Unit description

This distance education unit is designed for non-native speakers of Polish who already have a very basic knowledge of the Polish language and who wish to foreground and expand their Polish language skills at the introductory level before venturing onto the more difficult Intermediate program. It focuses on a variety of everyday essential topics to increase the students’ knowledge of the Polish language and builds upon PLH120 unit outcomes. Throughout the course students will be further developing speaking, listening, reading and writing skills, and will gain an overview of Polish grammar, which ultimately prepares them for PLH220/221 Intermediate Polish I and II. Much of the unit practice of listening skills and lexis is through oral exercises and activities. The unit uses a variety of delivery modes with a view to encouraging the students to take a proactive role in their learning. The delivery modes include: • printed materials, • online Audio Lectures (mp3 format), • online Course Notes, • scheduled Skype sessions, • on-campus session (voluntary course revision), • online course revision material, and • online mediated communications (Discussion Forum and Coffee Lounge).

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at http://students.mq.edu.au/student_admin/enrolmentguide/academicdates/
Learning Outcomes

1. Reading: Ability to understand short, simple texts on familiar topics which consist of high frequency everyday or job-related language; construct fairly limited meaning from reading materials on learned topics; predict the meaning of unfamiliar vocabulary by analysing word structure and using context clues; and to analyse simple narrative or descriptive passages on familiar topics.

2. Listening: Ability to follow speech that is carefully articulated with long pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning (e.g., basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment, weather); to follow oral instructions for speaking practice; to listen actively to basic conversations and respond appropriately; and to demonstrate comprehension of basic spoken discourse in audio segments.

3. Writing: Ability to write short, simple and comprehensible text to describe daily activities or past events by producing grammatically correct sentences in a short loosely organised paragraph; and to write a series of simple phrases and sentences incorporating a typical format for writing dates, adverbs of frequency, and simple connectors like “and”, “but” and “because”.

4. Spoken Interaction: Ability to engage in simple conversations in a variety of common and basic situations with reasonable ease; to manage routine exchanges with increased grammatical accuracy in predictable everyday situations to do with work and free time; and to participate in face-to-face conversations to describe daily events, activities and personal experiences.

5. Spoken Production: Ability to briefly describe studies, employment, weather, daily routines and basic people daily interactions through a series of short simple sentences.

6. Effective Communication: Ability to effectively participate in online sessions, on campus sessions and associated activities.

Delivery and Resources

Prescribed Texts

The course notes prescribed for PLH121 are: "ELEMENTARY POLISH FOR ENGLISH SPEAKING STUDENTS" by Edmund A. Ronowicz and Ronald F. Feldstein (the same course notes as for PLH120). The course notes are available in the online unit.

Recommended Texts

Apart from the above course notes, we recommend that each student should have three other books, also available from The University Co-op Bookshop:

1. A Pocket Polish-English, English-Polish Dictionary (other dictionaries are also available)
2. 301 Polish Verbs by Klara Janecki
3. Polish-An Essential Grammar by Dana Bielec
4. Discovering Polish-A learner’s Grammar by L. Madelska

Additionally, students will be sent CDs with lessons recorded in class and in the studio, as a substitute for live participation in class. They are also in your on line unit.

Online Unit

Login is via: https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/

Is my unit in iLearn?: http://help.ilearn.mq.edu.au/unitsonline/ to check when your online unit will become available.

The online unit includes: Student Handbook, Study Plan Schedule, Course Notes, Audio Lessons, Assignments 1 to 4, Key to the Exercises, Review On Campus, Key to Review On Campus, and Polish Educational Scholarship Forms.

You will also find links to Placement Tests on the Polish Studies website.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

• For technical support go to: http://mq.edu.au/about_us/offices_and_units/informatics/help
• For student quick guides on the use of iLearn go to: http://mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/guides.htm
Unit Schedule
A recommended study plan including assignment/test due dates called Study Plan Schedule can be located in your online unit.

Policies and Procedures
Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

- Academic Honesty Policy

- New Assessment Policy in effect from Session 2 2016

- Assessment Policy prior to Session 2 2016

- Grading Policy prior to Session 2 2016

- Grade Appeal Policy

- Complaint Management Procedure for Students and Members of the Public

- Disruption to Studies Policy

In addition, a number of other policies can be found in the Learning and Teaching Category of Policy Central.

Student Code of Conduct
Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct:
https://students.mq.edu.au/support/student_conduct/

Results
Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au.

Student Support
Macquarie University provides a range of support services for students. For details, visit http://students.mq.edu.au/support/

Learning Skills
Learning Skills (mq.edu.au/learningskills) provides academic writing resources and study strategies to improve your marks and take control of your study.
Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

Effective Communication
We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation’s historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.
