Unit description

This unit begins by providing students with an historical context of education methods practiced by Indigenous Australians prior to European occupancy. It also examines how Western education practices and policies have influenced the lives of Indigenous Australians since colonisation. The exclusion of Indigenous Australians from various public schools systems is explored in depth.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Students will: 1. Investigate the characteristics of traditional Indigenous Australian education and critically reflect on their relevance to today's society. 2. Analyse key government policies that have affected the lives of Indigenous Australians since 1788. 3. Evaluate the restrictions that prohibited Indigenous Australians from entering the public school system in the past. 4. Demonstrate a critical awareness of historical education strategies targeted specifically towards Indigenous Australians. 5. Examine how various forms of racism have impacted the education outcomes of Indigenous Australians. 6. Develop a strong theoretical basis to understand the historical injustices Indigenous Australians faced as a legacy of colonialism. 7. Critically engage with the perspectives of other students using the prescribed online technology.

General Assessment Information

Submission

The weekly activity will be submitted online.

The research essay will be submitted via turnitin (links provided in iLearn)

The teaching resource will be submitted either via email to convenor or mail (where applicable). It is best to contact convenor to work out the best way of submitting individual works, depending on formats used, etc.

Extensions

Extensions will be given in extenuating circumstances such as illness or death of family or friend. However, if you are having trouble submitting your work on time please contact the convenor to see if other arrangements might be made in difficult circumstances.

Penalties

There is a 2% per day (including weekends) penalty for work submitted after the due date, without an extension.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Weekly Online Activity	30%	Sunday of each week
Teaching Resource	30%	Week 7 25 April, 5pm
Research Essay	40%	10 June, 5 pm

Weekly Online Activity

Due: Sunday of each week

Weighting: 30%

Students are required to provide a response of approximately 250 words to the weekly online activity. There are 13 weeks in the semester and each week will be given a mark out of 10. The best 10 weeks will then be added together to give you a total mark out of 100. This will then be reduced to a percentage of 30% which will contribute to your final grade.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Students will: 1. Investigate the characteristics of traditional Indigenous Australian education and critically reflect on their relevance to today's society. 2. Analyse key government policies that have affected the lives of Indigenous Australians since 1788. 3. Evaluate the restrictions that prohibited Indigenous Australians from entering the public school system in the past. 4. Demonstrate a critical awareness of historical education strategies targeted specifically towards Indigenous Australians. 5. Examine how various forms of racism have impacted the education outcomes of Indigenous Australians. 6. Develop a strong theoretical basis to understand the historical injustices Indigenous Australians faced as a legacy of colonialism. 7. Critically engage with the perspectives of other students using the prescribed online technology.

Teaching Resource

Due: Week 7 25 April, 5pm

Weighting: 30%

This assessment requires students to develop a teaching resource for use in their school, organisation, workplace, or community, based on a theme covered in the unit.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Students will: 1. Investigate the characteristics of traditional Indigenous Australian education and critically reflect on their relevance to today's society. 2. Analyse key government policies that have affected the lives of Indigenous Australians since 1788. 3. Evaluate the restrictions that prohibited Indigenous Australians from entering the public school system in the past. 4. Demonstrate a critical awareness of historical education strategies targeted specifically towards Indigenous Australians. 5. Examine how various forms of racism have impacted the education outcomes of Indigenous Australians. 6. Develop a strong theoretical basis to understand the historical injustices Indigenous Australians faced as a legacy of colonialism. 7. Critically engage with the perspectives of other students using the prescribed online technology.

Research Essay

Due: 10 June, 5 pm

Weighting: 40%

Students will be required to choose one from three set research essay questions and provide a 4,000 word written response in the form of an essay.

The questions, as well as further instructions and rubrics for this exercise are on the iLearn site for this unit.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Students will: 1. Investigate the characteristics of traditional Indigenous Australian education and critically reflect on their relevance to today's society. 2. Analyse key government policies that have affected the lives of Indigenous Australians since 1788. 3. Evaluate the restrictions that prohibited Indigenous Australians from entering the public school system in the past. 4. Demonstrate a critical awareness of historical education strategies targeted specifically towards Indigenous Australians. 5. Examine how various forms of racism have impacted the education outcomes of Indigenous Australians. 6. Develop a strong theoretical basis to understand the historical injustices Indigenous Australians faced as a legacy of colonialism. 7. Critically engage with the perspectives of other students using the prescribed online technology.

Delivery and Resources

This unit is delivered externally. There are no on-campus sessions.

Most weeks are supported by a lecture of between 20-50 minutes, retrievable via the Echo system in iLearn. Beyond this, students will be required to keep up with the required reading for each week.

The main site of interaction and information for this unit is via iLearn which contains the following:

- Weekly thematic tabs
- Echo Lectures
- Assessment Guide
- Assessment Instructions
- Assessment Rubrics
- Bibliographies
- Resources,
- Notices
- Online Forum
