Unit description

This unit has two components. The first introduces students to the principles, tools and techniques of acting as a trusted business advisor. This component builds on prior knowledge of internal controls, information systems, compliance and business strategy, and applies these skills in a real-world setting. The second component examines the framework and techniques that are used to prepare general purpose financial reports for companies, and in particular the techniques used to prepare the consolidated financial statements for a corporate group. This component builds on first and second year financial accounting units and provides students with the technical accounting knowledge to prepare and use company financial statements. Political and ethical issues surrounding recent financial reporting controversies are also considered. Both components of the unit develop graduate capabilities centred on higher order analysis and effective communication skills.

There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Disruption to Studies is made and approved.

Estimated student workload

Part 1: Students are expected to spend approximately 24 hours on this task. (Much of the material will have been prepared by completing tutorials 1-6).

Part 2: Students are expected to spend approximately 16 hours on this task.

The Tutor will assess three (3) out of the twelve (12) submitted weekly homework. The best two (2) out of the marked three (3) collected weekly homework will be recorded ($2\% \times 2 = 4\%$).

Submission

See the ACCG308 iLearn webpage for details.

Extension and penalties

No extensions will be granted but a successful Disruption to Studies application would mean that a later assignment would be collected instead.

Estimated student workload

Students should spend approximately 3 hours on each assignment.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Examine the nature of accounting for business combinations in Australia.
- Prepare consolidated financial statements and account for associated companies in accordance with Australian standards.
- Critically evaluate accounting theories and issues underlying corporate reporting.

Submission

You MUST sit the class test in your registered tutorial.

Extension and penalties

No extensions will be granted but a successful Disruption to Studies application would mean that a supplementary class test could be granted.

Estimated student workload

Students should spend approximately 6 hours on preparation for this test.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Examine the nature of accounting for business combinations in Australia.
- Prepare consolidated financial statements and account for associated companies in accordance with Australian standards.
- Critically evaluate accounting theories and issues underlying corporate reporting.

Final examination

Due: University examination period

Weighting: 55%

A 2.5 hours closed-book final examination will be held during the University Examination period. ACCG308's final examination is designed to test you against the learning objectives of the unit and will cover all materials covered during Module 2 of the unit. Details regarding the form and scope of ACCG308's final examination will be provided to you during the final lecture. In the meantime you should be aware that the best preparation for the final exam is as follows:

- Attend lectures and take notes - what are the main points the lecturer has made?
- Complete the required readings from the textbook each week
- Attend all tutorials
- Complete independent solutions to tutorial discussion questions, exercises and problems
- Form study groups at the beginning of session
- Use the assessed coursework to monitor your own progress against the unit learning objectives. A low score on an assessed coursework is a signal that you need to do more work on certain topics
- Check your solution to the tutorial assignments against the 'self-study solutions' that are available on iLearn
- Use the consultation times whenever you need extra help, not just before the exam

Formal examination conditions apply e.g. Dictionaries are not permitted; Non-programmable calculators with no text retrieval capacity are allowed, etc. The purpose of the final examination is to provide assurance that: i) learning acquired through this unit belongs to the student; and ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam.

Submission

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Timetable. The timetable will be available in Draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in Final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that they have ascertained the room number for their exam before the exam day. <https://iexams.mq.edu.au/timetable>

You are advised that it is Macquarie University policy not to set early examinations for individuals or groups of students. All students are expected to ensure that they are available until the end of the teaching session, that is, the final day of the official examination period.

The Macquarie university examination policy details the principles and conduct of examinations at the University. The policy is available at:

<http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/examination/policy.htm>

Extension and penalties

Students who do not sit the final examination on the scheduled date and time specified in the University examination timetable will be awarded a mark of zero (0) for the final examination, except for cases in which a Disruption to Studies Notification is made and approved. If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Disruption to Studies process, this examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty. The Supplementary Examination will be of a similar format to the final examination. A student may withdraw their Disruption to Studies Notification up to the point where the determination of whether it is Serious and Unavoidable has been made. After this determination, the student may not withdraw the Disruption to Studies Notification and must submit themselves to partake in the Supplementary Examination.

Students are advised to familiarise themselves with the University's Disruption to Studies Policy available at http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html.

Estimated student workload

Students should spend approximately 21 hours on preparation for this final exam.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Examine the nature of accounting for business combinations in Australia.
- Prepare consolidated financial statements and account for associated companies in accordance with Australian standards.
- Critically evaluate accounting theories and issues underlying corporate reporting.

- There are two components in this unit and the teaching scheme is different for each.

- Module 2 (Leisa Henness), Corporate Accounting (weeks 7 to 13), has 2 hour lectures per week face-to-face live in a lecture theater, plus tutorials.
- Tutorials for both components are one hour per week face-to-face, starting in Week 2.
- The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at:
<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

Timetable for face to face lectures (weeks 7 to 13)

|------------|-------------|-------------------------|
| Monday | 8 - 10 am | W6D Lotus Theatre |
| Monday | 6 - 8 pm | C5C Collaborative Forum |

Timetable for tutorials

ACCG308 also requires students to attend a weekly small group tutorial of one-hour duration. The maximum number of students in each group is thirty.

Tutors will record attendance each week. You must attend at least 9 of the 12 tutorials in order to complete satisfactory coursework requirements for this unit. For this purpose we do not accept medical certificates for missed tutorials; it is up to you to organise yourself to come to at least nine tutorials.

Tutorials begin in Week 2.

Tutorial places have been allocated by the University's on-line enrolment system. Most tutorials are already full. If you do not already have a tutorial time, then you must enrol on-line as soon as possible.

Due to the large number of students enrolled in ACCG308, changes to tutorial times are managed by the on-line enrolment system. It is not necessary to contact members of staff about tutorial changes. On-line enrolment changes will be shut down at the end of Week 2 so all changes must be made by then.

You can only attend and sit for the class test or hand up tutorial homework in your registered tutorial.

Prizes

The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants Prize is awarded to the best student in the unit ACCG308 Corporate Accounting and Reporting.
