Unit description This unit is designed to acquaint students with the theory and practice of organisational and employee performance assessment, from both a psychological and a financial perspective. Topics include the rationale for measuring performance and the practical techniques and problems associated with the assessment of employees and organisations. In addition, students are introduced to the language of money, basic business and accounting principles, and the theory of remuneration and incentive systems.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of how employee and organisation performance is assessed
- Demonstrate knowledge of the history and development of financial systems
- Analyse how 'the market' economy works
- Analyse basic accounting systems
- Demonstrate knowledge of the language of money
- Report on how the stock market operates
- Develop components of a business plan
- Analyse remuneration and incentive systems

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Account'g rationale and budget	30%	29/08/2014
Development of a business plan	45%	24/10/2014
Shares reflection paper	25%	31/10/2014

Account'g rationale and budget

Due: 29/08/2014

Weighting: 30%

In this assessment you are presented with various performance measures of three divisions in the same company. You are required to provide a response to three questions designed to draw out a solid understanding of organisational performance, including financial performance, for each division. You will also be asked to draw back to budgeting by providing some financial recommendations. You can collaborate prior to writing, however final work must be written and submitted individually.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of how employee and organisation performance is assessed
- Demonstrate knowledge of the history and development of financial systems
- Analyse basic accounting systems
- Demonstrate knowledge of the language of money
- Analyse remuneration and incentive systems

Development of a business plan

Due: 24/10/2014

Weighting: 45%

The major course project involves the development of a 'business plan' for a leadership assessment and development business. You are required to work in a group to complete the business plan and then submit your plan as a group submission with all the names of all group members on the title page.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of how employee and organisation performance is assessed
- Analyse how 'the market' economy works
- Demonstrate knowledge of the language of money

- Develop components of a business plan
- Analyse remuneration and incentive systems

Shares reflection paper

Due: 31/10/2014

Weighting: 25%

At the beginning of workshops, you are encouraged to form a group to 'invest' in an imaginary set of shares on a digital trading platform, spending only $100,000. During semester, you and your group will trade the shares with an eye to earning a profit by the end of the final workshop.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of how employee and organisation performance is assessed
- Demonstrate knowledge of the history and development of financial systems
- Analyse how 'the market' economy works
- Demonstrate knowledge of the language of money
- Report on how the stock market operates

Delivery and Resources

This unit is taught via online lecture videos (up to 2 hours per week) and on-campus workshops (3 x 7 hours per workshop). The time and venue information for on-campus classes can be obtained through the university's timetable site.

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes. Learning objectives and assessment activities are based on the requirement of a minimum 80% class attendance. Students who attend less than 80% of classes risk automatic failure.

All resources are provided through iLearn
