Unit description

The purpose of this unit is to introduce students to new economic and legal aspects of sustainable development. Markets, regulatory strategies, taxes, financial institutions, investment approaches and the insurance industry have responded to some aspects of this global challenge. This provides the wider context for the changing role and legal obligations of the modern corporation. Corporate approaches to environmental management are studied in the light of new economic realities, requirements, risks and standards such as ISO 14001.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Students will develop an in-depth knowledge of the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing, including an understanding of the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.

Students will develop the ability to undertake high level critique of the decision making models within the corporation and assessing the relative strengths and weaknesses of stakeholders in corporate governance

Students will have the opportunity to respond clearly and convincingly in writing and verbally to challenges to views, as well as presenting articulate ideas to demonstrate understanding and persuade in the value of the view expressed.

Students will gain a deep appreciation of the domestic and international dimensions to accommodating sustainability practices within corporate governance and financing.

Students will enhance their ability to assess contemporary law on sustainability in corporate governance and financing and the manner in which such practices can be assessed and promoted by both state and non state actors.

General Assessment Information

The grades used in this unit is as follows:

HD	High Distinction	85-100	D	Distinction	75-84	Cr	Credit	65-74
P	Pass	50-64	F	Fail	0-49

High Distinction Provides consistent evidence of deep and critical understanding in relation to the learning outcomes. There is substantial originality and insight in identifying, generating and communicating competing arguments, perspectives or problem solving approaches; critical evaluation of problems, their solutions and their implications; creativity in application as appropriate to the discipline.

Distinction Provides evidence of integration and evaluation of critical ideas, principles and theories, distinctive insight and ability in applying relevant skills and concepts in relation to learning outcomes. There is demonstration of frequent originality in defining and analysing issues or problems and providing solutions; and the use of means of communication appropriate to the discipline and the audience.

Credit Provides evidence of learning that goes beyond replication of content knowledge or skills relevant to the learning outcomes. There is demonstration of substantial understanding of fundamental concepts in the field of study and the ability to apply these concepts in a variety of contexts; convincing argumentation with appropriate coherent justification; communication of ideas fluently and clearly in terms of the conventions of the discipline.

Pass Provides sufficient evidence of the achievement of learning outcomes. There is demonstration of understanding and application of fundamental concepts of the field of study; routine argumentation with acceptable justification; communication of information and ideas adequately in terms of the conventions of the discipline. The learning attainment is considered satisfactory or adequate or competent or capable in relation to the specified outcomes.

Fail Does not provide evidence of attainment of learning outcomes. There is missing or partial or superficial or faulty understanding and application of the fundamental concepts in the field of study; missing, undeveloped, inappropriate or confusing argumentation; incomplete, confusing or lacking communication of ideas in ways that give little attention to the conventions of the discipline.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Class Participation	10%	13th, 14th and 15th April 2015
Quiz	20%	14th April 2015
Research Assignment	40%	29th May 2015
Final Exam	30%	4th June 2015

Class Participation

Due: 13th, 14th and 15th April 2015

Weighting: 10%

Students will be assessed on the basis of their knowledge, understanding and ability critically to evaluate the issues raised in each topic, as demonstrated through participation in class discussions, including any online discussions, and in responses to assigned questions in the seminars. Students should generally be prepared to talk about the assigned readings, provide their own assessment of those readings, and contribute to the discussion of questions and problems set in relation to these readings. Students are also encouraged to participate in discussions that extend beyond these set questions and readings through their own evaluation of the issues raised

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Students will develop an in-depth knowledge of the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing, including an understanding of the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.
- Students will develop the ability to undertake high level critique of the decision making models within the corporation and assessing the relative strengths and weaknesses of stakeholders in corporate governance
- Students will have the opportunity to respond clearly and convincingly in writing and verbally to challenges to views, as well as presenting articulate ideas to demonstrate understanding and persuade in the value of the view expressed.
- Students will enhance their ability to assess contemporary law on sustainability in corporate governance and financing and the manner in which such practices can be assessed and promoted by both state and non state actors.

Quiz

Due: 14th April 2015

Weighting: 20%

The Quiz will consist of 2 questions covering topics and readings from the first four modules of the semester. Students are required to answer both questions. The quiz will be held in class from 9.30 - 10.30 am.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Students will develop an in-depth knowledge of the core principles governing the corporate governance and financing, including an understanding of the manner in which corporate responsibility is structured in different jurisdictions.
- Students will have the opportunity to respond clearly and convincingly in writing and verbally to challenges to views, as well as presenting articulate ideas to demonstrate understanding and persuade in the value of the view expressed.

Research Assignment

Due: 29th May 2015

Weighting: 40%

The Research Assignment will provide students with a choice of essay questions that focus on topics and readings in the second half of the semester, but also intended to bring together the core knowledge and graduate capabilities being assessed in the unit.

Sample questions will be posted online. Students are encouraged to pursue their area of interest. In such circumstances, a one page outline of his or her topic, research methods and indicative sources should be submitted for approval before 13 April 2015.

The essays must be submitted through the iLearn site before midnight on 29th May 2015.

The grading policy adopted is detailed in the unit guide.
