Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Dissertation Proposal	10%	5:00 pm Friday, Week 3, S 1
Presentation	10%	Week 9, S 2
Dissertation	80%	5.00 pm, Friday, Week 13, S 2

Dissertation Proposal

Due: 5:00 pm Friday, Week 3, S 1

Weighting: 10%

Students are required to formulate a proposal for the dissertation. This should be prepared on the form attached to the end of this Unit Guide and submitted to the convenor and supervisor. There is no grade given for the proposal but its submission is a compulsory requirement of the Unit. Research projects may advance only after approval of a proposal by the convenor.

The proposal should include the following:-

- a working title of the project,
- the area of law in which your topic is situated ,
- the research question that you are seeking to explore,
- the methodological approached which you will be employing, and
- an outline of the structure of the proposed dissertation.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of the core principles governing their areas of enquiry.

Presentation

Due: Week 9, S 2

Weighting: 10%

Students are required to present a summary of their research either orally in person (internal students) or through a PowerPoint presentation and an online participation (external students). Oral presentations should be with between 3 - 5 minutes with an extra 3 minutes for questions.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of the core principles governing their areas of enquiry.
- Demonstrate sophisticated skills of communication, appropriately synthesising appropriate scholarship in the relevant areas.
- Use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society.
- Demonstrate the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

Dissertation

Due: 5.00 pm, Friday, Week 13, S 2

Weighting: 80%

The graded assessment of this Unit will be based upon the submitted research dissertation. The dissertation should be well structured, with sub-headings where appropriate and be fully referenced as per the Australian Guide to Legal Citation. The supervisor of a dissertation cannot also be an examiner of that dissertation. Examiners are normally members of staff in the School of Law. A supervisor may present a special case for the appointment of an outside examiner, who will normally be a member of a similar Department in another university or a legal practitioner.

Examiners will assess the dissertation based upon the criteria set out in the rubric attached to the end of this Unit Guide. Examiners will also complete a written report at the end of the examination process, a template of which is also attached to the end of this Unit Guide. You will be provided with a copy of that report.

Once received, the examiner's report will be communicated by the convenor to the student's supervisor, who will then have an opportunity to provide further comments. In the event of disagreement between the examiner and supervisor, the unit convenor reserves the right to make a determination about the final grade that should be awarded for the paper.

The examination process may take 6 - 8 weeks.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of the core principles governing their areas of enquiry.

- Demonstrate sophisticated skills of communication, appropriately synthesising appropriate scholarship in the relevant areas.
- Demonstrate an ability to utilise and reflect on prior knowledge and experience, apply higher-level critical thinking skills and integrate learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments to learning.
- Use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society.
- Demonstrate ethical awareness and capacity to meet their professional and community responsibilities.
- Demonstrate the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

Delivery and Resources

Delivery:

The unit will be undertaken with supervision from a staff member and assistance from the Unit convenor.

Resources:

There are several key texts on legal research and writing. Again any one of these will be useful:

- Terry Hutchinson, Research and Writing in the Law (2010) (3rd Ed) Lawbook Co
- Rowena Murray, How to Write a Thesis, Open University Press, 2002

This unit will have an iLearn presence.

Both assignments are to be submitted through Turnitin. You will find the Turnitin link for each assignment in the iLearn folder for the assignment
