<tr>
<td>The purpose of this unit is to enable students to acquire research-based leadership skills and knowledge relevant to the process of organisational leadership. The unit encourages students to explore effective leadership theories and frameworks, and to develop skills in analysis and investigation that are necessary and that are required to undertake more advanced research. A solid understanding of concepts of work and organisation is a requirement for any advanced study of leadership theories. This unit provides students with essential learning experiences that develop the concepts and skills necessary for advanced research in leadership and management.</td>

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes

1. Critically analyse and explain key concepts and theories in leadership.
2. Identify and critically analyse key leadership issues in a global management context.
3. Understand contemporary, global leadership debates in relation to students’ own current and future leadership concerns.
4. Apply relevant leadership thought to resolve practical leadership issues/problems.

General Assessment Information

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

Reflexive journal

Due: 31/3 & 26/5 in the lecture

Weighting: 30%

Students will keep a reflexive journal throughout the course of their reflections on weekly sessions covered in class. The aim of the reflexive journal is to enable you to think about how the leadership subjects inform your leadership practice. Students will submit their work in two stages in week 5 and 11. Students will submit word processed hard copies of their work in class. Students are required to submit 1 page of A4 per week (as a minimum) of reflections.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Critically analyse and explain key concepts and theories in leadership.
- Apply relevant leadership thought to resolve practical leadership issues/problems.

- Apply relevant leadership thought to resolve practical leadership issues/problems.
Group presentation
Due: Between weeks 5 and 10
Weighting: 30%

Groups will be formed in week 2. Groups will give a presentation on the leadership practices of an organizational, global leader of their choice. Each group is required to present an overview of the particular leadership practices and debates pertaining to the leader of their choice. The groups should take into account the guidelines which will be provided in the sessions. Students will be required to submit a hard copy of their presentation slides and a 1 page summary of their presentation at the time of their presentation.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Critically analyse and explain key concepts and theories in leadership.
- Identify and critically analyse key leadership issues in a global management context.
- Understand contemporary, global leadership debates in relation to students’ own current and future leadership concerns.
- Apply relevant leadership thought to resolve practical leadership issues/problems.

Individual essay
Due: 2nd June 5pm
Weighting: 40%

This individually written essay of 2,000 words excluding references allows students to critically analyse current leadership theories and provide examples of their practical applications. The essay aims at assisting students in developing and demonstrating postgraduate level research skills including critical analysis and academic writing. Students are required to submit their essays through Turnitin on June 2.

Delivery and Resources

There is no recommended textbook for this subject.

Key recommended readings will be posted on iLearn.

Key research databases for your study of leadership and management include Ebsco host: Academic Search Elite and Business Source Premier. Also search the websites of well-known consulting organisations such as Watson Wyatt, PWC, Deloitte, DDI, Hewitt Associates etc.

To succeed in this unit, students are required to:

1. Attend classes and understand the material covered to be able to discuss this with their peers. Students are expected to participate in class.

2. Critically analyse the leadership debates through their coursework to show how it influences students’ own roles and careers. This is an essential requirement for all the assessment.

3. Students are expected to work individually and with their peers throughout the course.

4. Students must achieve an overall pass grade.

Technology Used and Required
Students are required to use various technology tools including word processing, Power Point, Turnitin and iLearn. The latter is a software tool used by Macquarie to manage teaching and learning practices: https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/. To log on, you must first obtain a log on password from IT services or the library then click through to BUS832. Please check this site each week for possible lecture slides and other announcements and material.

Timetable

The timetable for this unit can be accessed from this portal: http://timetables.mq.edu.au

Unit Schedule

This will be provided in the first session of the unit and posted on iLearn afterwards.
