Unit description
This unit provides students with an introduction to marketing as it is used within all organisations. Topics include: the role of marketing; the understanding of the market research process; marketing decision making (market segmentation, consumer behaviour and the marketing mix); product planning and development; distribution; promotion; pricing; marketing strategies and control; and evaluation of marketing management, with a focus on creating consumer value. Students are also exposed to some of the critical issues surrounding the implementation of marketing strategies in the contemporary business environment and of the importance of ethics and sustainability as addressed by the societal marketing concept.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

A1 Marketing Report

Due: As per Unit Schedule

Weighting: 30%

A1 Group Marketing Plan

In groups students will write and present a 3-5 year marketing plan for a new product/service to convince senior management to invest the necessary funds required to successfully implement the plan.

In week one, students will form into groups.

This assignment has two components:

Presentation (Worth 10%)

Students are required to present their progress in completing the marketing plan in the following weeks:

As identified in the table above, your presentation will be graded in three sections each worth 5 marks based on the quality of the material created and presented.

ALL group members must attend their group presentations.

All presentation materials must be uploaded to iLearn prior to the tutorials in which their group presents.

No late material will be accepted. No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline or who do not attend the lectures in which their group presents will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for Disruption to Studies is made and approved.

- Every group member must take a co-leadership role for one section which means that everyone will present one of the sections and upload material to iLearn.
- Every group member must complete a peer evaluation for each member of the group indicating their level of contribution to the overall group work.

No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved.
Report Writing (Worth 20% | Due: 3 June, 11:59 pm):

Students are required to submit their written marketing plan to Turnitin by the due date which is Week 12, 3 June, 11:59 pm.

Each group must submit a 4000 words report (excluding the references) to Turnitin. Exceeding the word limit will be resulted in a 25% mark deduction.

A minimum of 5 scholarly peer reviewed articles and 5 industry reports from Passport MUST be integrated throughout the report. Failure to include the 10 sources will be resulted in a 50% mark deduction.

Individual marks will be based on contribution to the group tasks and will be determined by peer assessment.

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Understand the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing as a key organisational and managerial philosophy
- Recognise the central importance of marketing in contributing to organisational health and prosperity
- Critically analyse, discuss and evaluate marketing theories and thinking in dealing with the practical, contemporary marketing issues confronting organisations
- Critically evaluate and reflect upon specific marketing decisions and marketing strategies through interactive learning techniques
- Gain experience in the managerial process of marketing through exposure to practical marketing activities

A2 Class Test

Due: 5 May 2016 (Week 8)
Weighting: 10%

A2 Class Test

40 multiple choice, closed book, 45 minutes. Questions cover the lecture content from the first 6 weeks.
No extensions will be granted. Students who do not attend the quiz at the specified time will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for Disruption of Studies is made and approved.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
- Understand the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing as a key organisational and managerial philosophy

A3 Simulation Game Coursework

Due: 7 weekly decisions

Weighting: 20%

A3 Marketing Simulation Game

Students will participate in the computer-based marketing management and strategy simulation game- Practice Marketing. The game provides a challenging decision-making exercise in which complex marketing decisions must be made within a competitive marketing environment.

Students will be organised into syndicate teams and will manage their hypothetical firm in competition with other firms within their designated industry over the course of the game. The objective of this exercise is to place students into a realistic operating environment which requires the integration of complex marketing research, analysis, planning and decision-making.

Team assessment will be based on results, which is a function of several performance indicators such as net profit, revenue, return on marketing, product and customer satisfaction score.

Individual marks will be based on contribution to the group tasks and will be determined by peer assessment.

The decision rules of the game are detailed and extensive. Thus, it is essential that each firm makes continual reference to the players’ manual.

The game requires seven decisions to be made, thus simulating six quarters of operations in total. For the necessary computer processing to be completed in time, it will be essential that decisions be submitted on-line by the deadlines. Decisions are due by 11:59 pm on the due date. Decisions submitted late will result in a 10% deduction in the final mark for each late decision. Results will be distributed on-line and discussed in the following class.

Decisions will be entered weekly by teams on-line according to a strict timetable. (The onus is on the team to supply decisions on time, correctly entered and in the agreed format.)

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment task

• A3 Simulation Game Coursework

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Understand the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing as a key organisational and managerial philosophy
• Recognise the central importance of marketing in contributing to organisational health and prosperity
• Critically analyse, discuss and evaluate marketing theories and thinking in dealing with the practical, contemporary marketing issues confronting organisations
• Critically evaluate and reflect upon specific marketing decisions and marketing strategies through interactive learning techniques
• Gain experience in the managerial process of marketing through exposure to practical marketing activities

Assessment tasks

• A1 Marketing Report
• A3 Simulation Game Coursework
Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment task

• A2 Class Test

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Understand the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing as a key organisational and managerial philosophy
• Recognise the central importance of marketing in contributing to organisational health and prosperity
• Critically analyse, discuss and evaluate marketing theories and thinking in dealing with the practical, contemporary marketing issues confronting organisations
• Critically evaluate and reflect upon specific marketing decisions and marketing strategies through interactive learning techniques
• Gain experience in the managerial process of marketing through exposure to practical marketing activities

Assessment tasks

• A1 Marketing Report
• A2 Class Test
• A4 Final Examination
Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Understand the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing as a key organisational and managerial philosophy
• Recognise the central importance of marketing in contributing to organisational health and prosperity
• Critically analyse, discuss and evaluate marketing theories and thinking in dealing with the practical, contemporary marketing issues confronting organisations
• Critically evaluate and reflect upon specific marketing decisions and marketing strategies through interactive learning techniques

Research and Practice and Sustainability

Research and Practice and Sustainability

This unit gives you practice in applying research findings in your assignments. It also allows you opportunities to conduct your own research.

The marketing plan and marketing simulation game are designed to allow you learn and demonstrate your understanding of current industry marketing practices. In addition, there will be regular classroom discussion of current marketing issues, as discussed in the business press, and how they relate to the course lecture material.

This unit uses research from external sources and Macquarie University researchers as listed in the references lists on iLearn.

http://unitguides.mq.edu.au/unit_offerings/54913/unit_guide/print

It will be assumed that you will have read the chapters assigned each week prior to attending lectures. The text covers some of the basic material and provides numerous examples. There will also be a small number of additional readings from other sources that will be provided to you via iLearn.
