Unit description

This unit examines international trade both in theory and practice. It first reviews the theories related to inter- and intra-industry trade determination and the empirical evidence supporting them. It then examines trade policies, covering a wide range of topics, illustrated by up-to-date case studies. The unit has a policy approach and aims at also providing students with a good understanding of major trade issues around the world and the effects of globalisation on trade. It focuses on current applications of theoretical principles.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Be conversant with major international trade theories.

Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.

Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.

Critically analyse, compare and examine the motives behind trade disputes.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Class Test 1	30%	Week 6
Assignment	20%	Monday 11th May, 4.30pm
Final Examination	50%	Formal Examination Period

Class Test 1

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 30%

The Class Test will be conducted in the first hour of lectures of WEEK 6 of the teaching week. The class test will be a combination of short-answer questions, true and false and multiple choice questions. It will be of 60 minutes duration.

Absence from the Class Test 1 without acceptable documented evidence will result in a mark of zero. Only under exceptional circumstances will a supplementary mid-session test be granted. A date, time and location will be provided in due course.

Important Notice: Students must be available during the time of the lecture class to sit the class test. The only exception to this is if a student could not do the test because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances this student may wish to consult the University's Disruption to Studies policy- http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Be conversant with major international trade theories.

- Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.
- Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.
- Critically analyse, compare and examine the motives behind trade disputes.

Assignment

Due: Monday 11th May, 4.30pm

Weighting: 20%

The assignment will be posted online at the beginning of week 9 of the teaching week (Monday 9am). Students will have ONE WEEK (from the date of the release of the assignment online) to complete and submit the assignment online on or before the 11th May, 2015, through turnitin on the ECON847 ilearn website. A hard copy MUST also be submitted into an assignment box located on Level 2, E4A, Faculty of Business Economics Building on or before the same due date of the online assessment (i.e. 11th May, 2015, 4.30pm deadline).

No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the assignment by the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

It is important to note that any student that submits an assignment online through turnitin that is not their own work will be automatically be given a mark of zero. Students will also face serious disciplinary action, which may include an automatic failure of ECON847 and the possible exclusion from Macquarie University. Turnitin will be used extensively to determine whether the submitted work is your own work.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Be conversant with major international trade theories.
- Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.
- Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.
- Critically analyse, compare and examine the motives behind trade disputes.

Final Examination

Due: Formal Examination Period

Weighting: 50%

The final exam will be held during the official Session 1 examination period. It is important to note that it is your responsibility to find out the exact time, location and examination date for ECON847.

The structure of the final examination will typically involve short and longer answer questions, which may also include calculations and diagrammatical illustrations. Details on the exact nature and structure of the final examination will be provided in due course. It is important to note that students must pass the final examination to satisfactorily complete this unit. However, it is also important that students must complete all tasks in this course to successfully complete this unit.

Failure to attend the final examination without approved documented evidence will result in a Fail grade for this unit.

Students MUST pass the final examination to satisfactorily complete this unit.

Important Note: It is Macquarie University Policy to not schedule any final examinations earlier than the official date. Therefore, DO NOT organise any travel within the formal examination period as all requests will be rejected.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Be conversant with major international trade theories.
- Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.
- Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.
- Critically analyse, compare and examine the motives behind trade disputes.

Structure of the Weekly 3 Hour Session:

The weekly three-hour session will comprise a two-hour lecture and an hour class practice session. The lectures will provide students with an overview of international trade both in theory and practice, as well as a good understanding of major and current trade issues.

The class practice session will ask students to answer unseen questions from the previous week's lecture and any additional assigned reading material. The solutions to these questions will be provided and discussed only in class. The objective of this strategy is to provide each student with immediate feedback on their answers with the expectation that this will assist and deepen their understanding of various issues of international trade. Students are expected to read in advance the lecture notes provided online, as well as the required readings, and to participate in class discussions.

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be conversant with major international trade theories.
- Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.
- Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.
- Critically analyse, compare and examine the motives behind trade disputes.

Assessment tasks

- Class Test 1
- Assignment
- Final Examination

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be conversant with major international trade theories.

- Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.
- Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.
- Critically analyse, compare and examine the motives behind trade disputes.

Assessment tasks

- Class Test 1
- Assignment
- Final Examination

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be conversant with major international trade theories.
- Understand and appreciate current major world trade and policy issues.
- Fully appreciate the impact of major trade issues on countries with a focus on the tradeoffs between efficiency and equity.
