Unit description

The aim of this unit is to introduce students to the Australian legal system, including relevant commercial legal principles and corporate law and regulation. After dealing with core aspects of rights and liabilities, and the characteristics of business organisations generally, the unit focuses on Australian company law. Students develop an understanding of the nature and function of a company, as well as the important issues concerning shareholder rights and the duties of directors. The unit also addresses issues relevant to companies and individuals in financial difficulty and the law as to insolvency. Seminars will include consideration of relevant legal issues, case law, and important sections of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and other relevant legislation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Identify and comprehend the concepts, characteristics and legal principles that apply to Australian business, business organisations and corporate legislative framework;
- Understand how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution

Effectively recognize and gain knowledge of corporate management issues, in particular the role and obligation of directors;

Gain the capability to understand how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares;

Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment;

Analyse the legal aspects of particular sets of facts or case studies relevant to corporations law and identify and solve the legal problems associated with these.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Class Participation	20%	Ongoing (seminar classes)
Class Test	10%	Held in Week 5 Seminars
Quiz	20%	Week 10
Final Exam	50%	Exam Period

Class Participation

Due: Ongoing (seminar classes)

Weighting: 20%

This assessment task has two components i.e., i) class participation and ii) class presentation. Class participation and presentation has 20% marks altogether. For the detailed assessment criteria of these components (class participation and presentation), see the unit assessment guide on iLearn.

Penalty:

For non-attendance in a class, students will lose the class participation mark for that particular class and no additional class or other assessment tasks will replace it.

General Guidelines for Class Presentation:

In week 1 tutor's will seek volunteers to fill in the presentation slots for the first 4 weeks of classes. In week 5, students will be allocated a seminar in which to give a presentation. The presentation allocations will be posted on iLearn. The presentations should be no longer than 10 minutes. If you leave your allocated tutorial and do not inform your tutor and arrange for your name to be removed from that seminar presentation list –you will receive zero for your presentation (even if you have done a presentation in another class).

Presentation topics will be posted on iLearn but students who choose their own relevant presentation topic have the opportunity to earn bonus marks. If you decide to choose your own topic, the topic must be something that is relevant to the topic area for that week's class. You cannot get 10 out of 10 if you rely on the given topics.

Students should regard the class presentation as an opportunity to develop an important workplace skill as well as an opportunity to prepare a particular area of the unit in more detail. Marks for class presentations will be determined by the lecturer based upon their perception of the presentation as having achieved its purpose (this purpose being to inform and interest the class, showing capability with the requisite area of the law and an ability to communicate and engage).

Examples of the type of matters that may be taken into account in grading this assessment include: structure, clarity, content covered at the appropriate level, evidence of research, use of resources or aids, showing and engendering interest in the area, timing (particularly as to the duration of the presentation), currency of the material used, originality/creativity.

Penalty:

1. Students MUST bring their presentation marking form on the day of their presentation. Failure to do so will result in a deduction of 3 marks.
2. For missing class presentation, students must have to apply for special consideration. If granted, only one special presentation session can be organised (for all such students) by the convener before the final exam.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and comprehend the concepts, characteristics and legal principles that apply to Australian business, business organisations and corporate legislative framework;
- Understand how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognize and gain knowledge of corporate management issues, in particular the role and obligation of directors;
- Gain the capability to understand how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares;
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment;
- Analyse the legal aspects of particular sets of facts or case studies relevant to corporations law and identify and solve the legal problems associated with these.

Class Test

Due: Held in Week 5 Seminars

Weighting: 10%

Questions of this test will be drawn from Australian legal system and business law topics which are covered in weeks 1, 2, 3 and 4 inclusive. The quiz will be 35 minutes and consist of 5 short answer format questions.

The test will take place in your seminar class and you will only be able to take the test in the seminar you are enrolled in.

Penalty:

Students should apply for special consideration immediately if they fail to attend the class test. If granted, only one special test can be organised for all students who missed the test.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and comprehend the concepts, characteristics and legal principles that apply to Australian business, business organisations and corporate legislative framework;

Quiz

Due: Week 10

Weighting: 20%

This online quiz test will open up in week 10 for 72 hours. However, once a student starts the test, s/he will get only 30 minutes to complete the test. It will be a multiple choice exam of only 10 questions (3 minutes for each question) and each question will have 2 marks. In case of any change in the format of the test, students will be notified through iLearn.

