Unit description

This unit commences with an overview and critical analysis of the methodology of contemporary research in finance. The balance of the unit examines theoretical and empirical issues related to the pricing of securities in financial markets.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Develop advanced and integrated understanding of a complex body of knowledge in finance theory and practice

Acquire specialised cognitive and technical skills to independently solve complex problems in finance

Apply knowledge and skills to demonstrate autonomy, expert judgement, adaptability and responsibility as a practitioner of finance

General Assessment Information

GradeBook

It is the responsibility of students to view their marks for each within session assessment on iLearn within 20 working days of posting. If there are any discrepancies, students must contact the unit convenor immediately. Failure to do so will mean that queries received after the release of final results regarding assessment marks (not including the final exam mark) will not be addressed.

Feedback Prior to the Census Date

Self-assessment exercise question(s) will be released in Week 3 for feedback prior to the census date. Its answer will be also provided before the census date in Week 4.

Assessment criteria

Assessment criteria for all assessment tasks will be provided on the unit iLearn site.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Presentation	25%	Weeks 5-12
Written Assignment	25%	Refer to iLearn Announcement
Final Exam	50%	University examination period

Presentation

Due: Weeks 5-12

Weighting: 25%

Written Assignment with Oral Presentation: Students are allocated to present critiques and propose extensions to existing research papers during class. Refer to iLearn for further details.

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

Assignment must be submitted via both iLearn and AFIN705/805 Assignment Box in BESS.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop advanced and integrated understanding of a complex body of knowledge in finance theory and practice

- Acquire specialised cognitive and technical skills to independently solve complex problems in finance
- Apply knowledge and skills to demonstrate autonomy, expert judgement, adaptability and responsibility as a practitioner of finance

Written Assignment

Due: Refer to iLearn Announcement

Weighting: 25%

Students will write a literature review on an issue in corporate finance and banking and come up with new research questions in the area. Refer to iLearn for further details.

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

Assignment must be submitted via both iLearn and AFIN705/805 Assignment Box in BESS.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop advanced and integrated understanding of a complex body of knowledge in finance theory and practice
- Acquire specialised cognitive and technical skills to independently solve complex problems in finance
- Apply knowledge and skills to demonstrate autonomy, expert judgement, adaptability and responsibility as a practitioner of finance

Final Exam
