<tr>
<td>This unit focuses on music and movement experiences for children aged from birth to five years. Course materials explore research and theory on the role of music in children's lives, adopting a socio-cultural perspective on young children's development and early childhood curriculum. On-campus classes will provide practical experiences of music and dance from a range of cultures, including that of Australia, giving you the opportunity to explore creative approaches to music and dance for young children.</td>

Graduate Capabilities

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Increased understanding of the place of music and dance as forms of communication and meaning making in the lives of young children, their families, communities and cultures
- Knowledge of how young children develop skills and understandings related to music and movement
• Demonstrable skills in planning, implementing and evaluating engaging and creative music and movement experiences for children from birth to 5 years in accordance with the principles, practices and outcomes of the Early Years Learning Framework

Assessment task

• Assessment task 2A

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

  the principles, practices and outcomes of the Early Years Learning Framework

Assessment tasks
• Assessment task 1
• Assessment task 2A
• Assessment task 2B
• Assessment task 3

Commitment to Continuous Learning
Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes
• Increased understanding of the place of music and dance as forms of communication and meaning making in the lives of young children, their families, communities and cultures
• Increased confidence in participating in a range of games, dances, songs and other movement and music activities suitable for young children

Assessment task
• Assessment task 2B

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills
Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

Assessment tasks

• Assessment task 1
• Assessment task 2B
• Assessment task 3

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

• Demonstrable skills in planning, implementing and evaluating engaging and creative music and movement experiences for children from birth to 5 years in accordance with the principles, practices and outcomes of the Early Years Learning Framework

Assessment task

• Assessment task 1

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Increased understanding of the place of music and dance as forms of communication and meaning making in the lives of young children, their families, communities and cultures
