Unit description

This unit explores Asian popular cultures in a global and cross-cultural context. It looks at notions of change, intertextuality and glocalisation within the context of diverse cultural encounters in the region and beyond. The specific focus is on popular cultures in countries which have developed popular culture as an export industry or as an aspect of 'soft power.'

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Develop understanding of a wide range of Asian popular culture texts, the intercultural communication process and how specific popular culture texts become glocalised and diversified through continuous negotiation with host cultures

Generate informed and original analysis of Asian popular culture in a global context and informed manner in oral and written form

Develop an enhanced sense of global citizenship and social responsibility by increasing awareness of the processes of cultural interchange

Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing in an efficient and timely manner with correct referencing

Build interpersonal communication skills through in-class discussions

General Assessment Information

University regulations stipulate that a student must attempt all assessment components to be eligible to pass a unit of study. In ASN301 this means that all four tasks should be fulfilled in order to complete requirements of the unit and be eligible for a passing grade.

ASN301 also has unit-specific assessment policies. Please refer to the Study Guide on the iLearn site for details. Rubrics for all assessment tasks will be available on the iLearn site.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Unit Participation	15%	Ongoing
Tutorial Presentation	20%	Once between Weeks 3 and 11
Literature Review	25%	7 Sept
Essay	40%	2 Nov

Unit Participation

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 15%

Unit participation comprises attendance and participation and will be assessed in terms of the quality and consistency of participation in class. Students are required to be punctual and well prepared for all classes.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop understanding of a wide range of Asian popular culture texts, the intercultural communication process and how specific popular culture texts become globalised and diversified through continuous negotiation with host cultures
- Build interpersonal communication skills through in-class discussions

Tutorial Presentation

Due: Once between Weeks 3 and 11

Weighting: 20%

Working in groups of two to three (Sign-up to groups will be available on the iLearn site), lead a tutorial discussion. Choose one week's topic, read the essential reading and other relevant materials and create 10-12 PPT slides with notes. The assignment includes a self-/peerevaluation component.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop understanding of a wide range of Asian popular culture texts, the intercultural communication process and how specific popular culture texts become globalised and diversified through continuous negotiation with host cultures
- Generate informed and original analysis of Asian popular culture in a global context and informed manner in oral and written form
- Build interpersonal communication skills through in-class discussions

Literature Review

Due: 7 Sept

Weighting: 25%

Select one pair of readings from the three sets of articles specified, and produce a 2000-word critical review. The review should be a discussion and assessment of how experts have approached an issue: it will have an introduction, body and conclusion, well-formed paragraphs, and a logical structure. Compare and contrast the works you are discussing, showing their strengths and weaknesses, their methodologies, and what contribution they make to your understanding of the topic.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop understanding of a wide range of Asian popular culture texts, the intercultural communication process and how specific popular culture texts become globalised and diversified through continuous negotiation with host cultures
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing in an efficient and timely manner with correct referencing

Essay

Due: 2 Nov

Weighting: 40%

Choose one of the specified essay topics and identify an appropriate primary corpus, and critically analyse how your sample texts have changed when placed in dialogue with other cultures. You may wish to consider what is culturally specific about these texts, and what has local and global significance.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop understanding of a wide range of Asian popular culture texts, the intercultural communication process and how specific popular culture texts become globalised and diversified through continuous negotiation with host cultures

- Develop an enhanced sense of global citizenship and social responsibility by increasing awareness of the processes of cultural interchange
- Demonstrate initiative and competence in research, including locating relevant materials and writing in an efficient and timely manner with correct referencing

Assessment task

- Essay

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop an enhanced sense of global citizenship and social responsibility by increasing awareness of the processes of cultural interchange

Assessment task

- Literature Review

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop an enhanced sense of global citizenship and social responsibility by increasing awareness of the processes of cultural interchange
