Unit description
This unit examines the laws relating to income tax (including the taxation of capital gains), fringe benefits tax and the goods and services tax in Australia. In completing this unit students will apply tax legislation, case law and rulings to a variety of fact situations, making conclusions and recommendations. In addition the tax issues specific to individuals, partnerships, trusts and companies are considered and compared.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes
1. Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
2. Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
3. Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
4. Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

1. Class Participation

Due: In Class
Weighting: 10%

Requires students to make an oral and written presentation.

Each student will be allocated a question and will be required to give one oral presentation analysing and answering the issues in the question. The presentation (worth 5 marks) must not be longer than 7 minutes. Presentations will be marked on the basis of the level of preparation, understanding, accuracy and ability to explain the key issues.

Each student will also be required to submit a written analysis (maximum 300 words) of the issues, the law and how to approach solving the question that they have been allocated. This written analysis (worth 5 marks) must be presented to the lecturer in class on the day of the presentation. This written analysis must not be a repeat of the presentation. It should instead be an explanation of the issues arising from the question, the taxation law relevant to those issues and a suggestion of how the issues can be solved by application of the law. The written analysis should not include calculations or numerical explanations.

Submission: Must be submitted in your designated seminars.

Extension: No extensions will be granted.

Penalties: Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for disruption to studies is made and approved.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

2. Quiz

Due: 24 March 2016 5pm
Weighting: 15%

Will include 15 multiple choice questions covering topics 1 to 3 and related tutorial questions and will be made available on iLearn on 24 March 2016. Results will be provided to students via iLearn.

Submission: Due online 24 March 2016 5pm. Completed via iLearn.
Extension: No extensions will be granted.

Penalties: No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
• Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
• Determine a particular taxpayer’s final income tax, GST and FBT liability.

3. Case Study

Due: 6 May 2016 5pm
Weighting: 25%

The case study will cover lecture topics 2 to 7 and related tutorial questions, and is due to be lodged via turnitin and iearn by 5pm 6 May 2016. The case study will require students to provide a detailed analysis of a fact situation applying the taxation laws to arrive at a conclusion in the form of a piece of advice. Guidelines to marking the case study will be provided on iearn after the case study marks are returned to students.

Submission: Due on 6 May 2016 at 5pm. Lodged via iearn and Turnitin.

Extension: No extensions will be granted

Penalties: No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
• Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
• Determine a particular taxpayer’s final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
• Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.
4. Final Examination

Due: Examination Period
Weighting: 50%

The final exam is 3 hours plus 10 minutes reading time and held during the formal examination period commencing 14 June 2016. The final exam will cover lecture topics 6 to 12 and related tutorial questions.

To pass the unit students must PASS the final exam and achieve an overall passing mark.

University final exam conditions apply.

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the disruption to studies process the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty of Business and Economics. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of a similar format as the final examination.

Materials that may be taken into the exam

You are permitted to take the following materials into the final examination

- Your own handwritten notes.
- A calculator.
- Barkoczy, S. Core Tax Legislation and Study Guide 2016. This may be written on, marked up by hand or tagged as you see fit.

You are NOT permitted to take into the tests or the exam any other items – you are not, for example, allowed to take your textbook Australian Taxation Law into the exam. Similarly, no photocopies are permitted nor any computer downloads or printed output of any type.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
- Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
- Determine a particular taxpayer’s final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
- Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

Delivery and Resources

Classes
The thirteen three-hour seminars will consist of a 2 hour lecture and 1 hour tutorial component each week as detailed later in this unit guide.

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/

Class attendance for this unit is compulsory.

Staff teaching in the unit will be available for individual consultation with students. A timetable of when staff will be available will be posted on the unit’s iLearn site.

Students experiencing significant difficulties with any topic in the unit must seek assistance immediately. You are encouraged to seek help at a time that is convenient to you from a staff member teaching on this unit during their regular consultation hours. In special circumstances, an appointment may be made outside regular consultation hours.

Lecturer consultation sessions will be run in the Consultation Room at E4B104.

In order to gain access to the unit convenor located on level 3 of building E4A during consultation hours please ring the staff member from the phones available in the lobby (phone numbers of relevant staff members will be provided on iLearn and are available next to the phones).

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Prescribed textbooks:

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
• Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
• Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
• Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

Assessment tasks

• 1. Class Participation
• 2. Quiz
• 3. Case Study
• 4. Final Examination

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
• Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
• Determine a particular taxpayer's final income tax, GST and FBT liability.
• Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.
Assessment tasks

• 1. Class Participation
• 2. Quiz
• 3. Case Study
• 4. Final Examination

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Identify, analyse and apply the law relating to income tax, GST and FBT
• Explain the relevant tax laws and related legal precedents and apply them to a problem or fact situation.
• Present verbally and in writing conclusions as to the tax implications arising from a particular set of facts.

Changes from Previous Offering

Change to the penalties for the online quiz and case study from the previous offering of ACCG924.

Research & Practice, Global & Sustainability

This unit addresses global and sustainability issues and the relevant implications in reading materials, assessments and seminar discussions. The unit promotes sustainability by developing a student's ability to research and locate information relating to recent developments in taxation law. Throughout the unit additional references and materials are provided to facilitate research.
