Unit description
Drawing on both theoretical texts and works of fiction, this unit examines the critical application of key aspects of narrative theories to children's fiction. Topics include: types of narration, point of view and focalisation in narrative; beginnings and endings; narrative time; characterisation; theory of genres and modes; metafiction and experimental fiction.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes

1. Develop an understanding of and an ability to apply concepts employed in narrative theory in order to extend understanding of children’s fiction beyond the conventional elements of plot, character and theme.

2. Gain an understanding of the implications different narrative forms and processes have for readers.

3. Developed skills in applying the analytical resources available from narrative theory: cognitive narratology; the discourse-story-significance triad; point of view and focalization; structure and organization; genre and its implications for analysing literature; represented conversation in fiction.

Please write a major essay of approximately 3000 words which addresses one of the topics listed in the LIT 854 Hand Book.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Develop an understanding of and an ability to apply concepts employed in narrative theory in order to extend understanding of children’s fiction beyond the conventional elements of plot, character and theme.
• Gain an understanding of the implications different narrative forms and processes have for readers.
• Developed skills in applying the analytical resources available from narrative theory: cognitive narratology; the discourse-story-significance triad; point of view and focalization; structure and organization; genre and its implications for analysing literature; represented conversation in fiction.

Delivery and Resources

One two-hour seminar per week. The unit is delivered online for external students.

Set texts are listed in the LIT 854 Hand Book which is available on the LIT854 ilearn site.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

Academic Honesty Policy http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

Disruption to Studies Policy http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html The Disruption to Studies Policy is effective from March 3 2014 and replaces the Special Consideration Policy.

In addition, a number of other policies can be found in the Learning and Teaching Category of Policy Central.

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/support/student_conduct/

Results

Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au.

Penalties for late submission

Late submission of written work without prior approval and supporting documentation (eg. medical certificate) will attract a penalty of 2% per day (including weekends). If a student has a legitimate reason for being able to submit you work on time, for which documentation can be provided, they must contact the convenor to discuss an extension before the due date.

Word limits

Word limits must be observed. Written assignments which are more than 10% over or under the word limit will be penalised.

Student Support

Macquarie University provides a range of support services for students. For details, visit http://students.mq.edu.au/support/

Learning Skills

Learning Skills (mq.edu.au/learningskills) provides academic writing resources and study strategies to improve your marks and take control of your study.
