Unit description
What do we mean by 'being Australian'? In Australia, film and television are used by the creative industries and viewing public to create, share, critique and sustain ideas of identity and space, and to mediate associated cultural concerns. This unit focuses on constructions of 'Australianness' drawn from these Australian contexts, using cultural-critical frameworks to explore the production and consumption of Australian film and television locally and globally. In addition, by canvassing themes or representation, genre, style, policy, history and industrial practice, this unit explores the trajectories and texts of Australian film and television as well as the contemporary preoccupations of both. The production of identity, Indigeneity, gender, sexuality, race, religion and politics from an Australian perspective is explored through a number of Australian feature films, documentaries and television programs. These are filtered through critical perspectives from across the broad range of Cultural Studies to interrogate how 'being Australian' is performed as a complex phenomenon.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes

1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.
2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.

4. Identify the production of ‘Australianness’ through discourses of nationalism and social inclusion.

5. Review critically, analyse and synthesis findings in written and creative form, as well as facilitate and participate in discussions and presentations.

6. Communicate in a manner conforming to accepted academic standards in both written and spoken form.

7. Identify issues specific to Cultural Studies practice including ethical relations to others, social justice and equity, and the appreciation of diversity.

Surveys

Due: Week 2 & Week 11
Weighting: 5%

Students complete answers to a series of reflective suggestions and factual questions at the beginning and the end of the semester. The first will be distributed in the week one lecture and will be due for submission in the first tutorial. This is used as an early assessment exercise to help identify students who may require extra help. The second survey will be completed as a take-home exercise and will respond to material from the second half of the course. This is a pass/fail exercise based on completion to a satisfactory level by the due dates.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
- 1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.
• 2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).

• 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.

• 6. Communicate in a manner conforming to accepted academic standards in both written and spoken form.

Tests

Due: Week 6 & Week 11

Weighting: 20%

Students will sit two in-class tests throughout the course of the semester.

Submission: The tests are administered in class only, in Week 6 and Week 11. Students must complete the test in person, or contact the lecturer if any disruption to attendance presents itself.

Criteria: The tests comprise a range of factual answers and short responses to critical propositions and observations. The first test covers material from Weeks 1-4 and the second test covers topics examined from Weeks 7-10. The test will be timed and students will not be able to confer in any way or consult notes, devices or materials of any kind.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• 1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.

• 2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).

• 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.

• 4. Identify the production of ‘Australianness’ through discourses of nationalism and social inclusion.

• 6. Communicate in a manner conforming to accepted academic standards in both written and spoken form.

• 7. Identify issues specific to Cultural Studies practice including ethical relations to others, social justice and equity, and the appreciation of diversity.
Journal

Due: Week 10
Weighting: 20%

Students will keep a written weekly journal documenting their own responses to the three major film or television texts screened in the lectures from weeks 7 through to (and including) week 9, using the criteria in iLearn and the weekly questions under each banner. Each entry is to be no longer than 250 words.

Submission: The full journal is due as a hard copy and as an online submission on Week 11, as one document submitted via the 'journal' link on the unit iLearn page, no later than 6pm.

Criteria: Your journal response will offer -

1) an understanding of the content/narrative
2) an understanding of important industrial and/or social contexts that shape the text
3) any noticeable textual/stylistic features and
4) an account of the relationship between the screening and the weekly themes from the lectures and the readings.

If you quote/cite specific material you must reference appropriately. All weekly screenings from weeks 7-9 must be included.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- 1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.
- 2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).
- 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.
- 4. Identify the production of ‘Australianness’ through discourses of nationalism and social inclusion.
- 5. Review critically, analyse and synthesis findings in written and creative form, as well as facilitate and participate in discussions and presentations.
- 6. Communicate in a manner conforming to accepted academic standards in both written and spoken form.
- 7. Identify issues specific to Cultural Studies practice including ethical relations to others, social justice and equity, and the appreciation of diversity.
Presentation

Due: Ongoing
Weighting: 20%

This task is an opportunity for students to present their ideas to their peers. More information will be given in class.

Maximum time limit: 25 minutes

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.
2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.
4. Identify the production of 'Australianness' through discourses of nationalism and social inclusion.
5. Review critically, analyse and synthesis findings in written and creative form, as well as facilitate and participate in discussions and presentations.
6. Communicate in a manner conforming to accepted academic standards in both written and spoken form.
7. Identify issues specific to Cultural Studies practice including ethical relations to others, social justice and equity, and the appreciation of diversity.

Final Essay

Due: Week 13
Weighting: 25%

The essay will be based on one of the assigned essay questions. In their essay, students must draw on the critical and theoretical material discussed in the lectures and provided in readings for this unit.

Submission: Essays are to be submitted via the link provided on iLearn.

Extensions: The mid-semester essay and final essay must be submitted in class with the appropriate cover sheet. Extensions will only be granted if Special Consideration has been approved. Further, extensions will not be accepted unless Special Consideration and/or a prior extension has been requested and approved. Please give yourself enough time to ask for an extension.
extension (2 weeks minimum notice advisable). You will need to lodge your request for special consideration by logging into \texttt{http://ask.mq.edu.au} with your OneID.

Late submissions: Failing to submit an assignment at or before the due date is not permitted, unless medical documentation or unavoidable disruption has occurred. If this occurs, students will need to show their lecturer/tutor the appropriate documentation to justify late submission.

Criteria: The marking criteria for this assessment is as follows:

1. Extent to which the work/analysis is focused on the specific question, theme or topic.
2. Structure: statement of aims in introduction, organisation of material (logical order and flow of discussion), conclusion
3. Clarity of argument, quality of analysis and fluency in cultural studies terms
4. Identification of appropriate themes and concepts from the set texts and further reading and their usefulness in the analysis of examples
5. Use of appropriate evidence to support claims
6. Adequate and appropriate citation of sources
7. Presentation: format, spelling, syntax, grammar and expression

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- 1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.
- 2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).
- 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

3 hours face-to-face teaching per week. The majority of class time will have a short introductory lecture on the film, topics and theories for that week. The rest of the time will be spent viewing and critically analysing feature-length films and other class activities. The timetable for classes can be found on the MQC Student Portal at: http://student.mqc.edu.au/

It is an assessment requirement of this unit that students attend a minimum of 80% of classes.

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

All texts will be posted on iLearn or posted as web-links when appropriate.

Technology Used and Required

Online units can be accessed at: http://ilearn.mq.edu.au/
PC and Internet access are required. Basic computer skills (e.g. internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 1. Develop scholarly and thematic familiarity (contemporary and historical) of Cultural Studies with respect to Australian film and television.
- 2. Analyse Australian screen texts and associated cultural practices (Australian spaces, media, scholarly work, social and historical phenomena).

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation’s historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the politicised aspects of Australian life: how definitions of Australian culture and identity work with respect to on-screen representation, texts, technologies, industries and lived realities.
