Unit description
This unit covers the broad sweep of ancient Greek history from the eighth century when Greeks began to settle ('colonize') outside Balkan Greece, through the extraordinary developments of the Late Archaic and High Classical periods, to the end of the fifth century when Athens lost her long war with Sparta. During these years Greeks were ruled by kings, aristocrats, oligarchs, tyrants, and (some of them) by themselves, in the world's first democratic systems. The unit focuses on political and economic development, the conflict with Persia, and the Peloponnesian War. It examines how literary, archaeological, and epigraphic sources are used to reconstruct the past.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/

Learning Outcomes

1. Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
2. Study and interpret physical data (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
3. Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
4. Research and write tightly focussed, analytical, and argumentative studies on topics relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
5. Present written work to a high standard, with relevant footnoting and accurate bibliographies
6. Relate ancient Greek historiography to broader issues in ancient and modern history

General Assessment Information

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE UNIT

To complete the unit successfully you need a minimum mark of 50% overall. You must attempt every piece of assessment or marks may be deducted (see 'Extensions and Penalties' below).

GRADES:

F: 0-49%  P: 50-64%  CR: 65-74%  D: 75-84%  HD: 85-100%

Grade descriptors may be found in a separate document on the unit’s website.

BLOGS

You are required to post five blog entries each of 150 words (+/- 10%) commenting on one significant aspect of set reading(s) which will be discussed in the relevant tutorials by Saturday, 11 pm of weeks 3, 5, 7, 9 & 11. Each blog entry must include a topic sentence, evidence and argument, and be fully referenced. Each blog is worth 10% of the total mark with only the best four counting, making a total of 40% of your assessment for the unit.

ONLINE QUIZZES

There are short online quizzes in weeks 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10, and one major online quiz in week 13. The minor quizzes will test you on material covered in the lectures and tutorials of the current and preceding week. (Tip: you will easily be able to answer the questions if you have listened to the lectures and read the set readings for each tutorial - they are not designed to trick you). Access to each quiz is through the unit’s website. You may take the quizzes at any time during the relevant week but you may take each quiz only once. All answers will be either right or wrong. Each minor quiz consists of 8 questions and is worth 4% of your mark making a total of 20% for all four. The major quiz will comprise 20 questions and will test you on material covered in the whole unit - it is worth 10%.

MAJOR ESSAY

The MAJOR ESSAY is due by 5pm Friday 3 June, 2016. It is worth 30% of your total mark for the unit.
A choice of essay questions will be provided by the mid-semester break and tutorial 5 is devoted to discussing the requirements for a good essay.

Your answer to the essay question should demonstrate extensive use of primary and secondary sources. Bibliographies provided give you a starting point for developing a reading list of secondary literature relevant to the essay topic. In order to locate further material on particular issues you should consult the footnotes and indices of modern works.

Your essay should be based on an analysis and discussion of primary (ancient) sources. Secondary literature should be used to aid you in your analysis and interpretation of the ancient sources and to place your interpretation within the context of previous scholarship. All opinions included in the essay, whether quoted directly or paraphrased, MUST be referenced according to the guidelines, Essay Presentation & Conventions: Style Guide, available online at http://mq.edu.au/about_us/faculties_and_departments/faculty_of_arts/department_of_ancient_history/teaching_materials/. Ensure you download the full version of the Essay Presentation Guide. Do not footnote lectures or include anything in footnotes except citations, and remember to include every reference you have actually used in your bibliography.

You must include a word count. Anything beyond the prescribed word limit will not be marked.

Marking criteria:
1. Argument and critical evaluation of evidence - 30% weighting
2. Structure and organisation - 20% weighting
3. Use of primary sources - 15% weighting
4. Use of secondary sources - 15% weighting
5. Grammar, style and spelling - 10% weighting
6. Referencing and bibliography - 10% weighting

RETURN OF WORK

Blogs: I plan to mark the blogs with feedback within a week of submission.

Quizzes: Results will be available as soon as the quiz closes.

EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

All due dates are firm. Permission to submit a late piece of work will only be granted in case of illness or other exceptional cases. Special approval for such late submissions must be sought in advance (where circumstances permit it). Late work will otherwise incur a penalty of 2% per day (including weekends), and failure to submit all five blogs may result in 5% of the total assessment being deducted from the aggregate mark for the blogs, unless there are special circumstances (normally illness or serious misadventure) and an extension of time has been granted by the Unit Convenor or the Head of Department.

On-line quizzes

Due: Weeks 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 13

Weighting: 30%

Do five minor quizzes and one major quiz spaced throughout the semester based on information provided in the lectures and tutorials in the preceding weeks. The minor quizzes will consist of eight multiple-choice or right/wrong questions and will each be worth four percent of the total assessment. The major quiz at the end of the semester will comprise 20 questions and be worth ten percent of the total assessment.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
- Study and interpret physical data (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
- Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC

Blog Posts

Due: Weeks 3, 5, 7, 9, 11

Weighting: 40%

Post five blog entries of 150 words per week (+/- 10%) commenting on one significant aspect of the reading(s) by Saturday, 5pm of weeks 3, 5, 7, 9 & 11. Each blog entry must include a topic sentence, evidence and argument, and be fully referenced. Each is worth 10% of the total mark with the best four counting.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
• Study and interpret physical data (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
• Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
• Research and write tightly focussed, analytical, and argumentative studies on topics relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
• Present written work to a high standard, with relevant footnoting and accurate bibliographies
• Relate ancient Greek historiography to broader issues in ancient and modern history

Major essay
Due: Week 12
Weighting: 30%

Write a full-length essay (2,000 words +/- 10% excluding footnotes and bibliography) and submit it through Turnitin. Topics will be provided before the mid-semester break.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
• Study and interpret physical data (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
• Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC

Delivery and Resources

Delivery modes
Internal (Day) and External

Lectures and tutorials
• Lectures: There are two lectures per week on Tuesdays 12-1 pm W5A T2 Theatre, and Thursdays 11-12 pm W5A T1 Theatre
Tutorials: There is one tutorial per week for Weeks 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. See the website for a list of tutorials all of which are on Tuesdays and Thursdays for one hour.

