Unit description

This unit is designed to improve reading skills in Japanese as well as to expand knowledge of various aspects of Japanese society, culture and literature. Assessment is based on assignments via iLearn. All instructions and reading materials are distributed via iLearn.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate a high degree of fluency in reading hiragana, katakana and the kanji learned in JPS102, JPS201 and JPS202 and an ability to deduce meaning from unfamiliar words.

Apply skills in cross-referencing across Japanese-English, English-Japanese and kanji dictionaries to clarify meaning and usage of a range of vocabulary.

Integrate knowledge of vocabulary, kanji and grammar to understand medium length passages covering a variety of topics and text types

Demonstrate understanding of written texts in a variety of text types including manga by identifying the main ideas and supporting details in responses which require identification, analysis, explanation, and comparison.

General Assessment Information

Supplementary Tests & Late Submissions

If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in sitting for tests (in class and online), contact the convener as soon as possible. A request for a supplementary test will be considered only in the case of serious illness or disruption. Assignments are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assignment task is late. No assignments will be accepted after assignments have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assignment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date.

Disruption to Studies

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Disruption to Studies Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Disruption to Studies Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply skills in cross-referencing across Japanese-English, English-Japanese and kanji dictionaries to clarify meaning and usage of a range of vocabulary.
- Integrate knowledge of vocabulary, kanji and grammar to understand medium length passages covering a variety of topics and text types

Assessment tasks

- Quizzes
- Examination

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate a high degree of fluency in reading hiragana, katakana and the kanji learned in JPS102, JPS201 and JPS202 and an ability to deduce meaning from unfamiliar words.

Assessment task

- Recordings

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate a high degree of fluency in reading hiragana, katakana and the kanji learned in JPS102, JPS201 and JPS202 and an ability to deduce meaning from unfamiliar words.

Assessment task

- Online Discussions

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a high degree of fluency in reading hiragana, katakana and the kanji learned in JPS102, JPS201 and JPS202 and an ability to deduce meaning from unfamiliar words.
- Apply skills in cross-referencing across Japanese-English, English-Japanese and kanji dictionaries to clarify meaning and usage of a range of vocabulary.

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a high degree of fluency in reading hiragana, katakana and the kanji learned in JPS102, JPS201 and JPS202 and an ability to deduce meaning from unfamiliar words.

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment tasks

- Recordings
- Quizzes
- Examination

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a high degree of fluency in reading hiragana, katakana and the kanji learned in JPS102, JPS201 and JPS202 and an ability to deduce meaning from unfamiliar words.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.
