Unit description

This unit examines the laws of the People's Republic of China with a focus on commercial law from both an international and national perspective. China's Five Year Plans both past and present are crucial to understanding how China has developed and are explored in detail in this unit. Undertaking business in China by overseas individuals and entities is a complex and obstacle filled endeavour which this unit addresses in the various modules. It explores major changes to labour, company and foreign investment laws. China, the second largest economy in the world, has to address the downside of production exhibited through the environmental degradation of its air quality, water and waste. As these issues and that of energy production are the focus of China's development programmes for the twenty-first century they are examined in the latter part of this unit.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Recognise and distinguish the link between China's Five Year Plans and its economic and legal direction and the importance of guanxi as it operates in Commercial Law in China.

Identify and explain the characteristics and principal elements of Chinese commercial law as it operates in China's civil law system.

Critique issues that arise in Chinese commercial law.

Carry out effective legal research relevant to the Chinese commercial legal system.

General Assessment Information

Class Participation

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 20%

Weekly attendance of tutorial classes is compulsory. A roll will be taken each week. A student who is absent for a tutorial will be considered as not participating in that tutorial. Students must prepare in advance for the tutorials.

Throughout this Unit, tutorial class activities (case studies, simulations and reflective activities) are based on a story called The Shanghai Story where different events occur and numerous characters are introduced. The Shanghai Story is split into episodes so that each week a new episode together with tutorial questions will be released on iLearn.

The main criteria upon which class participation is assessed are: students' preparation, understanding of the materials, depth of arguments, and presentation skills (detailed explanations are provided on the iLearn site of the unit).

Estimated Student Workload (outside class time)

On average, 1.5 - 2.5 hours per week from Week 1 to Week 13.

Class Test

Due: (Unless other wise announced on iLearn) 13 September 2017

Weighting: 30%

Criteria for assessment are: students' understanding of the materials, knowledge, and ability to analyse and evaluate issues concerning the topics covered in the unit for the test (detailed explanations of the assessment criteria provided on the iLearn site of the unit).

It is an Open Book test. It is a test with short-answer questions. Information about the Class Test (including materials allowed to be brought to the Class Test and the syllabus of the Class Test) will be announced in the Lecture in Week 4 (23 August 2017).

The Class Test is a 60-minute test. It will be held in Week 7 (unless otherwise announced on iLearn, during the time for the Lecture on 13 September 2017 Wednesday).

Unless otherwise announced on the iLearn site of this unit, students are expected to present for the Class Test at 8:30 a.m. on 13 September 2017 at the venue for the BUSL388 lecture.

The only exception to not sitting the Class Test at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances, students may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration under the University's Disruption to Studies Policy, which is available at: http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html. If a Supplementary Test is granted, the Supplementary Test will be scheduled by the Unit Convenors.

Feedback will be provided via iLearn and/or in Lecture(s).

Estimated Student Workload (outside class time)

On average, 2 hours per week from Week 1 to the date of the Class Test in Week 7.

Assignment

Due: 6 November 2017 (4:00 p.m.)

Weighting: 50%

The Assignment is research based. Students will not be able to rely simply on the required and/ or recommended reading materials for classes. Students will be expected to conduct their own research. The Assignment is a task for each individual student. Collective or collaborative work is NOT ACCEPTABLE.

The word length (for the different parts of the Assignment, if any) will be stated in the Assignment Instructions.

The Assignment Instructions (containing the question(s) and/or topic(s)) will be posted on iLearn in Week 5.

Criteria upon which the Assignment is assessed are: the contents, structure, presentation, and (if required) referencing (footnoting and bibliography) of the Assignment which show the students' understanding of the materials, the depth of arguments and critique, the thoroughness of legal research, and adequacy of referencing (detailed explanations are provided on the iLearn site of this Unit).

Students must hand in/submit the Assignment before 4:00 p.m. on 6 November 2017.

Students will need to submit the Assignment electronically via TURNITIN on the iLearn site of this unit before the deadline described above. Do NOT submit via TURNITIN more than once. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that work is submitted correctly prior to the due date. Only Turnitin records will be taken as records of submission. Multiple submissions via Turnitin are NOT POSSIBLE in this unit. Originality reports are NOT made available to students to view and check their work. Please refer to these instructions on how to submit your assignment through Turnitin. Should you have questions about Turnitin or experience issues submitting through the system, you must inform your unit coordinator immediately. If the issue is technical in nature, you may also lodge OneHelp Ticket or refer to the IT help page. It is the responsibility of the student to retain a copy of any work submitted. Students must produce these documents upon request. Copies should be retained until the end of the grade appeal period each term. In the event that a student is asked to produce another copy of work submitted and is unable to do so, they may be awarded zero (0) for that particular assessment task.

