Unit description
This unit will enable students to attain the key legal skills (legal research, reasoning, and writing; applying precedent; statutory interpretation; and legal problem solving) and to acquire the foundational legal knowledge (Australia legal institutions; legal theory; comparative legal systems; parliamentary process; role of the judiciary) necessary for further study in law. This unit will challenge students to apply their skills and knowledge to examine a contemporary socio-legal issue through a collaborative group project. Students will also engage in reflective practice.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/
Learning Outcomes

1. Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
2. Apply principles of statutory interpretation and the doctrine of precedent to interpret primary legal sources (case law and legislation) for the purpose of deriving legal rules and principles
3. Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
4. Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources
5. Communicate effectively in both oral and written form to both legal and non-legal audiences
6. Consider, critique and recommend innovative solutions to contemporary legal problems in their broader social context
7. Collaborate effectively with other students in a respectful, collegial and inclusive manner
8. Identify and explain the broader philosophical, ethical and socio-political context of legal issues and problems
9. Define, describe and relate sources of legal norms in the Australian legal system (including private and public law, indigenous customary law, international law) and other legal systems in the world
10. Apply reflective practice to learning as law students and as future legal professionals

General Assessment Information

Unless otherwise noted or instructed by the Unit Convenor or your tutor, Assessment Tasks are due by 10pm on the Friday of the Week indicated.

This unit is graded on a Satisfactory (Pass) or Fail basis.

Each assessment task must be submitted by the due date indicated on the unit iLearn page (or otherwise directed by their tutor) and must receive a grade of ‘satisfactory’ in accordance with the rubric provided for that assessment in order to pass the unit.

In cases where students are afforded an opportunity to resubmit an assessment task, they will be required to reflect on and incorporate feedback provided by their tutor. Students may also be directed to undertake supplementary work or access learning supports provided by the University.

Students who fail to obtain a ‘satisfactory’ grade on a resubmission of any assessment task will be referred to the unit convenor. The Convenor will, at this point, either:

Unless a student has been granted a time extension under the University's Disruption to Studies Policy, any work (including resubmissions) submitted after the commencement of the formal exam period for that semester will be deemed late, not graded and result in a grade of 'Fail' being recorded for the unit.

Academic Honesty & Referencing

Due: Week 3
Weighting: 10%

These two multiple choice quizzes will require students to demonstrate:

- Understanding and application of principles of academic honesty; and
- Ability to follow the correct rules for citation (AGLC3).

Students must answer all questions correctly and can repeat the quiz until they achieve the required score.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
Core Skills Assessment

Due: Week 5
Weighting: 20%

This assignment will require students to demonstrate:

- understanding of principles of statutory interpretation; and
- the ability to apply them to interpret legislation for the purpose of deriving and constructing legal rules and principles
- the ability to clearly and concisely summarise a case;
- understanding of the doctrine of precedent; and
- the ability to interpret case law for the purpose of deriving and constructing legal rules and principles
- the ability to carry out basic legal research tasks, including finding and analysing relevant primary and secondary sources; and
- the ability to communicate effectively in a written form.

Students will be provided one opportunity to resubmit their work, taking account of feedback provided by their tutor. Resubmissions will be due by the end of Week 9.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
- Apply principles of statutory interpretation and the doctrine of precedent to interpret primary legal sources (case law and legislation) for the purpose of deriving legal rules and principles
- Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources
- Communicate effectively in both oral and written form to both legal and non-legal audiences
- Apply reflective practice to learning as law students and as future legal professionals

Legal Research Quizzes

Due: Week 6
Weighting: 10%

Complete five (5) online quizzes with a minimum grade of 70% on each.

1. The Constitution
2. Case Law
3. Domestic Legislation (NSW)
4. Domestic Legislation (Commonwealth)
5. HANSARD

Students must attempt each quiz by the due date (Week 6), but may reattempt as many times as often as required to attain the minimum grade. No further attempts may be made after the end of Week 13.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources

Hypothetical Problem

Due: Week 7
Weighting: 30%

In this assignment (1,000 words), students will solve a hypothetical problem in public law. Students will be required to demonstrate:

- the ability to analyse factual scenarios and identify relevant legal issues;
- the ability to understand and apply basic principles of legal problem solving and reasoning;
- the ability to carry out basic legal research tasks, including finding and analysing relevant primary and secondary sources;
- the ability to communicate effectively in a written form to a legal audience.

