Unit description

This unit is centred on TESOL classroom practice. It is a practical application of the content of APPL920, APPL600 and APPL601. It involves learners completing classroom observation tasks, supervised practice teaching, lesson and materials preparation, reflective teaching activities, and preparation of a teaching portfolio. The majority of time is spent on site at a language teaching institution.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Reflect upon observations of language lessons taught by others and identify the main elements that enabled and inhibited successful teaching/learning to be achieved

Conduct an initial needs assessment and create a learner group profile to facilitate the setting of lesson aims and objectives

Apply a range of teaching strategies suitable for a particular learner group

Plan effective language learning activities that support lesson aims and objectives

Plan effective lessons in which the development of the four macro skills are integrated

Create motivating and engaging materials to support language learning activities

Reflect upon language lessons they have taught and identify the main elements that enabled and inhibited successful teaching/learning to be achieved.

General Assessment Information

The portfolio is submitted as hardcopy. There is a lateness policy that is outlined in full on iLearn. Generally speaking, requests for extensions are not granted unless a valid reason is provided in a request to the Lecturer in advance of the due date.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
