Unit description

This unit focuses on topics concerned with issues in both financial and management accounting in international contexts. Particular attention is given to the impact of national culture and to how an understanding of cultural differences provides insights into cross-national differences in financial reporting practices and management behaviour. Current issues in accounting standard-setting in an international context, including the debate on international accounting convergence, are also examined. With respect to management accounting, the unit examines issues and problems facing international companies in organising, managing, planning, controlling and evaluating their global operations. A solid understanding of cultural influences on international accounting practices is a requirement for any advanced study of accounting theory. This unit provides students with essential internationally contextualised accounting experiences that develop the concepts and skills necessary for advanced research in accounting and corporate governance.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Understand some of the differences in accounting methods and disclosure practices we might find when we compare the financial reports of companies from different countries.
- Appreciate how accounting and corporate disclosure is regulated in a range of different nations, and the role that the accounting profession, government and other bodies have in that regulation.

Recognise the cultural, economic, political and historical factors that help explain differences and similarities in patterns of accounting and regulation across nations, and how these factors may influence the move towards international harmonization.

Identify why ethical behaviour is fundamental to the practice of accounting and critically apply moral theories and ethical frameworks to resolve real-world ethical issues confronting accountants.

Demonstrate research skills to articulate well-reasoned solutions to problems facing international companies in organizing, managing, planning, controlling and evaluating, their global operations.

Critically explore and evaluate the state of contemporary and professional research in the area of International Accounting.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Class Test	15%	Week 4 and 7
Research Report	25%	Weeks 9-12

Class Test

Due: Week 4 and 7

Weighting: 15%

During Week 4 (covering Weeks 1-3) and Week 7 (covering Weeks 4-6) short tests will be conducted during class time. Each test will account for 7.5% of your overall assessment. The test will comprise of short essay questions and will gauge students ability to critically evaluate the issues covered in the relevant topics, case studies and associated readings. The first test in Week 4 is an early diagnostic assessment, the results of which will be indicative of the student's application to achieving the learning outcomes of the unit.

Submission: Attendance is compulsory.

Extension: No extension will be granted unless an application is approved under the Disruption to Studies Policy in accordance with the University rules.

Penalties: Zero mark for non-submission.

Final Examination

Due: University Examination Period

Weighting: 60%

The final exam is of three hours and ten minutes duration. The final exam is designed to test you against the learning objectives of the unit. Students in ACCG835 for 2016 will be required to do a final exam that tests them on all the material covered during the session. The University Examination period in the First Half Year 2016 is from Tuesday 14 June - Sunday 3 July.

Submission: Attendance is compulsory

Extension: The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Disruption to Studies in accordance with the University rules.

Penalties: Students who miss this exam will score zero marks. If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Disruption to Studies Policy the examination will be scheduled after the conclusion of the official examination period.

To pass the unit students must pass the final exam and achieve an overall passing grade in their overall assessment.

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Disruption to Studies Policy the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of the similar format as the final examination.

On successful completion you will be able to:

Research and Practice, Global and Sustainability

This unit gives you opportunities to conduct research both individually and in groups. Further information on the required academic readings and research-based assessments are provided in the Assessment guide.

This unit addresses global and sustainability issues as direct areas of study and as necessary implications arising from the materials, assessment and academic discussion and debate in classes. We promote sustainability by developing ability in students to research and locate information within accounting discipline. We aim to provide students with an opportunity to obtain skills which will benefit them throughout their career.

The unit materials have a reference list at the end of each chapter/module/text containing all references cited by the author. These provide some guidance to references that could be used to research particular issues.
