Unit description

Since the end of the Cold War the nature and scale of humanitarian intervention and peacekeeping operations under the auspices of the United Nations and regional bodies have become a key feature of the evolving international security environment. Why these operations occur, who authorises them, who becomes involved, what underpins them from a legal and ethical perspective and what challenges they face will all be examined and critically analysed in this unit. In addition, an evaluation of theories behind concepts such as responsibility to protect and their practical application through a series of case studies will provide students with a deep understanding of this crucial dynamic of the 21st century.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Critique contemporary literature relating to the concepts of humanitarian intervention and peacekeeping.

Evaluate the role of the United Nations and its agencies, regional bodies and other influence drivers in the international security environment.

Explore the concepts of peacekeeping in the international security environment.

Examine the development of the concepts linked to "Responsibility to Protect" theory.

Formulate sustained and persuasive arguments.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Introductory Essay	20%	Week 3 (see iLearn)
Annotated Bibliographies	30%	Weeks 6 and 8 (see iLearn)
Research Paper	50%	Week 12 (see iLearn)

Introductory Essay

Due: Week 3 (see iLearn)

Weighting: 20%

For details on this assignment please refer to the unit iLearn site.

A detailed marking matrix is available to all enrolled students on the unit iLearn site.

Marking criteria in the marking matrix includes evaluation of topic comprehension, argument, written expression, referencing, essay structure and organization.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate the role of the United Nations and its agencies, regional bodies and other influence drivers in the international security environment.
- Explore the concepts of peacekeeping in the international security environment.
- Formulate sustained and persuasive arguments.

Annotated Bibliographies

Due: Weeks 6 and 8 (see iLearn)

Weighting: 30%

This assignment consists of two parts and involves the writing and submission of three annotated bibliographies for each part (a total of six)

For details on this assignment please refer to the unit iLearn site.

A detailed marking matrix and a guide on the preparation of annotated bibliographies is available to enrolled students on the unit iLearn site.

Marking criteria in the marking matrix includes the demonstration of analysis and evaluation skills, commentary on writing styles and the application of clear, grammatically correct written expression.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critique contemporary literature relating to the concepts of humanitarian intervention and peacekeeping.
- Examine the development of the concepts linked to "Responsibility to Protect" theory.
- Formulate sustained and persuasive arguments.

Research Paper

Due: Week 12 (see iLearn)

Weighting: 50%

For details on this assignment please refer to the unit iLearn site.

A detailed marking matrix is available to enrolled students on the unit iLearn site.

Marking criteria in the marking matrix includes evaluation of topic comprehension, argument, written expression, referencing and research paper structure and organization.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate the role of the United Nations and its agencies, regional bodies and other influence drivers in the international security environment.
- Explore the concepts of peacekeeping in the international security environment.
- Examine the development of the concepts linked to "Responsibility to Protect" theory.
- Formulate sustained and persuasive arguments.

Delivery and Resources

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

You should spend an average of at least 12 hours per week on this unit. This includes listening to pre-recorded lectures prior to seminar discussions and reading weekly required readings detailed in iLearn.

Internal students are expected to attend all seminar sessions and external students are expected to contribute to on-line discussions.

Students are required to submit all major assessment tasks in order to pass the unit.

REQUIRED READINGS

The citations for all the required readings for this unit are available to enrolled students through the unit iLearn site and at Macquarie University's Library EReserve site. Electronic copies of required readings may be accessed at the EReserve site.

RECOMMENDED READINGS

Recommended readings will be posted to the unit iLearn site as Session 2 progresses.

While there is no prescribed textbook for this unit students may consider obtaining a copy of Collins, A. (ed) Contemporary Security Studies, Oxford University Press, Oxford, 3rd Edition, 2013

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

Personal PC and internet access are essential for this unit. Basic computer skills and skills in word processing are also a requirement.

This unit has an online presence. Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For technical support go to: http://mq.edu.au/about_us/offices_and_units/informatics/help

For student quick guides on the use of iLearn go to: http://mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/guides.htm

The unit can only be accessed by enrolled students online through <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT TASKS

All assessment tasks are to be submitted, marked and returned electronically. This will only happen through the unit iLearn site.

Assessment tasks must be submitted either as a PDF or MS word document by the due date.

All assessment tasks will be subject to a 'Turnitin' review as an automatic part of the submission process.

Assessment tasks must be submitted with a plagiarism declaration. This is achieved automatically as part of the task submission process through grademark

The granting of extensions of up to one week are at the discretion of the unit convenor. Any requests for extensions must be made in writing before the due date for the submission of the assessment task. Extensions beyond one week are subject to the university Disruption's Policy. (http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html#purpose).

LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENT TASKS

There is a penalty for the the late submission of assessment tasks. If an assignment is submitted late it will initially be marked as if it had been submitted on time. However, 5% of the weighting allocated for the assignment will then be deducted from the mark the student initially achieves in the assessment task for each day it is late. For example if the assessment task's weighting is 20, 1.00 mark per day will be deducted from the initial mark given per day it is late ie a task initially given 15/20 but which is submitted four days late will lose 4 x 1.00 marks. That means 15/20-4marks=11/20. It is this second mark which will be recorded in gradebook.

The same principle applies if a student seeks and is granted an extension and the assessment task is submitted later than the amended submission date.

WORD LIMITS FOR ASSESSMENT TASKS

Stated word limits do not include references, bibliography, or title page.

Word limits can generally deviate by 10% either over or under the stated figure.

If the number of words exceeds the limit by more than 10%, then penalties will apply. These penalties are 5% of the awarded mark for every 100 words over the word limit. If a paper is 300 words over, for instance, it will lose $3 \times 5\% = 15\%$ of the total mark awarded for the assignment. This percentage is taken off the total mark, i.e. if a paper was graded at a credit (65%) and was 300 words over, it would be reduced by 15 marks to a pass (50%)

REASSESSMENT OF ASSIGNMENTS DURING THE SESSION

Macquarie University operates a Grade Appeal Policy in cases where students feel their work was graded inappropriately (<http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/gradeappeal/policy.html>). This process involves all assignments submitted for that unit being reassessed. However, in exceptional cases students may request that a single piece of work is reassessed.
