Unit description

This unit is for students interested in contemporary Europe and the European Union. The unit incorporates historical background and analysis of how these entities are related and differentiated. Developments in and theoretical perspectives on European integration, EU enlargement, member states and institutions, the 'Euro Crisis', key policy areas, important external actors, strategic challenges and questions of identity are among the other themes. Reading, thinking and engagement are required. At Masters level a high standard of analysis, research, referencing, organization and presentation is expected. The unit aims to enhance these skills and enable a broad and critical understanding of Europe and the EU in the world. There are opportunities for intensive inquiry across a range of topics. NB: This unit includes an invigilated exam held on campus in the designated exam period. External students also have to be available for this exam. Those outside Sydney may attend another approved examination centre in Australia.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Advanced knowledge of Europe, the European Union (EU), and its member states
Critical understanding of EU politics, economics and institutions
Developed capacities for research and analysis
Enhanced verbal presentation and debating skills
A specialised awareness of students' own selected essay and presentation topics

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Due
Seminar presentation	15%	on the day (variable)
Seminar participation	15%	weekly
research essay	35%	4 November, 12:00 noon
exam	35%	tba

Seminar presentation

Due: on the day (variable)

Weighting: 15%

15%: A 10-15 minute* presentation on a weekly topic. You can focus on one or more listed questions or formulate your own response, remaining within that week's theme. A one page written summary is to be submitted within seven days. Do not copy or paraphrase an internet commentary for the verbal or written versions of the presentation. The presentation itself, not the written summary, is evaluated. You can use power point or other technology, or speak to your notes.

*More time is available if desired.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Advanced knowledge of Europe, the European Union (EU), and its member states
- Critical understanding of EU politics, economics and institutions
- Developed capacities for research and analysis
- Enhanced verbal presentation and debating skills

Seminar participation

Due: weekly

Weighting: 15%

15%: Weekly seminar participation including in the designated 'debates'. This means some indication of reading, involvement with the topics, and engagement with the presentations of other students – i.e. contribute to a scholarly culture

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Advanced knowledge of Europe, the European Union (EU), and its member states
- Critical understanding of EU politics, economics and institutions
- Developed capacities for research and analysis
- Enhanced verbal presentation and debating skills

research essay

Due: 4 November, 12:00 noon

Weighting: 35%

35%: one 3000 word research essay (word count is text only - references and bibliography are additional)

Essay topics are listed in the Detailed Unit Guide at the unit iLearn site. There are 20 to choose from. Please do not alter the wording or invent new questions.

The due date is as late as possible. Please submit by this date as the exam may follow relatively soon after.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Advanced knowledge of Europe, the European Union (EU), and its member states
- Critical understanding of EU politics, economics and institutions
- Developed capacities for research and analysis
- Enhanced verbal presentation and debating skills
- A specialised awareness of students' own selected essay and presentation topics

exam

Due: tba

Weighting: 35%

35%: 3 hour exam

On campus or, for qualified students, at an approved examination centre in Australia.

Exam content could be drawn from the entire unit.

The exam will occur in the exam period. The date will be announced when known.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Advanced knowledge of Europe, the European Union (EU), and its member states
- Critical understanding of EU politics, economics and institutions
- Developed capacities for research and analysis
- Enhanced verbal presentation and debating skills

Delivery and Resources

Lectures will be delivered in person employing power point. Presuming that all technical means are functioning properly, audio will be available via Echo. An iLearn site has been set up.

Access will be made available early, possibly as soon as 11 July - check when you can.

At the iLearn site a more Detailed Unit Guide will be available.

Power point slides will be placed on the unit iLearn site, usually after the lectures, sometimes before. There will be links to turnitin on the unit iLearn site. Appropriate technology will (hopefully) be available for student presentations and other pedagogic or research purposes

Readings will be posted on iLearn. Some will be there from 11 July.

There is no set textbook for this unit. Students might find

Steve Wood and Wolfgang Quaisser The New European Union: Confronting the Challenges of Integration (Boulder: Lynne Rienner 2008) useful but it is not essential.

Material for Week One will be placed on the unit iLearn site BEFORE Week One. Please access and read before the Week One lecture and seminar.

Unit Schedule

S2 Day lectures are on Tuesdays at 14:00 to 15:30 starting 2 August. A seminar will follow from 15:30 to 17:00. Depending on enrolments, the seminar may be repeated from 18:00 to 19:30.

The schedule listed below indicates Tuesday dates for Semester 2, 2016

There is a quite a lot of reading for Week 1. This is because it is relevant for most of the unit. Some can be read later but please read at least some BEFORE THE WEEK ONE SEMINAR

Week One – 2 August: What is Europe? What is the European Union?

Week Two – 9 August: European Union Enlargement

Week Three – August 16: Foreign Policy, Security, Defence

Debate #1: Is the EU a military power/will it become one/does it need to be?

Week Four – August 23: Economy and Crisis

Debate #2: Will the Euro survive; can the EU survive without the Euro?

Week Five – August 30: Europe’s Refugee/Migrant Crisis

Week Six – September 6: Normative Power Europe?

Debate #3: Is the EU a ‘normative power’? How far does its normative agenda extend?

Week Seven - September 13: Energy and Environmental Challenges

MID-SEMESTER BREAK September 19th to 30th

Week Eight – October 4: Transatlantic relations: The EU and the USA

Week Nine – October 11: The EU and the Post-Soviet space

Week Ten – October 18: The EU and Turkey

Week Eleven – October 25: The EU and other actors: Africa, the Middle East, China

Week Twelve - November 1: no lecture or seminar – more time to finish and submit essays

RESEARCH ESSAY DUE: November 4, 12:00 noon - Date is as late as possible - no extensions

Exam – in the exam period (precise date and time to be announced)

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

Academic Honesty Policy http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/support/student_conduct/

Results

Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit <ask.mq.edu.au>.

Plagiarism – read this very, very carefully

Plagiarism is more trouble than it is worth. It is unscholarly, unethical, unfair and illegal. It will waste your tutor's and/or convenor's time and ultimately your own. You will achieve far better outcomes by avoiding it. Do not do it. At Master's level there are no excuses whatsoever. If you plagiarise do not claim after the fact that you did not understand what it was. More info at: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

In addition to your hard copy submission, to further encourage good scholarship and accuracy in referencing, submit essays electronically to the Turnitin website which can be linked to via ilearn.
