as a combination of both lectures and student-led seminar sessions as indicated in the class schedule. All internal students are expected to attend all classes and the roll will be taken.

External (X1) External students will be expected to access recordings of the sessions online via iLearn. There is a weekend on-campus session, which will run on Saturday 22 March (10.00am-4.00pm) in E5A 110. For external (X1) students, attendance at this session is compulsory unless you are studying HGEO802 from a remote Australian location or outside Australia, in which case you should contact the unit convenor early in the semester to discuss alternative arrangements.

Submitting Your Assignments

To successfully complete the unit students must complete all assessment tasks. Students must keep an electronic copy of all submitted assessments.

For Internal (D1) students all assignments in HGEO802 must be submitted on (or before) 2:00pm on the due date listed. Assignments must be delivered to the HGEO802 assignment box located in the reception area of the Faculty of Science Student Centre (E7A102). The Faculty of Science Student Centre is on the ground floor at the western end of building E7A, and opens from 9.00am to 2.00pm on Monday to Friday. Your assignment must be submitted with a cover sheet. Please use the barcoded coversheets which can be downloaded from the web at : http://web.science.mq.edu.au/new_and_current_students/undergrad/assignments_and_coversheets/

Students must complete all the details on the cover sheet and sign the declaration regarding academic honesty that is part of the cover sheet. The after hours submission box located at the entrance to E7A is cleared daily at 9.00am, so placing assignments in this box after the due date will incur a late penalty unless previously approved by the unit convenor. You must attach a copy of the email approval or medical certificates to justify any late submission.

For External (X1) students assignments must be submitted via Turnitin only (not via the Centre for Open Education). Please include an electronic copy of the cover sheet in your submission or in a separate email to the convenor: http://web.science.mq.edu.au/new_and_current_students/undergrad/assignments_and_coversheets/

Turnitin

All assessment tasks for HGEO802 must be submitted to Turnitin as part of the submission process, and the Turnitin receipt number recorded on the coversheet of each assignment. You will be able to access the result of the Turnitin scan and be able to review your assignments in light of this result. Not everything that Turnitin picks up as comparable to other work is plagiarised. Use this process constructively to ensure you are referencing correctly and effectively. Instructions for submitting assignment to Turnitin can be found at: http://mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/assignments.htm

Late Penalties and Grading

Please note that the penalty for late submission of assignments is 10% per day or part thereof, calculated from 2:00pm on the due date listed. This penalty will be applied unless you are granted an extension by the unit convenor (Fiona Miller) and provide appropriate supporting documentation. Please talk to (or email) Fiona about any circumstances that affect your assignments before the due date.

Each assignment will be marked and commented upon before return to you. The mark will be in the form of a graded letter as shown on the table below and as consistent with University policy.

Technology Used and Required

HGEO802 provides all students with significant web-based support using iLearn, Macquarie University's learning management system. If you need help with iLearn please refer to http://www.mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/index.htm or contact the unit convenor as soon as possible. The unit website will be maintained regularly, providing you with copies of lecture PowerPoint slides immediately before each lecture. Digital audio recordings of the lectures will be available via Echo360 (formerly iLecture) linked to the unit's iLearn site.

HGEO802 uses a combination of lecture and seminar style classes with a number of role-play and web-based learning opportunities. It is expected that all students in the unit will both participate and contribute to classes, including preparing by completing the required readings, and participating in classroom and web-based discussions. Internal students are expected to attend classes regularly, and external students are expected to access material online routinely each week. All students are required to complete all the required assessment set for the unit.

Workload Expectation

The credit point value of a unit reflects the amount of work required in the unit. Each credit point in a half-year unit (such as HGEO802) would indicate that you should expect to spend about three hours each week on that unit (including class contact hours). With HGEO802 being a 4 credit point unit, you should therefore expect to spend about 12 hours each week on it. The expected hours per credit point per week is over the 15 weeks of the semester (the 13 weeks of classes PLUS the two weeks of the mid semester recess (not "break")). The following table is a guide for how you should allocate these hours to the various activities and tasks. . If you are unable to make this commitment to your study, then you should reconsider your decision to enrol – or reassess your priorities.

Activity	Estimated hours per week	Estimated total hours
Lectures	1-2	14

Tutorials	2	19
Reading	8	120
Assignments		27
Total	12	180

Changes since the last offering of the Unit

Significant change was made to this unit in 2012 with the appointment of a new convenor. Since 2013 a number of more up-to-date and relevant readings have been added, including from the recommended text book. More explicit reference to the assessments is incorporated into the lecture program and Assessments 2 and 3 have been slightly modified.
