Unit description This unit is intended as an introduction to the field of educational psychology. The field of inquiry combines major theories from the disciplines of Psychology and Education, and applies these to the context of teaching and learning. The central focus is on human development. Development and learning are influenced by a large range of factors, such as the cognitive, personal, social (including language), emotional, and physical developments. In addition, social and cultural influences and the education setting play a role in learning.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- An insight into factors within the learner and their environment that play a role in human development.

Assessment tasks

- Written assignment
- On Line Multiple Choice Quiz
- Final Exam

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- An insight into factors within the learner and their environment that play a role in human development.
- Develop basic academic literacy skills in implementing a sustained and written argument.
- An understanding of the basic theoretical concepts in the field of educational psychology.
- Understanding of some applications of educational psychology in classroom contexts.
- Opportunity to develop the ability to explore educational ideas and issues through research and critical analysis
- Knowledge of a range of appropriate and engaging resources and materials to support students' learning

- The ability to critically reflect on relevant issues and terminology for pedagogy in teaching and learning.

Assessment tasks

- Written assignment
- On line low stakes quiz
- On Line Multiple Choice Quiz
- Final Exam

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- An insight into factors within the learner and their environment that play a role in human development.
- Develop basic academic literacy skills in implementing a sustained and written argument.
- Understanding of some applications of educational psychology in classroom contexts.
- Opportunity to develop the ability to explore educational ideas and issues through research and critical analysis
- Knowledge of a range of appropriate and engaging resources and materials to support students' learning
- The ability to critically reflect on relevant issues and terminology for pedagogy in teaching and learning.

Assessment tasks

- Written assignment
- On Line Multiple Choice Quiz
- Final Exam

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop basic academic literacy skills in implementing a sustained and written argument.
- Opportunity to develop the ability to explore educational ideas and issues through research and critical analysis
- Knowledge of a range of appropriate and engaging resources and materials to support students' learning

Assessment tasks

- Written assignment
- On Line Multiple Choice Quiz
- Final Exam

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop basic academic literacy skills in implementing a sustained and written argument.
- Opportunity to develop the ability to explore educational ideas and issues through research and critical analysis

Assessment task

- Written assignment
