Unit description

This unit provides students with an opportunity to undertake a work-integrated project relevant to urban, social and environmental planning. The unit is designed to develop knowledge and skills for a new career path in the planning profession across a range of sectors including government, industry, not-for-profit, professional associations and university research partnerships. In some cases, there may be an opportunity for students to include activities in a current workplace or apply for recognition of prior learning. Students will complete a self-contained project drawing on their environmental planning knowledge and will be required to prepare a reflective journal of their experience.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Prepare a project brief and identify the key steps in its execution

Undertake targeted research, including creative work

Execute problem-solving, critical, analytical and integrative thinking

Utilise written communication skills

Demonstrate collaborative skills including negotiation, teamwork and interpersonal skills Demonstrate self-management skills and personal judgement and initiative Exhibit skills in career-building including skills in developing relationships and networks

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Project Plan	15%	Week 3
Literature Review	25%	Week 6
Final Project Report	45%	Week 12
CV and Project Portfolio	15%	Week 13

Project Plan

Due: Week 3 Weighting: 15%

1. Understanding of project

The project work plan should reflect the project Brief and set out

- the purpose of the project to be undertaken by the student and its broad scope
- the specific activities to be undertaken by the student
- the approximate timeframe for these and resources to be applied
- any foreseeable risks or potential impediments to completion (including whether ethics approval may be required for any surveys or supporting data)
- the nature of the product to be prepared (description, approximate word length etc)

• whether the presentation about the project is to be made in a workplace or to a student seminar.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- · Prepare a project brief and identify the key steps in its execution
- Execute problem-solving, critical, analytical and integrative thinking
- Utilise written communication skills
- · Demonstrate collaborative skills including negotiation, teamwork and interpersonal skills

Literature Review

Due: Week 6 Weighting: 25% A 2000 word literature review is required. Once the project has been identified, students are required to identify the relevant academic research as well as current policy and any legislation and governance issues which may apply. The literature review is to clearly articulate the issues that are central to the problem under investigation, particularly as it relates to environmental and planning practice and to the planning profession generally, that is how the theory and practice converge.

Students will be provided with a marking rubric and an emphasis will be placed on writing skills.

The review should be written in an academic style.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Execute problem-solving, critical, analytical and integrative thinking
- Utilise written communication skills

Final Project Report

Due: Week 12 Weighting: 45%

The final product will vary from project to project and may take the form of a report, a submission, a proposal, an assessment, a review or such other product as set out in the Brief. Included in your final project should be a revised literature review (based on feedback from assignment 2).

The word limit is 8000 for this assignment and should also include your revised literature review (max 2000), an executive summary/abstract, all diagrams, maps, tables etc and references.

Criteria for assessment include

• Consistency with the agreed work plan, including the revised agreed work plan if revision has been necessary

- Written expression, including readability, fluency, grammar, and structure, succinctness
- Clarity of presentation of the purpose of the placement project, tasks undertaken and the results achieved

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Undertake targeted research, including creative work
- Utilise written communication skills
- Demonstrate collaborative skills including negotiation, teamwork and interpersonal skills
- · Demonstrate self-management skills and personal judgement and initiative

CV and Project Portfolio

Due: Week 13 Weighting: 15%

The aim of this assessment is to prepare you for a future job as an environmental planner. As part of the assessment you are required to submit an up-dated CV that you would submit for a related job in the environmental or planning field. You are also required to prepare a portfolio of your professional and / or student work that you could bring to a job interview as a demonstration of your skills and experience.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- · Utilise written communication skills
- · Exhibit skills in career-building including skills in developing relationships and networks

Delivery and Resources

Required and recommended reading:

There is no required text for ENVG601. It is anticipated that topic-related background reading will be required for each project and assignment.

Technology used and required

Students will have access to Macquarie Library resources and also the support of planning staff.

Unit Schedule

As a project-based unit, there are no set classes for this unit. You are expected to plan your weekly activities in accordance with the project plan. Assessment tasks are milestones that will also structure your time.

In addition, there will be a number of group meetings scheduled, in Robyn Dowling's office. The first one is scheduled for Wednesday February 25 at 2pm.