Students will be provided one opportunity to resubmit their work, taking account of feedback provided by their tutor. Resubmissions will be due by the end of Week 11.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
- Apply principles of statutory interpretation and the doctrine of precedent to interpret primary legal sources (case law and legislation) for the purpose of deriving legal rules and principles
- Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
• Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources
• Communicate effectively in both oral and written form to both legal and non-legal audiences
• Apply reflective practice to learning as law students and as future legal professionals

Law and Policy Project 1

Due: Week 8
Weighting: 20%

Using the wiki platform on the unit ilearn web page, students will publish a written submission (1,500 – 2,000 words) for their group project. Students will be required to demonstrate:

• the ability to apply them to interpret primary and secondary sources for the purpose of deriving and constructing legal rules and principles;
• the ability to engage creatively with contemporary legal problems in their social context and to propose innovate solutions;
• the ability to collaborate effectively in a time-sensitive, multi-stage project;
• the ability to communicate effectively in written form with a non-legal audience; and
• the ability to demonstrate their understanding of the broader philosophical, ethical and/or socio-political context of legal issues and problems.

Individual student contributions to the Group Project must be evidenced by meaningful posts recorded on the wiki (including submission of original text, editing, revision) and through online discussion using the Group’s allocated online Discussion Forum. Students may wish to include an annotation setting out division of tasks across the team.

Students who fail to contribute meaningfully to the group project may be required to undertake supplementary work or receive a grade of ‘unsatisfactory’ for this assessment task.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
• Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
• Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources
• Communicate effectively in both oral and written form to both legal and non-legal audiences
• Consider, critique and recommend innovative solutions to contemporary legal problems in their broader social context
Law and Policy Project 2

Due: Weeks 9-13
Weighting: 10%

Each group will be allocated 20 minutes to present their work followed by Q&A with feedback from their tutor. All students in the group will be required to demonstrate their ability to verbally communicate the outcomes of their research. Students who fail to contribute meaningfully to the group project may be required to undertake supplementary work or receive a grade of ‘unsatisfactory’ for this assessment task.

Note: Distance education students will commence their projects online prior to the residential school dates. They will be provided with an opportunity to meet for one hour at the end of Day 1 to coordinate their ‘work in progress’ presentations, which they will deliver in Day 2.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
- Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
- Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources
- Communicate effectively in both oral and written form to both legal and non-legal audiences
- Consider, critique and recommend innovative solutions to contemporary legal problems in their broader social context
- Collaborate effectively with other students in a respectful, collegial and inclusive manner
- Identify and explain the broader philosophical, ethical and socio-political context of legal issues and problems
- Define, describe and relate sources of legal norms in the Australian legal system (including private and public law, indigenous customary law, international law) and other legal systems in the world
- Apply reflective practice to learning as law students and as future legal professionals

When using the University's IT, you must adhere to the Acceptable Use of IT Resources Policy. The policy applies to all who connect to the MQ network including students.
Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
• Collaborate effectively with other students in a respectful, collegial and inclusive manner
• Apply reflective practice to learning as law students and as future legal professionals

Assessment task

• Academic Honesty & Referencing

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Apply principles of statutory interpretation and the doctrine of precedent to interpret primary legal sources (case law and legislation) for the purpose of deriving legal rules and principles
• Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
• Consider, critique and recommend innovative solutions to contemporary legal problems in their broader social context
• Identify and explain the broader philosophical, ethical and socio-political context of legal issues and problems
• Define, describe and relate sources of legal norms in the Australian legal system (including private and public law, indigenous customary law, international law) and other legal systems in the world

http://unitguides.mq.edu.au/unit_offerings/58086/unit_guide/print
Assessment tasks

• Core Skills Assessment
• Hypothetical Problem
• Law and Policy Project 1
• Law and Policy Project 2

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
• Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources

Assessment tasks

• Legal Research Quizzes
• Hypothetical Problem
• Law and Policy Project 1
• Law and Policy Project 2

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

• Consider, critique and recommend innovative solutions to contemporary legal problems in their broader social context

Assessment tasks

• Law and Policy Project 1
• Law and Policy Project 2
Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Communicate effectively in both oral and written form to both legal and non-legal audiences
- Consider, critique and recommend innovative solutions to contemporary legal problems in their broader social context
- Collaborate effectively with other students in a respectful, collegial and inclusive manner

Assessment tasks

- Core Skills Assessment
- Hypothetical Problem
- Law and Policy Project 1
- Law and Policy Project 2

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives; they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
- Collaborate effectively with other students in a respectful, collegial and inclusive manner
- Identify and explain the broader philosophical, ethical and socio-political context of legal issues and problems

Assessment tasks

- Law and Policy Project 1
- Law and Policy Project 2
Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Identify and explain the broader philosophical, ethical and socio-political context of legal issues and problems

Assessment tasks

- Law and Policy Project 1
- Law and Policy Project 2

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Apply reflective practice to learning as law students and as future legal professionals

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply principles of academic honesty and rules for correct legal citation (AGLC3)
• Apply principles of statutory interpretation and the doctrine of precedent to interpret primary legal sources (case law and legislation) for the purpose of deriving legal rules and principles
• Analyse factual problem scenarios and prepare a structured response using the HIRAC framework for legal problem solving
• Locate relevant primary and secondary sources through legal research using online databases, library resources and internet sources
