Unit description

This unit extends students' theoretical understanding of educational leadership by exploring the organisational nature of educational settings and examining the application of organisational theories in these settings. After completing this unit, students will better understand the complexities and ambiguities of leadership and management, organisational change and policy implementation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- apply a range of organisational theories and concepts to educational organisations
- use common perspectives on organisation (viz., structural, human, learning, cultural, political, emotional) to critically analyse the dynamics of a variety of educational organisations

General Assessment Information

Each assessment activity--three Reflective Tasks, three Forums and the Case Study--must be completed in order to pass this Unit.

Your level of achievement will be assessed in terms of:

- Knowledge Development: Understanding of key ideas, knowledge components and their interrelationships.
- Application: Ability to apply theoretical ideas and frameworks to educational practice in a critically reflective way.
- Presentation: The extent to which the work has been written and presented in a manner consistent with accepted academic standards.
