Graduate Capabilities

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Read, listen to, comprehend and discuss a variety of Spanish-language texts.
- Appreciate the hispanophone cultures through textual (including literature) and aural material introduced in the class resources and discussed in class as well as online.

Assessment task

- Participation

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- Read, listen to, comprehend and discuss a variety of Spanish-language texts.
- Attain a good level of spoken and written Spanish through practice in class and completion of exercises and assignments.
- Revise grammatical structures previously studied and learn new structures essential to oral and written fluency and accuracy.
- Understand and gain proficiency in the mechanics of writing Spanish.
- Appreciate the hispanophone cultures through textual (including literature) and aural material introduced in the class resources and discussed in class as well as online.

Assessment tasks

- Written/Oral Assignments
- Quizzes
- In-class written test
- Live oral test

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Read, listen to, comprehend and discuss a variety of Spanish-language texts.
- Appreciate the hispanophone cultures through textual (including literature) and aural material introduced in the class resources and discussed in class as well as online.

Assessment task

- In-class written test

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- Revise grammatical structures previously studied and learn new structures essential to oral and written fluency and accuracy.
- Appreciate the hispanophone cultures through textual (including literature) and aural material introduced in the class resources and discussed in class as well as online.

Assessment tasks

- Written/Oral Assignments

- Quizzes
- In-class written test

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- Understand and gain proficiency in the mechanics of writing Spanish.

Assessment tasks

- Written/Oral Assignments
- Live oral test
- Participation

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Hear, speak, read and write modern Spanish language in a variety of registers.
- Attain a good level of spoken and written Spanish through practice in class and completion of exercises and assignments.
- Revise grammatical structures previously studied and learn new structures essential to oral and written fluency and accuracy.
- Understand and gain proficiency in the mechanics of writing Spanish.

Assessment tasks

- Written/Oral Assignments
- In-class written test
- Live oral test
- Participation

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Appreciate the hispanophone cultures through textual (including literature) and aural material introduced in the class resources and discussed in class as well as online.

Assessment task

- Written/Oral Assignments

Changes from Previous Offering

In response to past student feedback, throughout 2013 and 2014 Intermediate Spanish has been progressively redesigned with a new curriculum, textbook, assessment, and lesson plans to better prepare students for the challenges of both Advanced Spanish and International Exchange.

Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR)

The unit aims at fostering language skills to level B1, described as follows in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR): Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
