Unit description

Based in dance/movement principles this unit is structured around practices of embodied knowledge and application. Techniques will be introduced to explore the individual student's physical and creative capabilities and to develop an embodied practice of physical interaction with others. Students have opportunities to create their own performance work in group and self-devised contexts. Students will also articulate, describe and analyse dance/movement practices in written assessments. This unit suits both the experienced dancer and the novice.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.

Apply critical, analytical and integrative thinking in the form of written work and oral presentations.

Develop and apply collaborative skills in practice-based group work.

Develop and apply choreographic and performance skills in the creation and presentation of performance work.

Develop articulation of embodied research in written and oral form.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Short essay	8%	Week 5, 2014
Long essay	45%	Week 9, 2014
Creation, performance outcome	35%	Week 13
Process/performance reflection	12%	Week 13

Short essay

Due: Week 5, 2014

Weighting: 8%

This 500 word short essay should discuss a theme from one of the first 4 weeks of the unit. Students will be required to succinctly and clearly articulate their understanding of a particular aspect of the unit that has engaged, surprised and/or challenged them thus far. Referencing should be Harvard with in-text citations and a reference list. The font should be Times New Roman, 12 point with double line spacing.

Once submitted via Turnitin the reflective exercise will be assessed by the course convener, who will provide online feedback and grading which the student can access through the My Submissions link in ilearn.

Assessment criteria:

- a) Evidence of well devised organisation and structure,
- b) Evidence of correct academic and writing protocols,
- c) Evidence of critical, analytical and integrative thinking,
- d) Evidence of an appropriate and well-researched response to the theme.

More detailed information will be provided in class and available on ilearn at <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Apply critical, analytical and integrative thinking in the form of written work and oral presentations.

Long essay

Due: Week 9, 2014

Weighting: 45%

This assessment task is a 2000 word essay, included in the word count is a 150 word abstract. Referencing should be Harvard with in-text citations and a comprehensive reference list. The font should be Times New Roman, 12 point with double line spacing.

The essay will be an analytical response to a work in a dress rehearsal of Sydney Dance Company's production Louder than Words which you will be required to attend in the first week of October. The essay will investigate the use of contact in the choreography with reference to class themes, dance theorists, and the work of other choreographers. You will be required to investigate a research question and create a dialogue between your own analytical responses to the chosen dance piece and the work of other theorists and practitioners in the field, and to form some coherent conclusions.

Once submitted via Turnitin the written assignments will be assessed by the course convener, who will provide online feedback and grading which the student can access through the My Submissions link in ilearn.

Assessment criteria:

- a) Evidence of well-devised and clearly articulated structure and organisation.
- b) Evidence of correct academic protocols, formatting, and referencing.
- c) Evidence of critical, analytical, and integrative thinking: extent to which reasoning, questioning and analysis are applied to the topic.
- d) Evidence of appropriate and well researched response to the theme.

More detailed information will be available through ilearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Apply critical, analytical and integrative thinking in the form of written work and oral presentations.

Creation, performance outcome

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 35%

The creation and performance component will be a group-devised work based on a self-devised performance text and using contact work as the choreographic base. Students will be required to engage with the inter-media aspects of the creative process, such as the use of self-devised video, sound, and lighting design. Participation in the creation, rehearsal and performance of the choreographed material will be continuously assessed through the creation process and in video review of the performance. Students will need to arrange and allocate extra time for the creation and rehearsal period with their group members.

- a) Evidence of the group's embodiment of a coherent application and synthesis of class techniques in relation to theme of contact work,
- b) Evidence of commitment, collaboration and engaged participation,
- c) Evidence of original creative ideas in the group's dance and movement material, and in relation to all the mise en scene elements,
- d) Level of confidence, clarity of form, well rehearsed.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Develop and apply collaborative skills in practice-based group work.
- Develop and apply choreographic and performance skills in the creation and presentation of performance work.

Process/performance reflection

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 12%

A 1000 word creative process and performance reflection based on the student's embodied research and reflections on their personal trajectory through the creation process and performance outcome.

Assessment criteria:

- a) Evidence that the student has understood and applied elements of classwork in the creative process and performance outcome.
- b) Clearly written articulation of challenges faced and creative strategies that were applied in the creation process and performance outcome.
- c) Evidence and articulation of personal embodied research.
- d) Evidence of open-minded and engaged participation.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Apply critical, analytical and integrative thinking in the form of written work and oral presentations.
- Develop articulation of embodied research in written and oral form.

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop and apply collaborative skills in practice-based group work.

Assessment task

- Creation, performance outcome

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.

Assessment tasks

- Short essay
- Long essay
- Creation, performance outcome
- Process/performance reflection

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Develop and apply choreographic and performance skills in the creation and presentation of performance work.
- Develop articulation of embodied research in written and oral form.

Assessment tasks

- Short essay
- Long essay
- Creation, performance outcome
- Process/performance reflection

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Apply critical, analytical and integrative thinking in the form of written work and oral presentations.

Assessment tasks

- Short essay
- Long essay
- Creation, performance outcome
- Process/performance reflection

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Develop and apply choreographic and performance skills in the creation and presentation of performance work.

Assessment tasks

- Short essay
- Long essay
- Creation, performance outcome
- Process/performance reflection

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage with the process of learning to absorb and apply dance and movement practices, and theories presented in the unit.
- Develop and apply collaborative skills in practice-based group work.
- Develop and apply choreographic and performance skills in the creation and presentation of performance work.

Assessment tasks

- Short essay
- Long essay
- Creation, performance outcome
- Process/performance reflection

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop and apply collaborative skills in practice-based group work.
- Develop articulation of embodied research in written and oral form.

Assessment tasks

- Creation, performance outcome
- Process/performance reflection

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop and apply collaborative skills in practice-based group work.

Assessment task

- Creation, performance outcome

Changes from Previous Offering

Changes made since last delivery of unit: 1. Embodied research will be articulated via a written creative process and performance reflection of 1000 words rather than a performance report of 1500 words. 2. Inclusion of new assessment task: 500 word short essay instead of a 350 word reflection. 3. Main written component will be an analytical response to a live work instead of essay based on a videoed work.
