Corequisites

Co-badged status

Unit description

This unit gives students the opportunity to make a detailed study of two of the most famous works of Roman history (Annals and Twelve Caesars). Particular attention will be paid to the life and times of Tacitus and Suetonius, especially their relationships with contemporary literary figures as well as their depictions of the most important members of the Julio-Claudian and Flavian dynasties.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes

1. Read, analyse and interpret select sections from the mandatory primary historical texts and commentary in pertinent secondary sources and present the information in a written format

2. Utilise and reflect on prior knowledge and experience, to apply higher level critical thinking skills, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge of ancient historiographical practices from a range of literary and documentary sources and contexts.

3. Enquire systematically and use research skills to create new knowledge that can contribute to the field of ancient historiography

4. Communicate effectively and convey views about the life, times, and work of Tacitus and Suetonius to different social, cultural, and professional audiences

5. Demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in professional and personal judgement.

Seminar Participation

Due: Weeks 2-6, 8-12
Weighting: 30%

Online seminar participation in Weeks 2-6 and 8-12 will explore a range of topics keyed to the life, times and literary production of Tacitus and Suetonius. Each week students will

- consider brief readings and set of stimulus questions relating to a particular topic
- provide a brief, integrated post relating to the stimulus questions in the online forum (original post – submitted no later than Wednesday of the relevant week) (150 words)
- contribute a brief, integrated response to the discussion generated by individual responses (selective response – submitted no later than Sunday of the relevant week) (150 words)
- explore issues and share ideas relating to the weekly seminar topic.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Read, analyse and interpret select sections from the mandatory primary historical texts and commentary in pertinent secondary sources and present the information in a written format
- Utilise and reflect on prior knowledge and experience, to apply higher level critical thinking skills, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge of ancient historiographical practices from a range of literary and documentary sources and contexts.

- Communicate effectively and convey views about the life, times, and work of Tacitus and Suetonius to different social, cultural, and professional audiences
- Demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in professional and personal judgement.

Historiographical Exercise I

Due: Week 7

Weighting: 35%

This task is based on knowledge and understanding of Tacitus acquired in Weeks 1-6: his life and times, historical background, historiographical method, and the structure and contents of Annals and comprises the composition of (1) an historiographical profile of an historical episode (AD 37-47) (400-500 words); (2) a fictional episode in the style of Tacitus (850-1000 words); and (3) a formal paper on an aspect of the Annals (1250-1500 words).

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Read, analyse and interpret select sections from the mandatory primary historical texts and commentary in pertinent secondary sources and present the information in a written format
- Utilise and reflect on prior knowledge and experience, to apply higher level critical thinking skills, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge of ancient historiographical practices from a range of literary and documentary sources and contexts.
- Enquire systematically and use research skills to create new knowledge that can contribute to the field of ancient historiography

Historiographical Exercise II

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 35%

This three-part task is based on knowledge and understanding of Suetonius acquired in Weeks 7-12: his life and times, historical background, biographical method, and the structure and contents of Lives of the Twelve Caesars and comprises the composition of (1) a biographical profile of a selected historical figure (400-500 words); (2) five (5) sections of a fictional Life in the style of Suetonius (850-100 words); and (3) a formal paper on an aspect of Twelve Caesars (1250-1500 words).

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Read, analyse and interpret select sections from the mandatory primary historical texts and commentary in pertinent secondary sources and present the information in a written format
• Utilise and reflect on prior knowledge and experience, to apply higher level critical thinking skills, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge of ancient historiographical practices from a range of literary and documentary sources and contexts.
• Enquire systematically and use research skills to create new knowledge that can contribute to the field of ancient historiography

Learning and Teaching Activities

Source-based Collaborative Participation

This Learning and Teaching Activity pertains to the Seminar Participation Assessment Task. As listed in the Unit Schedule, students meet to examine primary evidence from antiquity which illuminate a range of topics keyed to the life, times and literary production of Tacitus and Suetonius. This evidence may be literary, documentary and/or material in nature, and will touch on political and/or military and/or socio-cultural history during the studied period. As outlined in the Assessment Task summary, this activity requires commitment, preparation and active involvement: (1) COMMITMENT: consistent presence in weekly online forums; (2) PREPARATION: pre-reading of prescribed source materials and relevant note-taking; (3) ACTIVE INVOLVEMENT: posts responding directly to stimulus questions and fellow student comments in weekly online forums. This Learning and Teaching Activity will take place in the online Learning Forums.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

Academic Honesty Policy http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

Disruption to Studies Policy http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html The Disruption to Studies Policy is effective from March 3 2014 and replaces the Special Consideration Policy.

In addition, a number of other policies can be found in the Learning and Teaching Category of Policy Central.

Assignment Submission and Extensions

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

Please see your unit on iLearn website for assignment submission instructions.

EXTENSIONS

Extension requests should be made as early as possible.

All assignments which are officially received after the due date, and where no extension has been granted by the course tutor, will incur a deduction of 5% for the first day, and 2% for each subsequent day including the actual day on which the work is received. Weekends and public holidays are included.

Extensions are granted only on grounds of illness or misadventure, and appropriate supporting documentation must be submitted. Work submitted more than 10 days after the due date, or the date after which an extension has been given, will not be accepted. If you are having problems completing an assignment, please contact the tutor as early as possible.

Grading and Plagiarism

UNIVERSITY GRADING POLICY

The grade a student receives will signify their overall performance in meeting the learning outcomes of a unit of study. Grades will not be awarded by reference to the achievement of other students nor allocated to fit a predetermined distribution. In determining a grade, due weight will be given to the learning outcomes and level of a unit (ie 800). Graded units will use the following grades:

ACADEMIC HONESTY/PLAGIARISM

Academic honesty is an integral part of the core values and principles contained in the Macquarie University Ethics Statement (http://www.mq.edu.au/ethics/ethic-statement-final.html). Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- All academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim.
- All academic collaborations are acknowledged.
- Academic work is not falsified in any way
• When the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

The link below has more details about the policy, procedure and schedule of penalties that will apply to breaches of the Academic Honesty policy.
