Unit description

This unit is designed to help students to develop their appreciation of the traditional cultural assets of Japan, and to understand how they continue to influence modern Japanese culture. It examines traditional Japanese culture from both historical and contemporary perspectives, looks at how traditional values and attitudes have been maintained in modern Japanese society, and speculates on the nature of their influence in the future. Where possible, theoretical examination of Japanese culture is accompanied by a practical and/or performative introduction. This unit is conducted in English and is open to students of any Faculty interested in Japan.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Participation

Due: Weekly & 2 On campus sessions

Weighting: 15%

Student participation for this unit is comprised of weekly online participation and compulsory attendance of two sessions on campus to successfully complete this unit. Students must consistently demonstrate their commitment to the course through active involvement in online discussions, participating constructively in activities as required, and showing consideration for the lecturer and other students by behaving in a mature and co-operative manner. Online participation in the forums is a critical aspect to participation as this unit is not conducted face-to-face.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate detailed knowledge of Japanese culture.
- Generate well-researched, reasoned and original analysis and evaluation of Japanese culture and its related concepts and issues.
- Present information in a clear, focused, well-structured manner, displaying academic rigour, both orally and in writing.
- Demonstrate a high level of interpersonal skills through class participation and assessment.

Online Quizzes

Due: Regularly

Weighting: 20%

Quizzes will comprise of multiple choice, short answer, and short essay questions. All questions will be based on the lecture(s), any essential reading and/or other relevant content. If you have not submitted by the due date/time you will forfeit the marks for that quiz. Each quiz must be completed online, through the JPS122 iLearn unit. Submit your quiz well before the due time, as unexpected technological problems may occur. After the submission deadline, you will not be able to access the quiz. If you encounter problems in accessing or submitting the quiz, you must contact the convenor before the due time/date.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate detailed knowledge of Japanese culture.
- Generate well-researched, reasoned and original analysis and evaluation of Japanese culture and its related concepts and issues.
- Present information in a clear, focused, well-structured manner, displaying academic rigour, both orally and in writing.
- Demonstrate competence in using ICT learning tools.

Critical Review

Due: 10pm Sun Dec 21

Weighting: 15%

Length: 750 words

Format: Times New Roman 12 point font, typed A4, double spaced.

Students are required to submit this task via Turnitin by 10pm on Sun December 21, 2014.

For this task, students will be provided with a short list of articles related to Japanese traditional culture, from which they will choose one article and write a short critical review of that article. The critical review must include (a) a brief summary of the article; and (b) an evaluation of the article. All information regarding this assessment task and more information on writing a critical review will be available in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate detailed knowledge of Japanese culture.
- Generate well-researched, reasoned and original analysis and evaluation of Japanese culture and its related concepts and issues.
- Present information in a clear, focused, well-structured manner, displaying academic rigour, both orally and in writing.
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including independently locating relevant and appropriate resources, and using correct referencing procedure.

- Demonstrate competence in using ICT learning tools.

Presentation

Due: On campus, Fri Jan 16

Weighting: 15%

Length: TBA

Format: PowerPoint or similar with sufficient and appropriate data, graphics and references

For this task, students will be required to give a presentation on one aspect of Japanese traditional culture. You will be given a list from which to choose your topic. This presentation needs to be framed within the context of a museum exhibition on Japanese traditional culture, where you are the curator or an expert on your chosen topic, speaking to museum visitors. As such, your short presentation should be well researched and comprehensive, but also engaging and original. In other words, informative, creative and fun! All information regarding this assessment task will be available in iLearn.

This assessment will be held on campus on January 16th 2015, 10am - 3pm in W6B.325.

Attendance is compulsory.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate detailed knowledge of Japanese culture.
- Generate well-researched, reasoned and original analysis and evaluation of Japanese culture and its related concepts and issues.
- Present information in a clear, focused, well-structured manner, displaying academic rigour, both orally and in writing.
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including independently locating relevant and appropriate resources, and using correct referencing procedure.
- Demonstrate a high level of interpersonal skills through class participation and assessment.
- Demonstrate competence in using ICT learning tools.

Essay

Due: 10pm Sun 1 Feb 2015

Delivery and Resources

UNIT WEBPAGE & TECHNOLOGY USED & REQUIRED

Online units can be accessed at: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>

This unit uses iLearn and iLecture, and as such it will be necessary for all students to have regular, reliable access to computers and the internet for satisfactory completion of this unit.

REQUIRED & RECOMMENDED TEXTS AND/OR MATERIALS

All required reading will be made available in iLearn.

EXAMINATION

There will be no formal examination for this unit.

EXTENSIONS

Extensions must be applied for in writing BEFORE the due date of the assessment task, and must be supported by appropriate documentation (e.g. medical certificate). Extensions are only granted on the grounds of serious illness or misadventure, not for poor time management or work commitments.

PENALTIES

All information regarding penalties for this unit will be available in iLearn.

SUPPLEMENTARY TESTS & LATE SUBMISSIONS

Late Submissions, Extensions and Supplementary Tests

Assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assessment task is late. A request for a supplementary test will be considered only in the case of serious illness or disruption. No assessment tasks will be accepted after assessment tasks have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assessment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date. If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in completing an assessment task (in class and/or online), contact the convener or your tutor as soon as possible.

Disruption to Studies

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Disruption to Studies Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Disruption to Studies Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate detailed knowledge of Japanese culture.
- Generate well-researched, reasoned and original analysis and evaluation of Japanese culture and its related concepts and issues.
- Present information in a clear, focused, well-structured manner, displaying academic rigour, both orally and in writing.