For current updates, times and classrooms please consult the MQ Timetables website: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au.

Lectures will be recorded and available via Echo 360.

One tutorial a week will be recorded and available via Echo 360. This is mostly intended for External students, though everyone is free to listen to it. Please note that the tutorial is given in an ordinary classroom and because of the limitations of the recording equipment it may be difficult to hear when students talk, though it should be possible to hear what the tutor says.

Attendance at tutorials is required for day students. If you are unable to go to your scheduled tutorial, go to one at a different time (no special permission is needed for this). External students must listen to the recorded tutorial. Tip: If you do not go to, or listen to the lectures and tutorials, you will find it difficult to answer the quizzes and successfully write the blogs.

READING LIST

The required course textbook is Terry Buckley’s Aspects of Greek History: A Source-Based Approach, 2nd edition, (London 2010), copies available in the university bookshop (some also available in the library).
You are also required to become familiar with the ancient literary source material which will be the basis of much of what we discuss. The most necessary are conveniently found in the following reasonably-priced editions:

Better versions with indices and explanatory appendices are the Landmark editions of both Herodotus and Thucydides edited by Robert B. Strassler:

Plagiarism and other dishonest behaviours are not allowed.

The nature of scholarly endeavour, dependent as it is on the work of others, binds all members of the University community to abide by the principles of academic honesty. Academic honesty is an integral part of the core values and principles contained in the Macquarie University Ethics Statement. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that: all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim all academic collaborations are acknowledged academic work is not falsified in any way when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

All academic and professional staff involved in learning, teaching and research are expected to display leadership in this area. One of the University’s objectives is to produce ethically and socially aware graduates, capable of applying the skills and knowledge they have developed at University to all aspects of their lives, as well as to their academic work. Academic dishonesty undermines the integrity of the University’s academic awards and assessment processes, and damages the University’s reputation. It also reduces the effectiveness of a student’s time at the University. Examples of some dishonest behaviours are deception, fabrication, plagiarism and sabotage.

DEFINITIONS

Deception: includes, but is not limited to, false indication of group contribution, false indication of assignment submission, collusion, submission of a work previously submitted, creating a new article out of an existing article by rewriting/reusing it, using the same data to form the same arguments and conclusion, presenting collaborative work as one’s own without acknowledging others’ contributions, cheating in an examination or using others to write material for examination.

Fabrication: includes, but is not limited to, creating fictitious clinical data, citation(s), or referee reports.

Plagiarism: Using the work or ideas of another person and presenting this as your own without clear acknowledgement of the source of the work or ideas. This includes, but is not limited to, any of the following acts: copying out part(s) of any document or audio-visual material or computer code or website content without indicating their origins; using or extracting another person's concepts, experimental results, or conclusions; summarising another person's work; submitting substantially the same final version of any material as another student in an assignment where there was collaborative preparatory work; use of others (paid or otherwise) to conceive, research or write material submitted for assessment; submitting the same or substantially the same piece of work for two different tasks (self-plagiarism).
Sabotage: includes, but is not limited to, theft of work, destruction of library materials.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

This Policy applies to all students and to staff of the University involved in learning, teaching and research.

The key principles of this policy are that the University will:

1. require all students and staff to undertake their academic work honestly
2. use a range of approaches to educate students and staff to practise honesty in their academic work and raise awareness of the importance of ensuring ethical behaviour with respect to research
3. take consistent and equitable action to manage dishonest student behaviours by: 1. communicating to students that any piece of academic work can be checked at any time using an appropriate process 2. implementing a common remedial and penalty framework across the University. 3. establishing and applying appropriate, consistent procedures for detecting and investigating alleged academic dishonesty 4. providing and communicating the appeal process
4. apply the appropriate processes of the Macquarie University Enterprise Agreement to manage alleged academic dishonesty by staff. The University will engage staff and students by:
   * using appropriate mechanisms to advise staff and students of the Policy
   * developing educational strategies to promote academic honesty
   * developing strategies that reduce opportunities for academic dishonesty
   * designing strategies to increase student engagement with their study, and their ability to submit their own work
   * reviewing these strategies at appropriate intervals.

COMPLIANCE AND BREACHES

The University may commence applicable disciplinary procedures if a person to whom this policy applies breaches this policy (or any of its related procedures).

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand and use primary literary sources (in English translation) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
- Study and interpret physical data (archaeological, epigraphic, numismatic) relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
- Read and evaluate modern academic studies (written in English) of Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
- Research and write tightly focussed, analytical, and argumentative studies on topics relating to ancient Greece in the 8th-5th centuries BC
- Present written work to a high standard, with relevant footnoting and accurate bibliographies

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills
Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation’s historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.
