CorequisitesCo-badged status*Unit description

This unit examines the laws relating to income tax (including the taxation of capital gains), fringe benefits tax and the goods and services tax in Australia. In completing this unit students will apply tax legislation, case law and rulings to a variety of fact situations, making conclusions and recommendations. In addition the tax issues specific to individuals, partnerships, trusts and companies are considered and compared.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT

Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.

Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.

Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
1. Class Participation	10%	In Class
2. Quiz	15%	24 March 2016 5pm
3. Case Study	25%	6 May 2016 5pm
4. Final Examination	50%	Examination Period

1. Class Participation

Due: In Class

Weighting: 10%

Requires students to make an oral and written presentation.

Each student will be allocated a question and will be required to give one oral presentation analysing and answering the issues in the question. The presentation (worth 5 marks) must not be longer than 7 minutes. Presentations will be marked on the basis of the level of preparation, understanding, accuracy and ability to explain the key issues.

Each student will also be required to submit a written analysis (maximum 300 words) of the issues, the law and how to approach solving the question that they have been allocated. This written analysis (worth 5 marks) must be presented to the lecturer in class on the day of the presentation. This written analysis must not be a repeat of the presentation. It should instead be an explanation of the issues arising from the question, the taxation law relevant to those issues and a suggestion of how the issues can be solved by application of the law. The written analysis should not include calculations or numerical explanations.

Submission: Must be submitted in your designated seminars.

Extension: No extensions will be granted.

Penalties: Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for disruption to studies is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

2. Quiz

Due: 24 March 2016 5pm

Weighting: 15%

Will include 15 multiple choice questions covering topics 1 to 3 and related tutorial questions and will be made available on ilearn on 24 March 2016. Results will be provided to students via iLearn.

Submission: Due online 24 March 2016 5pm. Completed via ilearn.

Extension: No extensions will be granted.

Penalties: No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.

3. Case Study

Due: 6 May 2016 5pm

Weighting: 25%

The case study will cover lecture topics 2 to 7 and related tutorial questions, and is due to be lodged via turnitin and ilearn by 5pm 6 May 2016. The case study will require students to provide a detailed analysis of a fact situation applying the taxation laws to arrive at a conclusion in the form of a piece of advice. Guidelines to marking the case study will be provided on ilearn after the case study marks are returned to students.

Submission: Due on 6 May 2016 at 5pm. Lodged via ilearn and Turnitin.

Extension: No extensions will be granted

Penalties: No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

4. Final Examination

Due: Examination Period

Weighting: 50%

The final exam is 3 hours plus 10 minutes reading time and held during the formal examination period commencing 14 June 2016. The final exam will cover lecture topics 6 to 12 and related tutorial questions.

To pass the unit students must PASS the final exam and achieve an overall passing mark.

University final exam conditions apply.

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the disruption to studies process the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty of Business and Economics. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of a similar format as the final examination.

Materials that may be taken into the exam

You are permitted to take the following materials into the final examination

- Your own handwritten notes.
- A calculator.
- Barkoczy, S. Core Tax Legislation and Study Guide 2016. This may be written on, marked up by hand or tagged as you see fit.

You are NOT permitted to take into the tests or the exam any other items – you are not, for example, allowed to take your textbook Australian Taxation Law into the exam. Similarly, no photocopies are permitted nor any computer downloads or printed output of any type.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

- The thirteen three-hour seminars will consist of a 2 hour lecture and 1 hour tutorial component each week as detailed later in this unit guide.
- The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>
- Class attendance for this unit is compulsory.

Staff teaching in the unit will be available for individual consultation with students. A timetable of when staff will be available will be posted on the unit's iLearn site.

Students experiencing significant difficulties with any topic in the unit must seek assistance immediately. You are encouraged to seek help at a time that is convenient to you from a staff member teaching on this unit during their regular consultation hours. In special circumstances, an appointment may be made outside regular consultation hours.

Lecturer consultation sessions will be run in the Consultation Room at E4B104.

In order to gain access to the unit convenor located on level 3 of building E4A during consultation hours please ring the staff member from the phones available in the lobby (phone numbers of relevant staff members will be provided on iLearn and are available next to the phones).
