Unit description

Leadership begins with knowing who you are. In this unit, students will be introduced to tools for self-reflection. Students will examine methods, skills, and strategies that will help them achieve career objectives. This unit also examines leadership theories, traits and behaviours and will provide students with discipline specific knowledge and skills, as well as the opportunity to conduct a comprehensive self-analysis. Outcomes from this unit will help students understand themselves and the foundations of leadership.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Explain key concepts and theories in leadership
- Recognise change processes and impediments to change
- Apply self-management techniques to better manage stress
- Formulate career plans

General Assessment Information

Attendance will be taken in class each week

If you are not able to attend class, please email the Unit Convenor prior to class indicating your intended absence.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

This unit is comprised of:

13 x 2 hour lectures

12 x 1 hour tutorials commencing week 2

The timetable for classes can be found on the University website: <http://timetables.mq.edu.au>

Attendance will be taken in class. Attendance in class will allow the student to gain the maximum benefit. It is expected that all students will interact and engage in the class environment.

Prescribed Text

There is NO prescribed text for this unit. Readings and other materials will be made available via iLearn and the Macquarie University Library website: <http://www.mq.edu.au/about/campus-services-and-facilities/library>

Note:

It is imperative that students keep abreast of current developments both in Australia and abroad via the public and popular media in respect to leadership. At the beginning of each lecture, students will be required to participate in a discussion of the preceding week's newsworthy items.

Technology Used and Required

Students will need access to a personal computer and to be familiar with a web browser to access the unit web page. Students are also required to access the companion website which accompanies the text. Students are expected to utilise the library resources when preparing their essays and action learning video.

Unit web page

The web page for this unit can be found at: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>

Consultations

Consultation hours are as listed or by appointment.

Successful Completion of Unit

In order to complete this unit, students must obtain a total mark of 50% or higher.

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain key concepts and theories in leadership
- Recognise change processes and impediments to change
- Apply self-management techniques to better manage stress
- Formulate career plans

Assessment tasks

- Self Reflective Journal
- Action Learning presentation

Learning and teaching activities

- The focus of this unit is on students developing and extending their own understanding of themselves and their interaction and behaviour with others.

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain key concepts and theories in leadership
- Recognise change processes and impediments to change
- Apply self-management techniques to better manage stress
- Formulate career plans

Assessment task

- The focus of this unit is on students developing and extending their own understanding of themselves and their interaction and behaviour with others.

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain key concepts and theories in leadership
- Recognise change processes and impediments to change
- Formulate career plans

Assessment tasks

- The focus of this unit is on students developing and extending their own understanding of themselves and their interaction and behaviour with others.

Changes from Previous Offering

The unit assessments underwent change due to the introduction of a new MQ Assessment policy in second session 2016. The group assessment has been removed and the introduction of the Action Learning assessment to be undertaken as a visual media presentation eg Video rather than written report. A reduction in the number of Self Reflection journal entries from five (5) to two (2), corresponding with an increase in word length and subsequent increase in mark value.

As there is no longer a Group Assessment, the Peer Assessment has also been removed.

Global Contexts and Sustainability

The topic areas of global contexts and sustainability are underpinned in this unit by both the lecture content and readings assigned and uploaded on iLearn. The focus is centred around the leadership applications of sustainability and the importance of leaders operating and understanding the global context.

Students are expected within their assessment task to acknowledge these concepts (if applicable) and apply them accordingly.

Research and Practice

This unit draws on research from a variety of sources. Students are encourage to conduct their own independent research on topics relevant to the course. Lectures and tutorials will include regular discussions about current practice as well as theoretical application.

Students can utilise a range of websites, journals and texts in conducting their own research. Examples of these are:

Sydney Morning Herald - <http://www.smh.com.au>

The Conversation - <https://theconversation.com/au>

The Leadership Quarterly

Harvard Business Review

This unit will give you extensive practice in applying theoretical knowledge to real world examples.
