Unit description

The purpose of this unit is to introduce students to new economic and legal aspects of sustainable development. Markets, regulatory strategies, taxes, financial institutions, investment approaches and the insurance industry have responded to some aspects of this global challenge. This provides the wider context for the changing role and legal obligations of the modern corporation. Corporate approaches to environmental management are studied in the light of new economic realities, requirements, risks and standards such as ISO 14001.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing. Compare the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.

Critique the decision making models within the corporation and analyse the relative strengths and weaknesses of stakeholders in corporate governance

Prepare clear and convincing written and verbal reports that defend and summarise your ideas and views

Critique and analyse the domestic and international dimensions to accommodating sustainability practices within corporate governance and financing.

Evaluate contemporary law on sustainability in corporate governance and financing and the manner in which such practices can be assessed and promoted by both state and non state actors.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Class Participation	20%	26th, 27th and 28th April 2014
Research Assignment	40%	6th June 2014
Examination	40%	5th May 2014

Class Participation

Due: 26th, 27th and 28th April 2014

Weighting: 20%

Students will be assessed on the basis of their knowledge, understanding and ability critically to evaluate the issues raised in each topic, as demonstrated through participation in class discussions, including any online discussions, and in responses to assigned questions in the seminars. Students should generally be prepared to talk about the assigned readings, provide their own assessment of those readings, and contribute to the discussion of questions and problems set in relation to these readings. Students are also encouraged to participate in discussions that extend beyond these set questions and readings through their own evaluation of the issues raised

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing. Compare the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.
- Critique the decision making models within the corporation and analyse the relative strengths and weaknesses of stakeholders in corporate governance
- Prepare clear and convincing written and verbal reports that defend and summarise your ideas and views

Research Assignment

Due: 6th June 2014

Weighting: 40%

The Research Assignment will provide students with a choice of essay questions that focus on topics and readings in the second half of the semester, but also intended to bring together the core knowledge and graduate capabilities being assessed in the unit.

Sample questions will be posted online. Students are encouraged to pursue their area of interest. In such circumstances, a one page outline of his or her topic, research methods and indicative sources should be submitted for approval before 5th May 2014.

Please refer to the iLearn page for this unit for details of the assignment requirements.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing. Compare the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.
- Critique the decision making models within the corporation and analyse the relative strengths and weaknesses of stakeholders in corporate governance
- Prepare clear and convincing written and verbal reports that defend and summarise your ideas and views
- Critique and analyse the domestic and international dimensions to accommodating sustainability practices within corporate governance and financing.
- Evaluate contemporary law on sustainability in corporate governance and financing and the manner in which such practices can be assessed and promoted by both state and non state actors.

Examination

Due: 5th May 2014

Weighting: 40%

The Take Home Exam will consist of 4 questions covering topics and readings from the first half of the semester. Students are required to answer all 4 questions. The questions will be posted on iLearn after the OCS on 30th April 2014. The submission process will be through iLearn and instructions will be posted online with the questions.

Word length for this task is 3000 words and you are advised to distribute them reasonably evenly between the questions.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing. Compare the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.
- Prepare clear and convincing written and verbal reports that defend and summarise your ideas and views