The exam will be drawn from topic areas 5-8. Since it is an online test, students will get an immediate feedback after the test. If you do not perform as well as you would have liked (or merely want to improve your performance) you should:

- (a) ensure that you focus on your remaining classes, prepare prior to each class and test your understanding by participating in class discussion;
- (b) ensure your notes are clear and concise
- (c) test your understanding of an area by simulating exam conditions, that is try to do questions without looking at books or notes;
- (d) because the final exam also includes multiple-choice questions practice understanding the concept behind their preparation by drafting your own questions;
- (e) read all material prescribed for each topic Area;
- (f) consult your lecturer if, once you have completed the reading for an area, you have any questions.

Penalty:

If any student fails to do this online quiz within the scheduled time, s/he will lose this mark and there is no re-test for this assessment task.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognize and gain knowledge of corporate management issues, in particular the role and obligation of directors;
- Gain the capability to understand how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares;

Final Exam

Due: Exam Period

Weighting: 50%

You must pass the final exam to pass this course. The exam will cover Topic area 9 – 12 inclusive. The exam will include both problem-style and multiple-choice questions to be attempted in 3 hours – to succeed in this exam you will need to have a good grasp of the relevant unit content (the law), be able to analyse and distinguish between alternatives in multiple-choice questions and to be able to identify, analyse and resolve issues arising in a problem-solving format.

Supplementary Exam/Test/Late Assessment Task

(1) If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Special Consideration process, the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of the similar format as the final examination.

(2) Only one supplementary test/exam (there will be no re-supplementary exam for the class tests or final exam) will be scheduled.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognize and gain knowledge of corporate management issues, in particular the role and obligation of directors;
- Gain the capability to understand how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares;
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment;
- Analyse the legal aspects of particular sets of facts or case studies relevant to corporations law and identify and solve the legal problems associated with these.

Delivery and Resources

There will be 13 seminars in this unit with each seminar of being 3 hours in length. The seminars progress through the various Topic areas referred to in this Unit Guide.

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/Scientia/Web/index.html>

Advanced level:

Austin R P; Ramsay I M, Ford's Principles of Corporations Law (15th ed, 2012) (Publisher Lexisnexis Butterworths)

Note that in terms of delivery, there is not substantial change in the unit since last offering but there do have some changes in the assessment tasks and procedures. Students are advised to check the assessment tasks carefully from the the unit guide and the unit assessment guide.

This unit is taught by way of seminars. Two main types of questions are discussed in seminars – knowledge questions and problem questions. Knowledge questions are not designed to be analytical but are used, rather, to test your knowledge of a particular topic area. Problem questions are longer and more involved. They require several skills including reading and comprehension, problem identification and problem solving. The second class test and the main parts of the final exam will be in the format of problem questions.

What is expected of students – criteria for success

Students should take responsibility for their own learning and this will incorporate reading as required, attendance at seminars and reflection on their abilities. The capacity of each student to digest material will vary and accordingly self-assessment is necessary. The amount of focussed and effective effort a student puts in to preparation and study will generally be reflected in their performance. There are 2 main components of successful law (particularly company law) study: one is that students must have some knowledge of the core issues of the relevant topics [take short clear notes in seminars, think about your task, involve yourself in classes], the second is that students will only be successful if they can apply what they have learned, that is, in your exam you have to be able to use the law to solve problems [either multiple-choice or written answer style].

Classes should be used by students to test their understanding of the unit in an environment where immediate feedback is available from the lecturer – students should be prepared to respond to, and ask, questions – being active is an important aspect of both study and professional practice and classes will be of more benefit to all students if they are willing to participate.

Students are expected to attend classes. Where any issue arises as to a student's performance it may be necessary to consider whether the issue of their attendance is relevant. In a simple economic sense students pay for instruction and should attend classes to get the benefit and help of their lecturer.
