Unit description
This unit has two central themes: (1) How to think systematically and strategically about aspects of managing an organisation's international human assets, and (2) What really needs to be done to implement policies and to achieve a competitive international advantage. The unit will examine the difficulties of blending of exogenous and endogenous factors in more than one country while planning and coordinating vital human resource policies and practices.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes
1. Determine the key terms in international HRM and consider several definitions of international HRM
2. Consider the difference and different requirements between domestic and international HRM
3. Assess the impact of cultural differences on the management of people in multinational organisations and to examine the impact of global conditions on the strategic management of human resources in the context of overseas subsidiaries, acquisitions and joint ventures

4. Identify the possible linkages between International HRM and business strategy, and critically analyse International HRM functions and process in various international settings

5. Define and explain the theories which guide the policies, processes and procedures of International HRM

INDIVIDUAL REPORT

Due: Week 6: 3 April 2015 @ 5pm

Weighting: 40%

This is an individual assignment with a maximum of 2,500 words (+/- 10%, excluding references list). All finalised reports MUST be uploaded to iLearn by the due date.

All assignments submitted for assessment must adhere to the following standards:

1. Cover Page

   For each of the assignment, you must use a cover (or title) page that provides the following information:
   - Your full name and student ID number;
   - Contact details: email address;
   - Unit code and name;
   - Assignment number and assignment title;
   - An exact word count of the number of words in the body of your assignment. (Use Word’s Tools menu and click on Word Count.)

2. Presentation of Assignments

   Assignments should meet normal academic and professional standards of presentation, including:
   - All pages, excluding the cover page, should be numbered;
• Page margins should be 2.54 cm (default margin settings) on all four edges and double spaced;
• Times New Roman font type and font size of 12 points should be used;
• Assignments should be free of typographical and grammatical errors;
• Harvard referencing system should be used.

3. Submission Procedure

Students are required to submit their electronic copy of assessment to Turnitin via the Internet as part of the submission process for assignment. Your assignment will then be automatically compared to work of your classmates, previous students from Macquarie and other universities, with material available on the Internet, both freely available and subscription-based electronic journals.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Before submission, name your electronic file in a Word document with the correct file name, that is, your YOUR SURNAME first, then your student ID WITH ONLY AN UNDERSCORE FOR SPACING, e.g., JONES_20141234. To avoid any potential plagiarism issues you or your group can submit the assignment more than once up to the due date.

4. Late Submissions

No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of ‘0’ for the task, except for cases in which an application for Disruption of Studies is made and approved.

Report topics and marking rubrics can be seen on iLearn.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• Determine the key terms in international HRM and consider several definitions of international HRM
• Consider the difference and different requirements between domestic and international HRM
• Assess the impact of cultural differences on the management of people in multinational organisations and to examine the impact of global conditions on the strategic management of human resources in the context of overseas subsidiaries, acquisitions and joint ventures
• Define and explain the theories which guide the policies, processes and procedures of International HRM

GROUP PRESENTATION & REPORT

Due: Weeks 8-12
Weighting: 30%
Note: Your Report is due on the day of your presentation.

Groups will pick a research topic area and present their findings verbally and in a written report. Each group will consist of 3-5 students.

a) Group presentation, 10% group mark - 30 minutes (including 15-20 minutes presentation and 10-15 minutes questions/discussions).

b) Group report, 20% group mark - 2,000 words (+/- 10%), excluding reference list.

The written report should include the following:

- Executive Summary (not included in word count)
- Introduction (setting the context of selected country)
- Analysis (comparison of factors outlined below e.g., population, cultural issues)
- Implications and recommendations for HR professionals
- Reference list (not included in word count)

All assignments submitted for assessment must adhere to the following standards:

1. Cover Page

EXAMINATION

Due: University Examination Period
Weighting: 30%

Length: 2h plus 10 minutes reading time

A two hour closed book examination will be centrally conducted during the university’s formal examination period. Students will be required to select five short answer questions to respond to, out of a possible eight questions. The exam will cover the course content from weeks 1-12. Revision will be carried out in week 13 and students will be provided with study tips.

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The timetable will be available in draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations http://www.exams.mq.edu.au/exam/

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Disruption of Studies. Information about unavoidable disruption and the Disruption of Studies process is available at http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html
If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Disruption of Studies process the examination will be scheduled after the conclusion of the official examination period.

The Macquarie university examination policy details the principles and conduct of examinations at the University. The policy is available at: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/examination/policy.html

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• Determine the key terms in international HRM and consider several definitions of international HRM
• Consider the difference and different requirements between domestic and international HRM
• Assess the impact of cultural differences on the management of people in multinational organisations and to examine the impact of global conditions on the strategic management of human resources in the context of overseas subsidiaries, acquisitions and joint ventures
• Identify the possible linkages between International HRM and business strategy, and critically analyse International HRM functions and process in various international settings

Delivery and Resources

CLASSES

Seminar classes will be conducted over 3 hours of face-to-face teaching per week. Seminar classes will consist of a lecture (2h) and tutorial component (1h).

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/

Classroom sessions are backed up online with lecture notes, case studies, articles and discussion points on the major topics above that make up the unit content.

Absences in lectures

It is expected that students attend at least 80% of the seminar sessions and do the necessary readings and preparation for classes. Medical certificates must be provided if you are not able to attend a class without incurring a penalty. Please read the full policy located at: http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html

The application for exemption form is available at: http://www.reg.mq.edu.au/Forms/APScons.pdf

Students are expected to arrive on time, and not to leave until the class ends.

If you have a recurring problem that makes you late, or forces you to leave early, have the courtesy to discuss this with your lecturer.
Students must be quiet during classes, unless of course when class participation is required. Mobile phone must be turned OFF and not simply set to ‘silent’.

Students who disturb or disrupt in lectures and tutorials will be asked to leave.

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.
This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Assess the impact of cultural differences on the management of people in multinational organisations and to examine the impact of global conditions on the strategic management of human resources in the context of overseas subsidiaries, acquisitions and joint ventures
- Identify the possible linkages between International HRM and business strategy, and critically analyse International HRM functions and process in various international settings

Assessment tasks

- INDIVIDUAL REPORT
- GROUP PRESENTATION & REPORT
- EXAMINATION

Changes from Previous Offering

(1) The length of individual assignment has been changed to 2,500 words.
(2) The length of group report has been changed to 2,000 words.

Research and Practice

The unit uses research from several external sources namely academic journals below, to support your learning of IHRM concepts and theories:

- Human Resource Management
- International Journal of Human Resource Management
- Human Resource Management Journal
- Human Resource Management Review
- Journal of International Business Studies
- Journal of International Management

A list of research articles from these sources will be posted on iLearn, which will allow students to keep up-to-date with current trends and practices in IHRM and considerably expand their knowledge of this subject.

This unit gives you opportunities to conduct research and gives you practice in applying research findings in your assessments.
