Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Identify and reflect on the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.
- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Assessment tasks

- Class Participation
- Research Essay
- Final Examination

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Assessment tasks

- Class Participation
- Research Essay
- Final Examination

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.
