Unit description
This unit introduces students to the field of audio-visual translation, with the main focus on subtitling for different types of media, the semantics of audio-visual language transfer and recent developments in other modes such as audio description. Students will acquire basic subtitling skills as well as a theoretical knowledge of the field of audio-visual accessibility.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes
1. Demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms and principles in audiovisual translation, with an emphasis on subtitling.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the role of audiovisual translation products in enhancing accessibility in Australia and globally.

3. Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.

4. Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.

Semiotic analysis

Due: Week 3

Weighting: 10%

Film analysis: Díaz-Cintas & Remael 3.6.1 (2007:65)
Watch the opening scene of The snows of Kilimanjaro – link on iLearn

1) Summarize, in about 10 lines, what happens in the scene (location, characters, action)

2) Identify which channel supplies which information. Is there any overlap?

3) Discuss the narrative function of the music on the one hand, the close-ups, medium shots, long shots and editing (or cuts between shots) on the other.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms and principles in audiovisual translation, with an emphasis on subtitling.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the role of audiovisual translation products in enhancing accessibility in Australia and globally.

Practical subtitling 1

Due: Week 5
Weighting: 20%

Produce same-language English subtitles for any 5 minutes of the video clip provided in class. Subtitle as though you are subtitling for an audience who does not understand the source language (i.e. do not subtitle sound effects). The emphasis in this first practical assignment is on the following technical elements:

1) Correct cuing (subtitles appear when the dialogue begins) (40%)

2) Subtitle duration (subtitles are on screen long enough to allow reading) according to the following guidelines: (40%)

   1. 1 word = 1s
   2. 2-3 words = 2s
   3. full line=2.5s
   4. 1 line, 1 word = 2.8s
   5. 1.5 lines = 3s
   6. 2 lines =4-6s

3) Language (correct transcription and spelling (20%)

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.
• Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.

Practical subtitling 2
Due: Week 7
Weighting: 20%

1. Subtitle any 5 to 10 minutes of the second clip. (90%)
The marking grid provided in iLearn will be used for this assessment.

2. Write notes on at least 5 problems you encountered in creating the subtitles. These could relate to cultural aspects, semiotics, linguistic aspects or technical aspects. (10%)

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.
• Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.

Exam project
Due: 12 June
Weighting: 50%

Part 1: Intralingual subtitles (English to English) 60%
• Submit file in SubStation Alpha format with your surname, student number, film in the filename (e.g. KRUGER 1234567 Buffy). The subtitles will be assessed according to the guidelines on the evaluation grid.

Part 2: Analysis (20%)
• Write an analysis of the video you chose. The analysis should be between 1000 and 1500 words (about 2.5 to 4 pages) and should contain the following sections:
  a) Synopsis and semiotic analysis (5%)
  b) Analysis with a view to subtitling (5%)
  c) Specific examples (5%)
d) Examples from second mode (5%)

Submit file in Word format with your surname, student number, Analysis in the filename (e.g. KRUGER 1234567 Analysis)

Part 3: Second mode (20%)

Choose any one of the following three options:

3.1 SDH

Submit file in SubStation Alpha format with your surname, student number, film and SDH in the filename (e.g. KRUGER 1234567 Buffy SDH)

3.2 Interlingual (translation subtitles)

Submit file in Word format with your surname, student number, film and language in the filename (e.g. KRUGER 1234567 Buffy Korean)

3.3 AD

Submit file in SubStation Alpha format with your surname, student number, film and AD in the filename (e.g. KRUGER 1234567 Buffy AD).

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms and principles in audiovisual translation, with an emphasis on subtitling.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the role of audiovisual translation products in enhancing accessibility in Australia and globally.
- Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.
- Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of the role of audiovisual translation products in enhancing accessibility in Australia and globally.
- Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.
- Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.

Assessment tasks

- Semiotic analysis
- Practical subtitling 1
- Practical subtitling 2
- Exam project

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms and principles in audiovisual translation, with an emphasis on subtitling.
- Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.
- Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.
Assessment tasks

• Semiotic analysis
• Practical subtitling 1
• Practical subtitling 2
• Exam project

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms and principles in audiovisual translation, with an emphasis on subtitling.
• Demonstrate an understanding of the role of audiovisual translation products in enhancing accessibility in Australia and globally.
• Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.

Assessment tasks

• Semiotic analysis
• Practical subtitling 1
• Practical subtitling 2
• Exam project

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Select and apply appropriate AVT tools and techniques to produce acceptable subtitled audiovisual material.
• Use the appropriate hardware, software and aids to produce acceptable AVT products while also reflecting on matters of accessibility at a theoretical level, and self-assess solutions.

Assessment tasks
• Practical subtitling 1
• Practical subtitling 2
• Exam project

PG - Effective Communication
Our postgraduates will be able to communicate effectively and convey their views to different social, cultural, and professional audiences. They will be able to use a variety of technologically supported media to communicate with empathy using a range of written, spoken or visual formats.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome
• Demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms and principles in audiovisual translation, with an emphasis on subtitling.

Assessment tasks
• Semiotic analysis
• Exam project

PG - Engaged and Responsible, Active and Ethical Citizens
Our postgraduates will be ethically aware and capable of confident transformative action in relation to their professional responsibilities and the wider community. They will have a sense of connectedness with others and country and have a sense of mutual obligation. They will be able to appreciate the impact of their professional roles for social justice and inclusion related to national and global issues.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome
• Demonstrate an understanding of the role of audiovisual translation products in enhancing accessibility in Australia and globally.

Assessment tasks
• Semiotic analysis
• Exam project
