On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income taxation.

Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to GST.

Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to FBT.

Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.

Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.

Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
1. Class Participation	10%	In Class
2. Quiz	15%	20 March 2015 5pm
3. Case Study	25%	1 May 2015 5pm
4. Final Examination	50%	Examination Period

1. Class Participation

Due: In Class

Weighting: 10%

Requires students to make an oral and written presentation.

Each student will be allocated a question and will be required to give one oral presentation analysing and answering the issues in the question. The presentation (worth 5 marks) must not be longer than 7 minutes. Presentations will be marked on the basis of the level of preparation, understanding, accuracy and ability to explain the key issues.

Each student will also be required to submit a written analysis (maximum 300 words) of the issues, the law and how to approach solving the question that they have been allocated. This written analysis (worth 5 marks) must be presented to the lecturer in class on the day of the presentation. This written analysis must not be a repeat of the presentation. It should instead be an explanation of the issues arising from the question, the taxation law relevant to those issues and a suggestion of how the issues can be solved by application of the law. The written analysis should not include calculations or numerical explanations.

Submission: Must be submitted in your designated seminars.

Extension: No extensions will be granted.

Penalties: Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for disruption to studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income taxation.
- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to GST.
- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to FBT.
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

2. Quiz

Due: 20 March 2015 5pm

Weighting: 15%

Will include 5 multiple choice and 5 short answer questions covering topics 1 to 3 and related tutorial questions and will be made available on iLearn on 16 March 2015. Results will be provided to students via iLearn.

Submission: Due online 20 March 5pm. Completed via ilearn.

Extension: No extensions will be granted.

Penalties: Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for disruption to studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income taxation.
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.

3. Case Study

Due: 1 May 2015 5pm

Weighting: 25%

The case study will cover lecture topics 2 to 7 and related tutorial questions, and is due to be lodged via turnitin and ilearn by 5pm 1 May 2015. The case study will require students to provide a detailed analysis of a fact situation applying the taxation laws to arrive at a conclusion in the form of a piece of advice. Guidelines to marking the case study will be provided on ilearn after the case study marks are returned to students.

Submission: Due on 1 May 2015 at 5pm. Lodged via ilearn and Turnitin.

Extension: No extensions will be granted

Penalties: Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for disruption to studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income taxation.
- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to GST.
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

4. Final Examination

Due: Examination Period

Weighting: 50%

The final exam is 3 hours plus 10 minutes reading time and held during the formal examination period 9 June 2015 to 26 June 2015. The final exam will cover lecture topics 6 to 12 and related tutorial questions

To pass the unit students must PASS the final exam and achieve an overall passing mark.

University final exam conditions apply.

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the disruption to studies process the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty of Business and Economics. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of a similar format as the final examination.