In view of the time given to students to complete the Assignment, no extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission -20% penalty). For example, if the Assignment is worth 50 marks, a student is 23 hours late in submission and (before penalty) this student's mark is 30, the penalty will be a deduction of 5 marks (50 marks x 10% = 5 marks) (i.e. this student will obtain 25 marks for the Assignment). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for disruption of studies is made and approved.

Estimated Student Workload (outside class time)

On average, 3 - 4 hour per week from Week 5 to 6 November 2017.

In addition, a number of other policies can be found in the Learning and Teaching Category of Policy Central.

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mg.edu.au/support/student conduct/

Results

Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.m q.edu.au.

Academic Honesty

The nature of scholarly endeavour, dependent as it is on the work of others, binds all members of the University community to abide by the principles of academic honesty. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- · all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim
- all academic collaborations are acknowledged
- academic work is not falsified in any way
- when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

Further information on the academic honesty can be found in the Macquarie University Academic Honesty Policy at: http://www.mg.edu.au/policy/docs/academic honesty/policy.html.

Grades

Macquarie University uses the following grades in coursework units of study:

- · HD High Distinction
- · D Distinction
- · CR Credit
- P Pass
- F Fail

Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading are contained in the Macquarie University Grading Policy which is available at:http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/grading/policy.html.

All final grades in the Department of Accounting and Corporate Governance are determined by a grading committee and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Coordinator.

Students will be awarded one of these grades. The final grade that is awarded reflects the corresponding grade descriptor in the Grading Policy.

To pass the unit, the students need an overall mark of 50%.

Grading Appeals and Final Examination Script Viewing

If, at the conclusion of the unit, you have performed below expectations, and are considering lodging an appeal of grade and/or viewing your assignment please refer to the following website which provides information about these processes and the cut off dates in the first instance. Please read the instructions provided concerning what constitutes a valid grounds for appeal before appealing your grade: http://www.businessandeconomics.mq.edu.au/new_and_current_students/undergraduate_current_students/how_do_i/grade_appeals/.

Disruption to Studies Policy

The University is committed to equity and fairness in all aspects of its learning and teaching. It recognises that students may experience disruptions that adversely affect their academic performance in assessment activities. A Disruption to Studies policy exists to support students who experience serious and unavoidable disruption. The policy is available at: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html.

Student Support

Macquarie University provides a range of support services for students. For details, visit http://students.mq.edu.au/support/

Learning Skills

Learning Skills (mq.edu.au/learningskills) provides academic writing resources and study strategies to improve your marks and take control of your study.

IT Help

For help with University computer systems and technology, visit http://www.mq.edu.au/about_us/ offices_and_units/information_technology/help/.

When using the University's IT, you must adhere to the Acceptable Use of IT Resources Policy. The policy applies to all who connect to the MQ network including students.

Access to all student computing facilities within the Faculty of Business and Economics is restricted to authorised coursework for approved units. Student ID cards must be displayed in the locations provided at all times.

Students are expected to act responsibly when using University IT facilities. The following regulations apply to the use of computing facilities and online services:

- Accessing inappropriate web sites or downloading inappropriate material is not permitted.
- Material that is not related to coursework for approved units is deemed inappropriate.
- Downloading copyright material without permission from the copyright owner is illegal, and strictly prohibited. Students detected undertaking such activities will face disciplinary action, which may result in criminal proceedings.

Non-compliance with these conditions may result in disciplinary action without further notice.

Students must use their Macquarie University email addresses to communicate with staff as it is University policy that the University issued email account is used for official University communication.

Consultation is not available via email or telephone.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and distinguish the link between China's Five Year Plans and its economic and legal direction and the importance of guanxi as it operates in Commercial Law in China.
- Identify and explain the characteristics and principal elements of Chinese commercial law as it operates in China's civil law system.
- Critique issues that arise in Chinese commercial law.
- · Carry out effective legal research relevant to the Chinese commercial legal system.

Assessment tasks

- Class Participation
- · Class Test
- Assignment

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

Changes from Previous Offering

The main change since the last offering of this Unit (S2, 2016) are:

- 1. "Bilateral Trade Agreements" has been added as a topic to be covered.
- 2. There are adjustments in the order of the topics for the lectures and the tutorials.
- 3. An Essay Writing Workshop will be held in a tutorial.

Research and Practice, Global and Sustainability

Research and Practice

- 1. This unit uses research by Macquarie University researchers:

Global and Sustainability

This unit addresses global and sustainability issues as direct areas of study and/or as necessary implications arising from the materials, assessment and academic discussion and debate in classes. We promote sustainability by developing ability in students to research and locate information within the Chinese law discipline. We aim to provide students with an opportunity to obtain skills which will benefit them throughout their career. The global contexts of this unit are found in the contents of the unit (as it is a China Trade and Investment Law unit), including the contents of the lectures, the tutorials and its assessments tasks.
