Unit description

This unit is concerned with the analytical techniques of international finance and investment. Topics include global flow of funds and international financial markets, foreign exchange markets, interest parity, arbitrage and currency speculation, purchasing power parity, real effective exchange, commodity swaps, short and long-term hedging of foreign currency risks, futures and options in currencies.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Understand and appreciate changes in the global financial market that impact on international financial management.

Demonstrate an understanding of new investment techniques, markets and risk management models.

Critically evaluate advanced concepts relating to foreign exchange, financial derivatives, transaction exposure, capital structure and international portfolio theory.

General Assessment Information

“It is the responsibility of students to view their marks for each within session assessment on iLearn within 20 working days of posting. If there are any discrepancies, students must contact the unit convenor immediately. Failure to do so will mean that queries received after the release of final results regarding assessment marks (not including the final exam mark) will not be addressed.”

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Assignment	25%	Friday 27 May 1pm
Class Test	15%	Week 6
Quizzes	10%	Refer to iLearn
Final Exam	50%	Saturday 11 June

Assignment

Due: Friday 27 May 1pm

Weighting: 25%

No extensions will be granted. Late tasks will be accepted up to 72 hours after the submission deadline. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

This assessment is composed of two parts.

In groups, students will be asked to prepare a presentation of one of the topics covered this semester. They are expected to be able to use real life examples of the content and explain in necessary detail. This is worth 5%

The groups will also be used to complete a group assignment based on an assessment of the financial management of a major Australian multinational. This is worth 20%.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and appreciate changes in the global financial market that impact on international financial management.
- Demonstrate an understanding of new investment techniques, markets and risk management models.

- Critically evaluate advanced concepts relating to foreign exchange, financial derivatives, transaction exposure, capital structure and international portfolio theory.

Class Test

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 15%

The class test will be held in lectures in week 6 and include written and or multiple choice style questions.

There will be no supplementary test.

Students who have applied for special consideration and it has been approved will receive a verbal examination by two staff members.

You are permitted ONE A4 page of paper containing reference material printed on both sides. The material must be handwritten. The page will not be returned at the end of the examination.

More details regarding the exam will be made on iLearn closer to the exam date.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and appreciate changes in the global financial market that impact on international financial management.
- Demonstrate an understanding of new investment techniques, markets and risk management models.
- Critically evaluate advanced concepts relating to foreign exchange, financial derivatives, transaction exposure, capital structure and international portfolio theory.

Quizzes

Due: Refer to iLearn

Weighting: 10%

There shall be 5 quizzes worth 1% each.

There will also be a additional 5% allocated for the creation of topic relevant questions in peerwise to prove their understanding of the material.

No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved. In this case the average score will be awarded.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and appreciate changes in the global financial market that impact on international financial management.

- Demonstrate an understanding of new investment techniques, markets and risk management models.
- Critically evaluate advanced concepts relating to foreign exchange, financial derivatives, transaction exposure, capital structure and international portfolio theory.

Final Exam

Due: Saturday 11 June

Weighting: 50%

To be eligible to pass the unit, a pass is required in the final examination.

You are permitted ONE A4 page of paper containing reference material printed on both sides. The material must be handwritten. The page will not be returned at the end of the examination.

The final exam will consist of an invigilated online exam.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and appreciate changes in the global financial market that impact on international financial management.
- Demonstrate an understanding of new investment techniques, markets and risk management models.
- Critically evaluate advanced concepts relating to foreign exchange, financial derivatives, transaction exposure, capital structure and international portfolio theory.
