Unit description

The aim of this unit is to extend knowledge of current theories, research and practice relevant to the teaching of literacy in multicultural contexts. The emphasis is on learners of all ages from diverse social and cultural backgrounds, including those who are experiencing reading and writing difficulties. It is therefore relevant to the teaching of students using English as a second language.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- To understand the nature of second language acquisition
- To understand the cultural and social context of language learning
- To understand Australian literacy contexts
- Be able to use some key terms used in literacy in a multicultural society
- Understand the nature of reading and writing difficulties in students from both ESL and English speaking backgrounds
- Demonstrate strategies to support all learners in literacy success
- Appreciate issues of responsibility for equity in literacy teaching

General Assessment Information

When preparing your assignments, it is essential that:

- Students regularly save a copy of all assignments before submission,
- Unless there are exceptional circumstances, no assessment will be accepted after the date that the assessment has been returned to other students.
- If an assessment is considered to be below passing standard, another staff member on the unit will provide a second opinion. No failed assessment may be re-submitted.

Please follow these guidelines when you submit each assignment:

- Allow a left and right-hand margin of at least 2cm in all assignments.
- Please type all assignments using 12-point font and 1.5 spacing.
- All assessments must be submitted through Turnitin in .doc or .pdf format for submission.
- It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that all assessments are successfully submitted through Turnitin.
- Faculty assignment cover sheets are NOT required.

Draft Submissions & Turnitin Originality Reports

- Students may use Turnitin's Originality Report as a learning tool to improve their academic writing if this option is made available in the Unit.

Final Submissions

- Students are responsible for checking that their submission has been successful and has been submitted by the due date and time.
- Do not contact staff asking them to check your submission.
- Late submissions due to last minute technical difficulties may incur a lateness penalty.
- Your assignment will be marked based on what is received – any omissions will not be accepted after your submission. Please check very carefully.

Please note:

GRADES for TASKS will be released through Grade Mark online in iLearn. An announcement will be made when your Grades and Comments are available.

Essay	35%	No	week 7
ESL literacy strategies	35%	No	week 9
exam	30%	No	exam period

Essay

Due: week 7

Weighting: 35%

Ways of seeing Language.

Language can be seen as a problem, a right, or a resource. What attitudes may be embedded in the subconscious assumptions of teachers? What is my experience and attitude?

Reflect on your understanding of both theoretical and practical aspects of one or two of the 3 ways of seeing language, in multicultural/multilingual classrooms, globally and locally. Include reflection on your intercultural experience and attitude to language diversity.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- To understand the nature of second language acquisition

- To understand the cultural and social context of language learning
- To understand Australian literacy contexts
- Appreciate issues of responsibility for equity in literacy teaching

ESL literacy strategies

Due: week 9

Weighting: 35%

You and a partner are conducting professional development for a school staff. You must explain to the staff in 10 minutes the literacy issues faced by ESL students in one Stage only, across the curriculum at that particular school. You suggest a range of ICT tools for differentiation and literacy support.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- To understand Australian literacy contexts
- Be able to use some key terms used in literacy in a multicultural society
- Understand the nature of reading and writing difficulties in students from both ESL and English speaking backgrounds
- Demonstrate strategies to support all learners in literacy success

exam

Due: exam period

Weighting: 30%

a 2hour exam assessing content knowledge and engagement with selected issues.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Be able to use some key terms used in literacy in a multicultural society
- Understand the nature of reading and writing difficulties in students from both ESL and English speaking backgrounds
- Appreciate issues of responsibility for equity in literacy teaching

Delivery and Resources

Delivery : Teaching and learning is delivered through two weekly lectures which are recorded on ECHO 360, and one weekly tutorial. External students must attend two one-day on-campus days.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate strategies to support all learners in literacy success

Assessment task

- ESL literacy strategies

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- To understand the nature of second language acquisition
- To understand the cultural and social context of language learning
- To understand Australian literacy contexts
- Be able to use some key terms used in literacy in a multicultural society
- Demonstrate strategies to support all learners in literacy success

Assessment tasks

- ESL literacy strategies
- exam

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- To understand the cultural and social context of language learning
- Understand the nature of reading and writing difficulties in students from both ESL and English speaking backgrounds
- Demonstrate strategies to support all learners in literacy success
- Appreciate issues of responsibility for equity in literacy teaching

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- ESL literacy strategies
- exam

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand the nature of reading and writing difficulties in students from both ESL and English speaking backgrounds
- Demonstrate strategies to support all learners in literacy success

Assessment task

- ESL literacy strategies

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- To understand the cultural and social context of language learning
- Appreciate issues of responsibility for equity in literacy teaching
