Unit description

This unit will trace the major developments in sculpture, painting, and architecture of ancient Egypt from its predynastic beginnings through the Old, Middle, and New Kingdoms until the conquest of Augustus (3100–340 B.C.E.). It will examine the role and significance of Egyptian art in the context of history, religion, and cultural patterns and critique the main methods of analysing and interpreting ancient Egyptian visual culture.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and

3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;

Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;

Find, analyse and critique primary and secondary sources pertaining to the study of ancient Egyptian art and present the information in a written and oral format;

Interpret ancient Egyptian visual culture with appreciation and understand how the civilisation maintained its cultural identity, via artistic expression, throughout its long history;

Actively participate in group discussion; work with and respond to the views of Ancient History staff and other students in the unit in an oral form; show an ability to reflect on the learning experience.

General Assessment Information

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

All written assessment tasks must be submitted through the iLearn website. Please upload your assignment to the drop-box. Save your assignment as a pdf or a doc file (a pdf is best; please do not use docx). All assignments must include the following at the start: Student name; Student Number; Assessment Task Title or Question.

Any assignment submitted without these will not be marked.

Assignments will be returned via the 'Assignments' or 'Turnitin' tool on iLearn Unit site, and will contain feedback from the marker within them.

MARKING RUBRICS

To interpret and grade students' work against set criteria and standards, marking rubrics will be used in the unit via Turnitin. These will be supplied on the iLearn site in week 1.

RELEASE OF RESULTS

The convener will aim to return your assignments within 3 weeks. Results can be viewed via iLearn using the Gradebook tool.

EXAMINATIONS

There is no formal examination for this unit.

EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

- Extensions can only be granted in exceptional cases and may only be sought in consultation with the unit convenor and with support of documentary evidence. If you anticipate any difficulty in meeting assigned due dates then it is important that you contact the unit convenor and/or tutor as early as possible via the dialogue tool.

- Please avoid asking for extensions as missing deadlines complicates the work of markers and puts you behind. If you have to ask for an extension, request it BEFORE the deadline and not on the due date. Excuses such as 'Getting behind with your work' or 'I had other deadlines' do not count.

IMPORTANT PENALTIES TO BE APPLIED:

- Written assessment tasks submitted after the due date or the date after which an extension has been given and without submission of a Disruption to Studies request will not be accepted. A zero grade will be applied.
- Written assessment tasks submitted that are under or over the word length by more than 15% will be penalised with a 10% deduction. The marker will only read to the listed word limit, i.e. if the word limit is 1000 words they will stop reading at 1000 words (plus or minus up to 150 words).
- Written assessment tasks submitted without proper referencing, i.e. few or no page numbers or no bibliography, will be marked according to the Macquarie University Plagiarism Policy and the schedule of penalties, including one of the following: reduced mark for the assessment task; required resubmission with reduced maximum mark; issuance of a caution or an automatic fail.

EXTENSION REQUEST PROCEDURE

The granting of extensions is subject to the University's Disruptions Policy: http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html.

Disruption to Studies

If you require an extension, you will be required to submit a 'Disruption to Studies' Notification. Please follow the procedure below:

1. Visit <https://ask.mq.edu.au/account/forms/display/disruptions> and use your OneID to log in.
2. Select your unit code from the drop down list and fill in your relevant details. Note: A notification needs to be submitted for each unit you believe is affected by the disruption.
3. Click "Submit form".
4. Attach supporting documents by clicking 'Add a note/attachment', click 'browse' and navigating to the files you want to attach, then click 'submit note' to send your notification and supporting documents
5. Please keep copies of your original documents, as they may be requested in the future as part of the assessment process.

Please ensure that supporting documentation is included with your request. Notify your lecturer via your iLearn dialogue box if you are submitting a 'Disruption to Studies' Notification. Your request will be considered once all the documentation has been received. If you have issues, please contact your convenor via the dialogue tool immediately.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Online quiz	25%	Weeks 2-12
Student led discus. reflection	15%	Week 5 onwards

Delivery and Resources

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

This unit is comprised of 2 key elements:

1. 3 hours of face to face instruction (1-2 hour of lectures and 1 hour of student led discussion in tutorials);
 2. and individual study and participation.
- Students are expected to attend all classes, unless there are extenuating circumstances such as illness etc. A log will be taken to record attendance.
 - For lecture times and classrooms please consult the MQ Timetable website: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au>. This website will display up-to-date information on your classes and classroom locations.

iLearn will play a pivotal role throughout the session and it will be your central hub for information and instructions. Each week will be structured as follows:

BEFORE CLASS |

- Complete required readings.
- Complete an online quiz based on the required readings and prepare for the tutorial discussion.

DURING CLASS |

- Engage with your peers in your assigned teams and participate in the weekly tutorial discussion/activities.

AFTER CLASS |

- Write a short reflection in your learning journal on iLearn (time will be allocated at the end of class).

Students must achieve an overall mark of 50% or above to complete this unit satisfactorily.

REQUIRED AND RECOMMENDED TEXTS AND/OR MATERIALS

A list of the Required Readings will be provided on the unit's iLearn site each week. Some of the Required Readings will be from the textbook, while most will be available to download directly from the unit's iLearn site (additionally, some papers may also be available under Unit Readings).

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and 3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;
- Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;

- Find, analyse and critique primary and secondary sources pertaining to the study of ancient Egyptian art and present the information in a written and oral format;
- Actively participate in group discussion; work with and respond to the views of Ancient History staff and other students in the unit in an oral form; show an ability to reflect on the learning experience.

Assessment tasks

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Actively participate in group discussion; work with and respond to the views of Ancient History staff and other students in the unit in an oral form; show an ability to reflect on the learning experience.

Assessment tasks

- Student led discus. reflection
- Major research essay

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and 3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;

- Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;
- Find, analyse and critique primary and secondary sources pertaining to the study of ancient Egyptian art and present the information in a written and oral format;
- Interpret ancient Egyptian visual culture with appreciation and understand how the civilisation maintained its cultural identity, via artistic expression, throughout its long history;

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and 3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;
- Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and 3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;
- Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and 3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;
- Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Outline and recognise the major technical, stylistic and formal developments in 2 and 3-dimensional art from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods;
- Describe, analyse, interpret and evaluate ancient Egyptian artefacts dating from the Predynastic to Graeco-Roman periods using terminology and an approach appropriate to art historical examination;

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Actively participate in group discussion; work with and respond to the views of Ancient History staff and other students in the unit in an oral form; show an ability to reflect on the learning experience.

Assessment tasks

- Student led discus. reflection
